Outlook Of The Southern Farmer W.

CHARLES A. WHITTLE,

Soil Improvement Committee, Atlanta, Ga.

Prosperity glows on the horizon of the Southern farmer's future—if he will raise big crops. And the cry of a needy world rises, urging the Southern farmer to grow big crops of cotton and food. His obligation is to respond. He must fight on, for peace brings no armistice for the farm. Cotton is the hope of the ragged world. War-torn countries are looking to the fields of the South for help. It will not be in vain. The Southern farmer will meet his responsibility. Prices at which cotton crop will be sold will be such as will pay the farmer well, for the fact will remain that the world must have the ootton.

soy beans of the South will find read; market for the oil or fats that they contain. Cattle, hogs and dairy products will continue to bring good prices because of the heavy live stock losses of Europe.

The Southern farmer should plan with an expectation of improving his labor condition, with the return of troops and the shutting down of ammunition factories. Immediate Preparation.

Preparation for spring planting rhould go rapidly shead. Seed, fertilizers and other farm supplies should be bought without delay. Materials on which the government has fixed prices will continue to be stabelized until they are consumed, so that there are no prospects of lower prices before spring plarting.

Delay means to face shipping difficulties. The railroads are going to be overburdened with traffic for some time to come. They should be given

FOOD INSPECTORS HOLD CONFERENCE

Raleigh, December 30-The Inspectors for the Food Administra tion in North Carolina were in conference today with State Food Administrator Henry A. Page. With the removal of the regulations upon eating-houses and most of the regulations upon the wheat milling industry, the work of the inspectors is lightened to some extent and Ad ministrator Page today instructed the inspectors to devote the greater part of their time and attention to the detection of profiteering or speculation in food stuffs and to preaching the gospel of conservation so that food supplies may be available for export to the starving millions in Europe,

Profiteering will be severely punshed up until the day the Food Administrator ceases to be which will be when the treaty of peace is
