ON THE WING.

On Sunday last it was the privilege of your editor, with your young friend Walter Thomas, to spend a portion of the day at the beautiful country home of his mother. It was a most enjoyable occasion, made doubly so by the excellent rendition of choiced religious songs with piano accompaniment by Miss Mary Thomas, the excellent popular assistant teacher of the Ellerbe Springs High School. After dinner, Mr. E. and Miss May accompanied us to the Ellerbe Springs, where the people of the community were to meet for their practice. This was conducted by C. F. Key, who is master of his profession, a horn teacher and choir leader. The singing was excellent. It was an unexpected pleasure to meet Misses Janie and Marie Baldwin, and Miss Walters, the music teacher at Covington and Mr. R. T. Galtly. Of course we expected to meet Prof. Cridlebaugh and all the resident pupils of the school, and in this, we were not disappointed. It was also our pleasure to meet Mrs. Hart, who has been of such valuable service to us in adding to the popularity of the journals we have paid, and if there is not enough money on hand to pay it he is expected to stand the loss and is abused if he objects. He is a hewer of wood and a drawer of water—a pack horse for every cheap akate of a politician who poses as the whole thing at the expense of the editor. Then when his party triumphs the country editor can stand on the sidewalk in his last year's clothes and see the procession go by.—Illinois State Register.
