More Building At Knollwood Village.

☐ The summer will see a lot of development at Knollwood Village. Major Nettleton has bought one of the lots from Judge Way fronting on the golf links on the Fairway road, and is getting ready to build a house 40 by 25.

☐ Judge Way is figuring on plans for a right pretentious building in the circle, near the brick house, and the likelihood is that it will result in a tea house, or small club house, or whatever it may be called, for the entertainment of visitors and parties on a somewhat elaborate scale.

☐ Other plans are on foot. The shrubbery has been set on a large area of the Way property.

The general plan is plain now where Judge Way is at work. Knollwood Village will be the most attractive village in Middle North Carolina, with Mid-Pines golf grounds as a big park for its front yard.

Turning the Next Page

☐ This season at Pinehurst is practically finished. Another two or three weeks and the crowds will be gone to their homes. The summer will be given over to a smaller population, and to an activity along other lines, for in summer different people come to Pinehurst, and in summer the work proceeds that makes Pinehurst each fall a different place.

☐ Now commences the annual spring building and expansion.

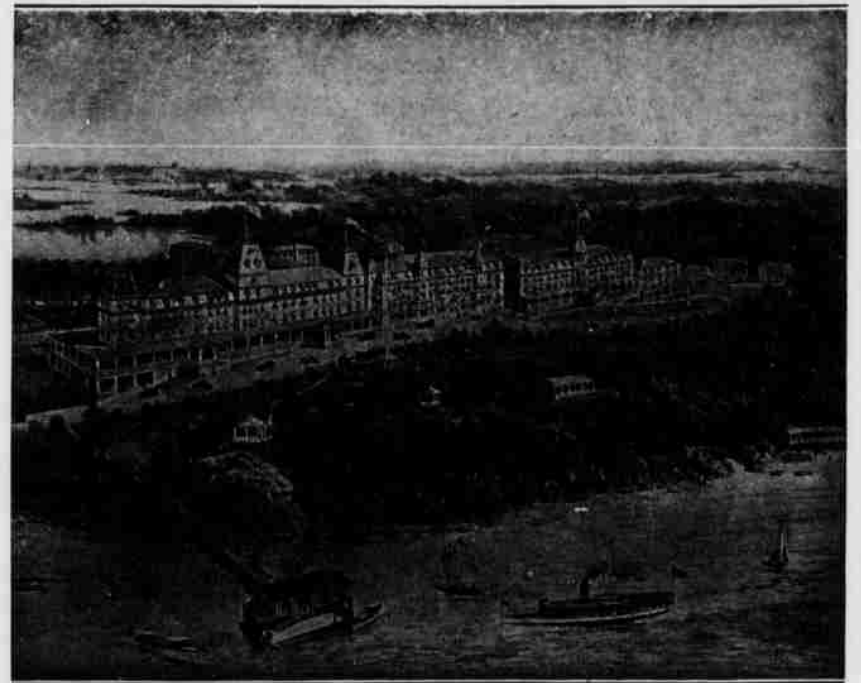

☐ New houses will go up during the summer, and other structures, just as has been the case every summer, and the fall will see a new Pinehurst as it has every year.

☐ This is the time to secure a location in Pinehurst for your winter home. This is the time to gain the benefits of the development that takes place during the summer.
