By JOURNALISM CLASS

Club Day, the second Thursday in each month, shakes up the routine of regular classes but gives all classes and clubs a regular time to meet. Meetings other than on that day are held to an absolute minimum.

February Club Day produced some interesting and important activities:

The Library Club held its regular meeting Thursday, February 10, in the library. The classification of books was discussed by Mrs. Garriss. Also, the idea of a scrapbook was introduced. During the Library Club meetings, the library is closed. Books to be returned may be placed in the book depository.

The Health Careers Club met on regular club day.

Mr. John Blanton from Roanoke-Chowan Hospital talked to students about job opportunities in a small hospital.

A large number of students, in addition to the members, attended to hear Mr. Blanton speak.

When the Boys' Monogram Club met on Club Day, the main order of business was the Faculty Booster Club basketball game which the boys will sponsor. A definite date has not been set.

Nancy Taylor was chosen as sweetheart of the Girls' Monogram Club on Thursday, February 10, when the club met.

The girls discussed events which they will sponsor, including a sports day for girls to be held in April, and to which all schools in the Albemarle Conference will be invited.

Another point of business was the semi-formal dance which will be held in the near future, and all NCHS students will be invited to attend.

The Albemarle Conference basketball tournament in progress at Bertie High this week gave some of the Betas going to Ahoskie for the conference double duties. Players and cheerleaders had to leave the conference early to get back to NCHS in time to board the bus going to Bertie.

Ramettes, tied for second place in the Albemarle Conference, won the toss of the coin to take second place.

Bennett Bryant, NCHS senior, constructed a snowman during the recent abundance of the white precipitation that could be called the "biggest" in the county. His "abominable snowman" stood 10 feet tall, four feet across the chest, and two and one-half feet from front to back. Bennett used his tractor as a scaffold as he fashioned his huge "sculpture."

When the All-Stars of third and fourth periods basketball teams, battled it out Monday, February 7, the third period, Gold team, downed the fourth period, Blue team, 40-34.

The Gold team held the lead most of the first half, but the Blues tied the Golds twice in the first half. At the end of the half the Golds held a 26 to 17 lead.

The Blues staged a comeback during the third quarter and nearly caught the Golds; however, the Golds remained in the lead 31 to 25 at the end of the third quarter.

In foul trouble, the Blue team was unable to overtake the Gold team in the last quarter. The final whistle showed third period ahead 40 to 34.

Dan Edwards, Gold; and Bill Warmack, Blue, were high scorers with 20 each. Other scorers for third period were Rick McGee, seven; Larry Shackelford, nine; Jay Watson, two; and Butch Parker and John Lee, one each.

Other scorers for the losers were Benjie McKellar, six; W. N. Taylor, Bobby James, Leslie Long, and James Deloatche with two each.

Bill Coleman starred as spotter for the PE matches.

Most Runs
CINCINNATI (UPI) — The fourth-place Cincinnati Reds scored 825 runs during the 1965 National League season. The pennant-winning Los Angeles Dodgers crossed the plate 608 times.

THE RECIPE . . . Now for people, agencies, or other groups having cocktail parties, the experts tell you just how to determine the amount of whiskey to buy. They say to figure on three drinks per person, as an average. Some will have four; a few will have two; and you might have about one out of 25 who is a teetotaler. You can get, it says here, 18 drinks per fifth.

So if you have 100 people for a one-hour reception before dinner, you can figure on 300 drinks. Say 18 into this, and you come up with the necessity for about 17 fifths of whiskey. Some will drink Scotch and some bourbon. The cost will average $5 per fifth, or a total cost of about $85 for the dinner. And this doesn't include peanuts, popcorn, and potato chips.

HARDEST PART . . . We hear from up in the hill country that Evangelist Billy Graham, despite some little bouts with bad health last year, is continuing his vigorous exercise routines — every day and Sundays, too.

He has been advised that this is the best way to combat heart trouble. The Rev. Mr. Graham warms up for 15 minutes, and then really goes at it for two miles, much of it in a trot.

Do you know what part of this daily program has given him the most trouble? Not the knee-bends, or the hills, or the push-ups.

"The hardest part," he recently told friends, "was getting used to being stared at."

And that, coming from a man who has probably been "stared at" more than any other man living, is quite a mouthful.

Brown Tops G'berry In Monday Pair

By JOSEPH HALL
WINTON — The C. S. Brown Tigers took two victories from the Gumberry Lions on Monday night. The boys game was a 63-61 thriller.

The Tigerettes won revenge from a defeat in last week's RCAA conference tournament by taming the Lions in a 42-32 rout. The Tigerettes jumped off to an early 15 to eight lead in the first quarter as Darlene Porter poured in 11 of the 15 points.

The Tigerettes came back in the second quarter to increase their lead to 26 to 13. The Lions outscored Brown in the final half, 19-16. Leading the Tigerettes was Darlene Porter with 29 points. Brown 15 11 13 3-42 Gumberry 8 5 11 8-32

BROWN — Porter-29, Smith-5, Felton-4, Falice-2, Lewis-2. GUMBERRY — T. Garriss-12, G. Garriss - 11, Stephenson - 4, Peebles-2, Belle-2, Avent-1.

The Tiger varsity pulled out a close victory in the final minute. Brown blew a 12-point lead going into the last quarter, but seked out a two point victory at 63 to 61.

The Tigers moved out in front by five points in the first quarter

Drinks Being Served More Now In Spite Of Will Rogers

INTO SUMMER. . . Although the State requires 180 days of school — nine months, 20 days per month — each term, some systems fear they may not make it this year.

Scattered schools, mostly from Wilkes County west, have been closed for about 20 days, or a solid month. Reports reaching Raleigh are that a few have missed more than a month.

So, knee-deep into June they go — and Saturdays, too — in an effort to get in the required time. But we have snows and bad weather on Saturday, too, so don't be surprised if we come up lacking here and there on 180 FULL days.

BABY BOOM SUBSIDIES . . . A few years ago it appeared this State would never be able to have sufficient classroom space for the ever-swelling school population.

In 1961, for example, there was seven per cent more students enrolled in North Carolina public schools than in the previous year. In 1962, we had nearly seven-and-a-half per cent more than in 1961.

But now we are running less than one per cent gain over last year.

VIET NAM . . . Note: Educators tell you of the record to keep an eye out for another good increase in school population about 1971-73.

How and why? Additional marriages and babies in 1965 and 1966 to avoid the Viet Nam draft. These children will go marching off to school some five and six years hence.

AND VOTE DRY . . . Raleigh does not rank anywhere near the national capital on per person drinking, but for a lowly State seat it never has taken a back seat.

There are many parties here, not all of them Democratic, and cocktails are served before the big dinners. And, increasingly we note, various types of wines are being served at some of the meals.

At the receptions now, also, we see beer available for those who do not choose the whiskey route. Well, Will Rogers remarked about North Carolina some 35 years ago that we would vote dry as long as we could stagger to the polls.

But we seem to be voting wetter and staggering less. At least we are certainly getting wetter, with about 70 per cent of us only a few blocks or a few miles from a whiskey store.

at 11 to five. They increased their lead to 15 by outscoring the Lions 22 to 11 in the second quarter.

The Lions closed the gap to 12 in the third quarter by outscoring Brown 21 to 17.

The Lions pulled within one point at 60 to 59 with about a minute remaining. Then Gerald Manley sank two free throws for Brown to increase its lead to three points. The Lions pulled within one point again with two free throws of their own with 40 seconds left. The Tigers froze the ball and with one second left Britt was fouled for Brown. He sank the first to make the final score 63 to 61.

W. E. Garriss Field Trains In Korea

1 CORPS, Korea — Army Specialist Four Willie E. Garriss, 22, whose wife, Catherine, lives on Route 1, Conway, took part in Flying Tackle II, a one-week field training exercise conducted by 1 Corps in Korea that ended February 19.

Specialist Garriss participated in weapons firing and tactical maneuvers designed to maintain the combat proficiency of his unit.

A recorder in Battery A of the 12th Artillery's 6th Battalion, he entered the Army in August 1963 and arrived overseas in March 1965. Garriss completed basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga.

Garriss, a 1961 graduate of W. S. Creecy High School in Rich Square, attended North Carolina A & T College in Greensboro and worked for B. H. Macy & Co., Inc., New York, N. Y., prior to entering the Army.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. Garriss, Jr., of Rich Square.

FLYING HIGH—Ellsworth Vaughn goes high in the air to put the basketball through the hoop for two points for R. L. Vann Thursday night. Though successful in this skirmish, the Vann boys and Vaughn checked out short at the end of the game and were eliminated by Creecy, 72-65, in RCAA Tournament action.

The Roanoke-Chowan conference was held last week at Central High School in Gates County. The Panthers played Thursday night in a game with the R. L. Vann Trojans of Ahoskie, with the Panthers winning. This was a triumph and victory for both the team and school because it was the first time that the Panthers had beaten the Trojans in years. On Friday night, the Panthers were defeated by the Central Vikings by a score of 72-65.

The entire school was very proud of the team even if they did not win the tournament. We were equally proud of Roy Lassiter, a senior, who made all conference.

The annual Sweetheart Ball sponsored by the Silverlite Club will be held on Monday, February 28 at 8 o'clock p.m. in the Creecy gymnasium. An array of lovely girls will seek the title Miss Sweetheart of 1966. The public is invited to attend.

The thought for the week is: "Don't be an ancient bridge in a modern world."
