MISS ROSLYN BOWERS

Roslyn Bowers Making
Debut This Week-end

RALEIGH — Climaxing a summer of parties and dances, a young Northampton County miss will make her debut tonight at the 39th annual North Carolina Debutante Ball in Raleigh's Memorial Auditorium.

Roslyn Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bowers of Jackson, will join 200 other girls from throughout the state and their marshals in the traditional presentation ceremony and cart-wheel figure followed by an evening of dancing.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Rupert W. Hasty of Jackson announce the engagement of their daughter, Winston Glover to Joseph Caswell Callahan, III, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Callahan of Arcala, N. C. A December wedding is planned.

Lebanon WSCS
To Meet Monday

The weekend opened yesterday with a tea at the Governor's Mansion for the debs and their parents. It will end Saturday night with a formal dance at the Sir Walter Hotel. In between functions have been scheduled to keep the girls busy from dawn to dawn. According to Roslyn, the loss of a few hours sleep is a small sacrifice for the debs and their escorts, as they seek to cram all the excitement possible into what will be a long remembered occasion.

Roslyn, like the majority of the debs, has chosen her father to be her chief marshal. Her two assistant marshals are Henry Burgwyn of Jackson and Tom Summers of Statesville.
