

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Statzell, of Philadelphia, were guests of Mr. Thomas M. Fitzgerald at Sunday dinner at The Carolina.

Mrs. Charles H. Pray, of New York and Manchester, Vt., entertained at tea at the Club in honor of Mrs. Byron V. Covert, of Lockport, N. Y.

The summer weather of the past few weeks has given second place to bridge parties and picnics have taken the front. Mrs. Parker Whittemore, Mrs. W. B. Merrill, Mrs. W. C. Shepherd, Mrs. W. G. Soule and friends have had several picnic lunches, and on Sunday last there was a picnic dinner at Blue's Bridge at which about twenty of Mr. Parker Whittemore's friends joined in wishing him "many happy returns of the day."

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Magoon and Miss Katherleen McCall, of Beau Soleil, were dinner guests of Mr. W. A. Magoon at The Carolina on Saturday evening.
