Reversing the Season.

The Signs Point to a Summer Season in the North Instead of a Winter Season at Pinehurst

Every fall the Pinehurst season opens earlier, and every spring it closes later.

Presently it will be realized that from the beginning of September until the middle of June Pinehurst is the most delightful place on earth to live.

Then folks will arrange to have the permanent home at Pinehurst, and to go North or to the mountains or to the sea along in July and August, and return to Pinehurst in September for the big end of the year in the permanent home.

The magnificent climate and outdoor conditions at Pinehurst during September, October, November, December in the fall and March, April, May and June in the spring, should never be missed.
