Piano Team To Present

Tues. Concert

ROANOKE RAPIDS — A new piano team, Derek and Ray, a musical bridge between London, England, and Brooklyn, N. Y., will be featured in a concert on Tuesday, November 22, at 8:30 p.m. in the Roanoke Rapids Junior High School building.

The concert is sponsored by the Roanoke Valley Mutual Concert Association. Attendance is by admission only. Ray served as accompanist for Robert Goulet on a recent concert tour Goulet made.

The team began quite accidentally. Derek Smith was auditioning for Marty Gold for RCA Victor when Ray arrived early from Brooklyn for an audition. When Ray began to ad lib at the key board, Gold requested that Ray sit in with Derek. Soon the two were rendering songs from the "Sound of Music" and a new team was discovered.

Severn Girl In ECC Glee Club

GREENVILLE — The Women's Glee Club of East Carolina College, under the direction of Beatrice Chauncey, has 36 members for its current season. Miss Chauncey, a faculty member in the School of Music which sponsors the group, arranged for auditions earlier in the year in order to select the 36 girls.

She has also arranged a season schedule which opened with a special concert at Kinston's Granger High School November 3 and includes Christmas and Spring concerts later.

Singers in the Glee Club include Margaret Ann Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ardell Long of Severn.

Rites Monday For Mrs. W. L. Baker

RICH SQUARE — Mrs. Isetta Jones Baker, 44, died Saturday in her home.

A native of Northampton County, she was a daughter of Mrs. Lalor Barnes Jones of Lasker and the late Daniel M. Jones and the wife of Willie L. Baker. She was a member of New Hope COMPLETES TRAINING — Pvt. Linwood C. Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Bryant of Rich Square, has completed his eight weeks of basic training at Fort Bragg and is now stationed at Fort Lee, Va. Bryant, training as a typist in the order room for the Quarter Master Co. Supply Depot, entered the army in August, 1966. He is married to the former Evelyn Pope of Seaboard.

Methodist Church. Besides her husband and mother, surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Baker Parker of Aoshkie and Miss Yvonne Baker of the home; two sisters, Mrs. Fred Brewer of Rich Square and Mrs. Edward A. Davis of Conway; two brothers, Lester W. Jones of Jacksonville, Fla., and W. L. Jones of Windsor, Va.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were at 2:30 p.m. Monday in Rich Square Baptist Church by the Rev. L. Thad Prevaite, the Rev. O. S. Williams and the Rev. F. H. Jackson. Burial was in Cedar Lawn Cemetery in Rich Square.

MONEY QUESTION

Taking it with you is not important—the problem is to make it last until you're ready.

RAM TRACK

The Tigers clinched the boys advanced PE volleyball championship by defeating the Red Boogers in two out of three contests.

The first game was won by the Tigers. Then the Red Boogers came back to win the second game very easily, but the Boogers let down and got beaten 15-6 in the final and deciding game.

The Tigers are Stuart Bryant, Wayne Bazemore, Bruce Bryant, Larry Bullock, Dan Edwards, Jimmy Glover, Larry Harvey and Jesse Hoggard. Larry Harvin was cited as being outstanding for his team.

The Hotnuts copped the freshman PE volleyball championship by defeating the Stingrays in two straight games.

The members of the Hotnuts are Riddick Ricks, Phil Deloatch, Dan Joyner, Larry Mann, Newton Stephenson and Edward Timberlake.

These teams will play for PE championship this week and then the winner will meet other challengers for school title.

Two busloads of Northampton students and teachers attended the University of North Carolina vs. U.S. Air Force football game on November 12 at Chapel Hill.

Spirits were dampened first by rain and then by the Air Force's 20-14 victory. After the football game, many of the group attended the Carolina basketball team's scrimmage in Carmichael gymnasium, crowded by other spectators.

Despite the weather the day turned out to be a big success, enjoyed by all attending. This was especially true for the Carolina graduates — Mr. Carroll, Mr. Sutton and Mr. Vaughan — who turned the day into a homecoming.

Correction: The guests of the teachers at the dinner meeting in Gaston High School's new cafeteria included the members of the County Board of Education and their wives instead of the members of the advisory council of NCHS.

Wayne Woodard, president of Student Council at NCHS, attended the state convention of SC Congress in Kinston Monday and Tuesday. John Parker, secretary, and Papp Vaughan, treasurer, completed the three delegate representation from NCHS. Each school was limited to three representatives.

Mrs. Futrell was the accompanying faculty adviser. All delegates were housed in private homes. The NCHS delegation was invited several weeks ago to stay with the Phil Taylors. Mr. Taylor, who taught at NCHS, is now connected with the community college in Kinston. Wayne and Rick, his sons who attended NCHS, now go to school in Kinston and Mrs. Taylor teaches in the elementary school.

The student body was given the opportunity to express a choice on the finish of the new piano purchased by magazine sales profits. The decision was overwhelming for a dark finish, darker than that of the piano displayed at assembly last Friday.
