By MARVA SHOULARS

The music teachers of the Ahoskie District Music Teachers Association met recently at the C. S. Brown High School, Winton, to plan for the District Festival. Mr. Ambrose, district chairman, conducted the business sessions of the meeting. The state music festival list was reviewed. Mrs. D. S. Majett, music director of Creecy school, attended the meeting.

Last Friday night the Panthers and Pantherettes played the R. L. Vann Trojans of Ahoskie. The Pantherettes defeated the Trojans and the Trojans defeated the Panthers.

On Monday night, December 13 the Silverlife Club presented the first Style-O-Rama in the Creecy auditorium. The Style-O-Rama had five different scenes, all including different styles and fashions of clothes. The queen of the Style-O-Rama was Mrs. Mary Everette of the "House of Beauty" in Ahoskie. The runners-up were Miss Ernestine Buffalo of Seaboard, and Mrs. Janet Bush of Rich Square. Music was rendered by John Turner and D. S. Majett.
