RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR

the Aggregate Amount of Levy for Local Improvements, Maturities, Interest, Payments, Etc., of $6426.34, or $2.00 Per Lineal Foot Frontage, for Paying One-Third of the Cost of Paving Either Side of Main Street of the Town of Sylva, Jackson County, North Carolina, Authorized by an Ordinance Adopted July 3, 1923.

Be it resolved by the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Sylva:

Section 1. The aggregate principal amount of the Local Improvements hereby levied against the abutting property owners on either side of main Street for the purpose of paying one-third of the cost of paving Main Street on either side to that portion paved by the State Highway Commission is $6426.34, or $2.00 per lineal foot frontage, the same being authorized by an Ordinance duly passed by the said Board of Commissioners of the Town of Sylva on the 3 day of July, 1923.

Section 2. That the said levy hereby made is for the purpose of paying one-third (1-3) of the cost of paving Main Street, extending from either side towards the center of said Street to that portion paved by the State Highway Commission, the same being a public necessity and for Local Improvement, and the usefulness of said improvement is about Twenty Years.

Section 3. That the said assessments hereby levied against the property abutting Main Street in said Town shall be divided into Four (4) equal payments, one, two, three and four years, and all deferred payments or installments to bear six (6) per cent interest from the date the levy is completed as provided in said Ordinance, and the payments to be in the fall of the years 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926, when other taxes are due and payable, and the payments to be numbered one, two, three and four. Both principal and interest to be due and payable on the dates herein named, and the same to be paid to the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Sylva or to the Town Tax Collector, and the same to be paid in lawful money of the United State of America.

Section 4. That the amounts and sums hereby assessed or levied against the abutting property on either side of Main Street shall be and the same is hereby declared to be a lien on all real property abutting on either side of Main Street and the same shall be in full force and effect from the date of said assessments or levies until the same shall be paid in full, both principal and interest, as provided by law in such cases, Municipal Finance Act, Chapter 106, public laws of the Extra Session, 1921, of North Carolina, and the Acts Amending thereto, and sections 2703 to 2728 inclusive of the Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina.

Section 5. That this ordinance shall be published once a week for four successive weeks after its final passage, as required by the Municipal Finance Act, and the Acts Amending thereto.

Section 6. That this ordinance shall take effect on and after its first publication. The assessments herein levied is for a public necessity: to-wit: for paying one-third of the cost of paving either side of Main Street in the Town of Sylva.

The foregoing Ordinance was passed on the 3 day of July, 1923, and was first published on the 10 day of August, 1923.

Any action or proceedings questioning the validity of said Ordinance must be commenced within Thirty Days after its first publication. State of North Carolina, Jackson County.
