

All Season Members Tournament

PS. P. RANDOLPH, JR., a member of the Point Judith Country Club and Pinehurst's Winter cottage colony, won the first division honors and emoluments in the All-Season Members tournament which came to a close on Thursday last, by defeating Donald Parson 3 and 2 in the final round.

Parson, who is considered one of the best golfers here, was off his game in the finals and persistently encountered obstacles that proved his undoing, while Randolph played brilliant golf from the start to the finish and would have been a very difficult opponent for any player to defeat. Randolph registered birdies on the seventh, tenth, twelfth and sixteenth holes and played eight other holes in par. He drove to the green on the 186-yard sixth hole but required three putts after being on the sand and went down in four. He drove within striking distance of the green on the 213-yard sixteenth hole and ran down a fifty-foot putt for a birdie 2. He was out in 38 and back in 36 for a medal round of 74. Parson played twelve holes in 4's or better, but difficulties on several holes cost him the match and the tournament. He was stymied at the first hole; was in a bunker at the third, and ninth and drove to the woods from the tenth tee.

W. A. Rupp, of Buffalo, won the second division trophy by defeating J. R. Bowker, of Boston, 4 and 3, and C. L. Becker, of Philadelphia, N. Y., carried off the prize in the third division with a 2 and 1 victory over P. S. P. Randolph, Sr., father of the first division winner.

I. Hellman, of New York, came through victoriously and annexed the fourth division prize by defeating George T. Dunlap, also of New York.

Women Star at Traps

AN INTERESTING feature of the weekly hundred-target trapshooting tournaments this season is the excellent showing that women shooters are making. Mrs. Walter P. Andrews, of Atlanta, led the entire field this week and won chief honors and emoluments with a perfect score. Mrs. Andrews shot with the aid of a 40 handicap, but her 68 actual breaks out of the hundred targets thrown was a creditable showing and is worthy of much praise for a woman amateur shooter. Mrs. Andrews was followed by W. B. Campbell, of New York, with 79-20-99; E. R. Campbell, New York, 72-25-97; C. A. Chandler, Atlanta, 67-30-97; Walter P. Andrews, Atlanta, 52-40-92, and Margin Line, New York, 78-10-88.

Henry A. Page, Jr., led the field the week before and gathered in the first prize with a net score of 86-10-96. In this event another woman shooter played a prominent part when Mrs. Beverly L. Walter had 55 actual breaks to her credit and finished third in the field with a net target of 55-30-88, incidentally outshooting her husband by fourteen actual breaks. B. V. Covert, of Lockport, N. Y., finished second with 86-8-94. Others shooting were: Edw. Sweeting, Southern Pines, 66-17-83; C. S. Strout, Biddeford, Me., 63-20-83; Curtis Wiggs, Delaware Water Gap, 61-19-80; H. D. Epps, Lake City, 50-30-80, and Beverly L. Walter, Pinehurst, 41-30-71.

MISS LEWIS WINS AT RANGE

Miss Marion Lewis, of Chicago, registered the high target at the rifle range this week and won the prize with 141 points out of a possible 150. Mrs. Lawrence Barr, of Pinehurst, was second, with 140, and Miss Catherine Lewis and Mrs. J. G. Wellman, of New York, tied, at 136, for third place. Mrs. D. M. Barclay, of New York, and Miss Ethel C. Miller, of West Nyack, registered 135 and 120, respectively.

Franklin Simon & Co.

Fifth Avenue, 37th and 38th Streets, New York

For Madame and Mademoiselle

SWEATERS AND SKIRTS

Will play an important part at smart playgrounds

THE NEW COLORS OFFER STRIKING YET SOFTLY HARMONIOUS COLORS

Model 22—NEW WRAP-AROUND MODEL SKIRT made with the smart French flat back of finest quality flannel, in white, French coral, green, powder blue, gray, tortoise, yellow or acajou (mahogany) . . . 14.50

Model 24—MANNISH COAT SWEATER of pure Angora Wool in white, powder blue, French coral, green, yellow or gray 19.75

IN THE SKIRT AND SWEATER SHOPS

Charge Accounts Solicited

Entire Contents Copyrighted, 1924, by Franklin Simon & Co., Inc.