

THE "GREAT HEADLIGHT" goes to more homes in Richmond County, and is read by more people than any other paper, of any kind published in the County, or elsewhere

LOCAL COLUMN.

Brief Items Gathered From Many Places For Busy People.

Victor Furr visited his family at Biscoe, last Saturday.

Mr. A. T. White, of Mountain Creek, was here last Monday.

Mr. A. F. Stewart has returned from a business visit to Texas.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. W. L. Steele's health has greatly improved.

Mr. T. P. Richardson, of Pee Dee, Anson county, spent last Monday in Rockingham.

Mr. Gaston Baldwin, who has a hosiery mill on Mountain Creek, was a visitor here last Monday.

Miss Annie Boggan left last Saturday to visit relatives at Biscoe, Mt. Gilead, and Wadeville.

Mr. J. T. Edwards, who has been at Roberdel No. 2 for some time, is now with Mr. E. S. Davis.

We are pleased to learn that Mr. F. J. Furr, who is ill at the residence of Mr. Morton, is thought to be improving.

We are pleased to see Mr. John G. Terry able to be on the street, and in better condition than he was some days ago.

A number of our old vets attended the Anson re-union, at Wadeboro last Friday. They say they had a good time.

Mr. John G. Forbis, of Scotland county, and family, are visiting others, on Mountain creek.

Mr. J. F. DeBerry and little son, of Wadeboro, spent Saturday and Sunday with the families of Messrs. Y. M. and E. M. Boggan.

We were pleased to meet several young ladies of this section at Mt. Pleasant, last Sunday, among them, our fair correspondent, V. S. C., and sister.

We regret to learn of the death of that faithful old Christian gentleman, Rev. Leonard Webb. Capt. Everett will give us an obituary notice next week.

We had our jury list for last week's term, but could find no space for it, so we publish it in this issue. Later will publish the list for the second court.

We are glad to learn that Mr. J. E. Millikin, of Marks' Creek township, whose crop was destroyed by the great hail storm, has a position with a lumber company, at McBea, S. C.

Our office had a pleasant visitor a few days ago in the person of Mr. M. Chance, who brought us a sack of peaches and six fine cabbage heads. Such kindness was highly appreciated.

Mr. Maloney, of Fayetteville, a most agreeable and prepossessing gentleman and an old friend of Hon. George Warburton, spent last Saturday with Mr. Warburton. We appreciate their call at the Headlight office.

If merchants want their "ads." to be read only by the "busy" people, we can't advise them to place them in the Headlight; but if they want them read by the great masses in this and adjoining counties, the Headlight is the paper you are hunting for.

Mrs. Lineberry requests the Headlight to say that she will be absent from home next week, and on her return will take up the work of cleaning clothing, as carried on by her late husband. All work given to her will be appreciated, and executed promptly and satisfactorily.

Capt. Crosland, of lower Wolf Pit, was in town Monday.

Dr. J. H. Williamson spent a few hours in town last Friday.

Everybody should clean up their entire premises, and keep off fever.

Mr. M. L. Hinson is visiting relatives and friends in Lancaster, S. C.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Dunn Hinson's condition is much more favorable.

See ad. of Mr. C. M. Hobbs, land for sale. Somebody might get a choice bargain here.

Miss Annie Powell, of Clarkton is a visitor at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hobbs.

Bring us in a 56 pound watermelon. We don't believe there is one in the county. We shall see.

Miss Anna Roberts, of Wolf Pit, and Miss Berta Ridenhour, of Anson county, were in town last Monday.

Mr. E. F. Hester, of Hamlet, was on a business visit here last Monday, and made an appreciative call at our office.

We are pleased to see so many public roads being worked, although some of them have not been much improved.

Col. R. T. Bennett's obituary notice of Capt. Frank Bennett, in the M. & I., was of its kind, a gem of the first water.

Messrs. Palmer & Co. are putting up a bakery and will soon be able to furnish the community with fresh bread and cakes.

We are glad to be able to state upon the authority of Rev. M. N. [Name obscured] that the condition is quite favorable now.

We had the pleasure of meeting a number of our friends of Black Jack, Mineral Springs and Steele's townships, last Sunday, at Mt. Pleasant.

Traveling over the road to Mt. Pleasant, last Sunday, we were really surprised to find the cotton crop so unfruitful. We saw some good corn and some that was not good.

The editor regrets not being in his office when his friends, Messrs. J. W. Bounds, of Charlotte, and E. T. Bounds, of Rocky Fork, called, last Saturday. Come again, boys.

When Mr. W. W. Gibson and C. H. Key shall have passed over the river, who, on this side, can fill their places as musical instructors, and choir leaders? Echo answers, who?

Mr. Will Lineberry, a tailor by trade, who has been a citizen of Rockingham for several years, died last Thursday. He had been ill for some time. So far as we are informed he was a good citizen. Our sympathy is with the bereaved family.

Mr. Graham Knight, heretofore of the Anglo-Saxon force, has secured a position with Edwards & Broughton, at Raleigh, and left yesterday, to enter on his work. Graham deserves great credit for caring for his widowed mother and family. The Headlight hopes he will find friends in his new home, and that his employees will find him competent, reliable and industrious, and in every sense of the word, a gentleman.

See "ad" of Public School Committee, District No. 1, Rockingham township, for teachers for their school. This district takes in the two Pee Dee factory villages. The school building is the handsomest school building in the county. President Leak, Mr. Wm. Entwistle and others are to be greatly commended for furnishing this large and beautiful building—up-to-date in all its departments.

Mrs. A. M. McAulay is now with her daughter, Mrs. C. M. Hobbs.

Miss Nash, of Salisbury, is visiting her cousins, the Misses Wright.

We regret to learn of the illness of a child of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Young.

Miss Annabel Wishart and her mother spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Hadley.

Miss Lillie Lyon left Tuesday morning for a visit to relatives in the Eastern part of the State.

We have before us a full grown boll of cotton, fully open. Mr. Hunsucker says he saw a number of open ones.

Mrs. Dr. J. M. Covington, of Wadeboro, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. M. Hobbs, on Washington street.

Miss Augusta MacRae, of Raeford, N. C., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Hobbs. Her many friends are delighted to see her.

Our old friend Mr. Needham Haaty has presented us with a cabbage stalk which has fourteen distinct, small heads—a freak of nature.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gibson, of Roberdel, spent one day this week with the family of Editor Pool. Mr. Gibson was a pleasant caller at this office.

Rev. D. C. Britt will fill his appointment at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and night. Possibly the bell may not be rung—don't wait for the bell.

Our capacity to destroy "good rations," but in this particular business, we are half-way tempted to "yield the cake" to our brother Pool.

J. M. Hines and "Bud" Baldwin, two bright boys from Mountain Creek, are in Rockingham this week laying the last end of the "Trans-Continental Cable." So says "G."

The body of R. H. Butler, the tobacco drummer who was drowned in Northeast river a few days ago, was found on Tuesday by his brother, about two hundred yards below where he drove into the river.

Some of our Richmond boys who attended the Confederate re-union last Friday, at Wadeboro, had not returned up to last Sunday. It is said they were wounded by leap-year darts. Can't say that all have returned yet.

Mr. H. C. Watson has just received a very fine, and most beautiful hearse, the finest we ever saw—much finer than any vehicles here, that are used for pleasure purposes. It's a fine vehicle but a fellow has to die to get a ride in it.

The remains of Mrs. J. B. Williams, of Wolf Pit, who died at Wadeboro on Wednesday arrived here yesterday and were taken to Pleasant Grove for interment. Further particulars of her death will appear in the Headlight, next week.

We overheard "the little bird" twitting the soul-stirring strains of that good old song—"Haste to the wedding." The sound came from towards the North, and seemed to be, not far off. We "throw-her" congratulations in advance.

We are informed that Messrs. H. C. Watson, John G. Terry, and others whose names we did not learn went last Tuesday to the sand hills of Mineral Springs and Beaver Dam, for a deer, or "dear" hunt,—our informant didn't say which it was.

Mr. J. A. Hutchinson, of Covington, was in town on Thursday.

Mr. W. J. Thomas, of Charlotte spent Wednesday here with his brother Walter, the old, and the new Register of Deeds.

Mr. John Carr, who has been having a gay old time in Anson for about a week, brought us a small twig taken from an apple tree on which there were four fine apples. John got the apples all right, but didn't bring the girl—guess he'll do that next time.

Mr. A. G. Terry.

This grizzled old Confederate veteran, who is one of Richmond's best boys, and who left her about 50 years ago, and who, since a short visit about 87 years ago, has been far away from his kindred and his native State, after a pleasant visit here returned to his home in Texas, last Wednesday.

Accident At Roberdel.

Mr. William Garris, Mrs. John Sedberry and two little children, one a babe in its mother's arms, were badly injured in a runaway, last Monday. All were thrown from the buggy. Mr. Garris had his collar bone broken. Mrs. Sedberry and the babe were badly hurt, but the other child escaped injury.

Haywood-Moore.

On Sunday, August 7th, two hearts were made happy by the happy marriage of Miss Eliza Haywood, one of the former bright lights of the "Headlight's" Children's Department, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Haywood, and Mr. John Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Giles Moore.

The Headlight's best wishes are with the happy young pair, praying for them all that is desirable and obtainable in this life, and eternal rest in the "sweet beyond."

Capel's Mill Sunday School.

Mr. George Warburton addressed the Capel's Mill Sunday school last Sunday. He says there was a good crowd present and everything passed off pleasantly. This school has 165 on its roll. Several years ago, this editor accompanied Mr. Warburton to this point for a similar purpose, and we had a splendid time going there, and while there, but we had a most unpleasant experience returning home. By mistake, we took the wrong road and got lost in the woods, and while there a severe thunder storm overtook us. After the storm was over, we found our way back to the main road and drove into Rockingham at 12 o'clock, at night, safe and sound, and we haven't been lost since.

Jurors For Next Court.

This will be a "criminal court" and will be opened September the 5th to last one week. There will be another term, to last two weeks commencing September 26th. The first week will be devoted to the criminal docket, and the second, to the civil docket. At both terms, Judge Peebles will preside.

JURORS FOR FIRST TERM.

W. H. Boswell, S. W. Sneed, D. W. Sedberry, O. T. Goodwin, T. H. Ramage, A. D. Seaborn, A. J. Williams, J. W. Rainwater, F. E. Terry, A. McIntosh, E. H. LeGrand, Jno. A. McNeill, A. J. Millikin, A. C. Nichols, Daniel Lowe, J. C. Robbins, W. J. Eddins, B. E. Hart.

W. B. Thompson, B. C. Hinson, C. B. Ewing, W. H. Roberts, H. J. Meacham, F. T. Bigger, J. P. Leak, F. Shortridge, J. S. Stone, D. C. Jenkins, Needham Haaty, James Hines, J. H. Meeks, E. N. Covington, S. B. Ingram, K. L. Rainwater, J. J. Cole, M. A. Davis.

Will give list for second term, next week.

Call for goods or work, I can't pay my way with promises. Call at once.—W. S. Fowkes.

THE AGONY IS OVER AT LAST

Walter Thomas, John W. Covington and E. M. Boggan Are the Winners in the Second Primary.

The primary has been held, and all is calm, and to some, sweetly serene. Things have changed just a little, and possibly other changes will follow.

Below we give a tabulated statement of the county vote. This report is not official, but is considered accurate. W. S. Thomas is nominated for Register of Deeds by nearly 300 majority, and Messrs. J. W. Covington and E. M. Boggan were nominated for County Commissioners by a good majority.

THE COUNTRY.

Interesting Dots From Our Faithful Correspondents.

Rocky Fork.

We have had a good many visitors from different parts of the country for the last three weeks and everybody seemed to be having a good time.

Mr. A. G. Terry and daughter Miss Sallie, have returned to their home in Louisville, Texas, after spending a highly esteemed visit to many friends and relatives in this part of the country.

Mr. J. W. Bounds left for his home in Charlotte, last Saturday night after spending a welcome visit to his many friends and relatives in this section. Come again John.

We have been informed that there will be a picnic at the Nath Gibson old mill pond next Saturday—lets all go.

Mrs. G. G. Terry and little ones were visiting at Mr. J. G. Terry's last Saturday night and Sunday.

Misses Jennie Terry and Cora Lee Sullivan, of Ledbetter's, were visiting at E. T. Bounds' and J. G. Terry's last Saturday night and Sunday.

C. B. Terry and E. T. Bounds, of this section, were in Rockingham last Saturday.

We have a boy on Rocky Fork who is wearing smiles a yard long these days—a new banjo, that's all.

Miss Carrie Gibson was visiting at J. H. Thrower's, near Silver Run, last week.

We hear that Buren O'Brien is a little better. We hope he may soon recover.

Our editor has promised to give a year's subscription to the Headlight to the one bringing in the largest watermelon. But we want to change it a little—we believe it is a plan he got up simply to eat the best melons and we are going to let it go that way.

One of our best neighbors was not at the picnic at Ledbetters—well we'll see him in a few days. Gobbler.

Pee Dee.

Mr. Horner has severed his connection with the mill for the Soco & Petty machine shop.

The writer had the pleasure of visiting in Raleigh last Sunday.

Miss Lillian Shaw, of Raleigh, is spending this week with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rainwater.

We regret to learn that Miss Maggie Pittman isn't any better.

Misses Rebecca and Idel Harris are visiting at Ghio, this week.

Misses Mary and Dora Parker are visiting relatives in Anson.

Miss Blanch Rainwater has returned home from Raleigh.

Mr. Daniel McInnis attended children's day exercises at Mount Pleasant, last Sunday.

Our mill is running on regular time now. Sunshine.

Anglo-Saxon Dissolved.

"The Anglo-Saxon Publishing Company, which produced Richmond county's hustling Democratic paper, was dissolved by the Secretary of State yesterday by the stockholders' unanimous consent.

Editor Ben H. Story has bought the plant from the corporation and will continue the publication of the paper as heretofore."—The Raleigh News and Observer.

This is a new "Story" to us. We guess Bro. Pool has seen the above "Story" and we await his story of the "Story."

Protracted Meetings.

The following meetings have been announced for Roberdel Circuit:

Ledbetter's, 3rd Sunday in Aug. Green Lake, 4th Sunday in Aug. Mt. Olive, 1st Sunday in Sept. Beaver Dam, 4th Sunday in September.

Other meetings will be announced later, and published in the Headlight.

C. G. Kilgore, P. C.

FOR SALE.

I have five one-half acre lots, at Roberdel No. 2, I will sell for cash or credit.

C. M. HOBBS.
