

Wheless-Harris Vows Spoken In Henderson

HENDERSON — A wedding marked by beauty and simplicity took place at the Church of the Holy Innocents here on Saturday, April 24, at high noon when Miss Ruth Elizabeth Harris, daughter of Mrs. Reed Hopkins Harris, formerly of Seaboard, and the late Mr. Harris, became the bride of Louis Alfred Wheless, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Alfred Wheless of Lousburg.

The Rev. Herbert Nash Tucker, Jr., rector of the bride, officiated, and Lawrence Reed Harris, Jr., the bride's first cousin, assisted at the single ring ceremony which was held before members of the immediate families. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Max Smith, organist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Lawrence Reed Harris, Jr., of Raleigh, Md. Miss Sarah Copeland Harris, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant.

The bridegroom had as his best man, his father, Louis Alfred Wheless of Lousburg.

Ushers were Conrad B. Sturges, Jr. of Henderson, Paul W. Elam, Jr., of Washington, D. C., and William C. Perry, Jr., and Felix H. Allen, Jr., both of Lousburg.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Harris entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Henderson Country Club.

The bride is a graduate of Salem Academy in Winston-Salem, and she attended Mount Vernon Junior College in Washington, D. C. She was presented to North Carolina Society at the Terpsichorean Club Ball in Raleigh in 1963.

The bridegroom graduated from Lousburg High School. He attended Lousburg College, East Carolina College in Greenville, and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he was a member of the Sigma Nu Fraternity. He is now associated with Wheless Construction Company in Lousburg and Henderson.

After a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga., the couple will be at home in Lousburg.

Shucks!

Here we were set to tell you all about the snappy new things Rambler has come up with, like the Marlin, our hot new sports-fastback, and optional reclining bucket seats and anti-fade disc brakes, and two kinds of floor shifts, manual or automatic, and our big choice of hustling new engines... then we got this flash news—

Rambler American 440 wins Class B... 25⁶⁵ m.p.g.

Beats all other large-engine compacts in Mobil Economy Run

USAC

Use of Mobil Economy Run data approved and certified by the United States Auto Club

A Rambler American 440, with three-speed Flash-O-Matic transmission and peppy 125-hp Overhead Valve Six, has won its class again in the 1965 Mobil Economy Run.

And it won this victory over the roughest, toughest, longest, fastest course the Mobil people have come up with yet. Over 3,200 miles of sizzling desert, snow-capped mountains, gas-wasting city traffic, high-speed turnpikes.

But Rambler's got a lot more—the lowest-priced* U.S. sedans, wagons and convertibles . . . high resale value, proved by Official Used Car Guides. See how smart and sporty the Economy King can be—at your Rambler dealer today. American Motors—Dedicated to Excellence

*Based on manufacturers' suggested retail prices—American 220 sedan and wagon, 440 convertible.

Best economy of all cars, all classes, 4th straight year
