Missions
Is Topic
For WSCS

SEABOARD — Members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Seaboard charge for the month of February turned their thoughts to missions.

During the first of the month Mrs. Taylor Oakes from the First Methodist Church of Roanoke Rapids conducted a study at the Seaboard church with women from Sharon and Pleasant Grove in attendance. The study, "Missions: The Christian's Calling" was the basis for Mrs. Taylor's discussion.

Last Thursday the women met in the Sharon Church. Mrs. J. W. Boone, Sr., of the Pleasant Grove society talked on the book, "Realms of Our Calling." She made a concise presentation of what it means to be called as Christians, both as individuals and as members of the church. She quoted Wesley who said, "The World is Our Parish." Mrs. Mary Seaver gave the devotion.
