The Summer Playground of the South is only four hours away.

See something new—the finest and most popular beach resort on the South Atlantic.

A four-hour drive, over good highways, through beautiful country will bring you to this delightful garden-spot. See the North Carolina's big seaport; Wilmington, a city rich in history; many resort facilities; two 18-hole Donald Ross golf courses — and many, many things of interest.

Arrange your party now and come down tomorrow for a few hours, or a day or two. We will be glad to have you call on us for any information.
