

MANY WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

Through the Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Two Interesting Cases

Some female troubles may through neglect reach a stage when an operation is necessary. But most of the common ailments are not the surgical ones; they are not caused by serious displacements, tumors or growths, although the symptoms may appear the same. When disturbing ailments first appear, take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve the present distress and prevent more serious troubles. Many letters have been received from women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after operations have been advised by attending physicians.

Mrs. Edwards Avoids Operation
Wilson, N. C.—“For about a year I was not able to do anything, not even my housework, because of the pains in my sides and the bearing-down pains. I could only lie around the house. The doctor said nothing but an operation would help me, but I tried different medicines which did no good, until my sister insisted on my trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She said there was nothing like it. I know that she was right, for I began to improve with the first bottle and it has done me more good than anything else. I am able now to do anything on the farm or in my home and I recommend it to my friends.”—LILLIE EDWARDS, R. F. D. 3, Box 44, Wilson, N. C.

Another Operation Avoided
Akron, Ohio.—“I can never praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly for what it has done for me. I had such pains and weakness that the doctor told me nothing but an operation would help me. But my mother had taken the Vegetable Compound and she told me what it had done for her, and so I took it and I am glad to tell every one that it made me a strong woman, and I have had two children since then.”—Mrs. R. G. WESTOVER, 325 Grant Street, Akron, Ohio.

AUTUMN ASTERS

"We're all fond of the autumn," said the Red-Stalked or Purple-Stemmed Aster, "though some of us stay around longer than others of us—if that is the correct way for me to speak.

"I am well known and well liked, I believe. My name is as it is because my stem is reddish. There are a number of flowers on various little stems from my one big stem and I'm of a violet color or pale lavender color.

"All of us are considered nice autumn flowers and we have heard of people who are particularly fond of asters—wild asters such as we are.

"We have thin leaves which aren't very big, quite different from the leaves of our cousin, Large-Leaved Aster.

"Those cousins, as you can guess, have large leaves. Their name tells you that, and then, I have already told it to you, so now you know it twice.

"If you see them, and doubtless you have seen them, you will know that three times."

"Ah, yes," said Billie Brownie, "I do know that bit of information now that I have seen those cousins of yours."

Then Billie Brownie went and called on Late Purple Aster.

The Late Purple Asters were larger flowers, with long, thin petals and yellow centers, and there were fewer flowers on these flower plants.

Each little branch that went off from the main stem had but a single flower upon it, and the flowers were deep violet blue in color.

"We're late in arriving," they said. "But we're late in leaving, too," they added.

"You see," they told Billie Brownie, "we're very fond of brilliant coloring, and the autumn is the time when the coloring is so wonderful.

"Of course, when we arrive in the middle of the summer the coloring is beautiful, for the harvest makes it so rich and lovely, and then the Golden-rod is about, and they are so splendidly gay and bright in appearance.

"Then the Black-Eyed Susans are about, and all of the different Aster relatives are to be found in their different home spots.

"And from the middle of the summer on it seems to us as though the coloring grew more wonderful day after day, week after week.

"When the autumn is actually here, then it gets so that its beauty is beyond expression.

"We wondered how it could be so beautiful this year as, day after day, it did become more marvelous and the trees told us a secret and the shrubs and the vines said that the secret was one in which they shared, too.

"But they told me we could tell the secret to any one really interested in Nature.

"And we can see that you are, Billie Brownie."

"Oh, do tell me the secret," said Billie Brownie. "It will give me so much pleasure to hear it."

"We asked the trees how it was that they grew lovelier each day and how it was that they could become so wonderful.

"It seemed to us that each day we could not see them any more beautiful, and yet they were more beautiful and we could tell that people felt the same way about them.

"People would say that the days were so wonderful that they could not describe them—that they had used up all their words.

"And the trees told us this: "Late Purple Asters," the trees said as they swayed in the breeze, "we are Mother Nature's children, and we want to look our best for our mother before we take off our finery and go to sleep."

"We are so pleased that she is pleased that we go on each day trying to look better and better, each of us doing the same.

"We add a dash of color here or a dash of color there, and we just try to please her more and more and more. And, as we try to please her more and more and more, we keep improving ourselves and looking better and better.

"You know this is the secret: When we receive praise which is deserved from one we so dearly love we do better and better and better.

"Praise only makes us want to show that we will not disappoint the one who thinks so well of us. We will be worthy of that praise."

"That was the secret the trees told us," the flowers ended.

And Billie Brownie thought it was a beautiful secret, but he was glad that all could hear the secret who were really interested in Nature.

"Nice Autumn Flowers."

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 30

REVIEW: GREAT MEN AND WOMEN OF THE NEW TESTAMENT

DEVOTIONAL READING — H. B. 11:15-16, 39, 42.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us."—Heb. 12:1.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Favorite Story of the Quarter.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Favorite Heroes and Heroines of the Quarter.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Some Great Characters of the New Testament.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Life Lessons From This Quarter.

With the senior and adult classes, three methods of review may be profitably employed:

1. The descriptive word method as presented in Peloubet's Select Notes.
1. Brave John the Baptist.
2. The Faith-Filled Virgin Mary.
3. Impulsive Peter.
4. Loving John the Apostle.
5. Thoughtful Matthew.
6. Ardent Mary Magdalene.
7. Busy Martha and Open-Hearted Mary.
8. Faithful Stephen.
9. Generous Barnabas.
10. The Many-sided Paul.
11. Timid Mark.
12. Helpful Luke.
13. Consecrated Timothy.

2. Presenting Life Lessons as given in Crannel's Pocket Lessons:

1. Woman Lessons.
1. Mary: Glorified Motherhood. Lesson 2.
2. Magdalene: Adoring Gratitude. Lesson 6.
3. Martha-Mary: Rounded Womanhood. Lesson 7.

II. Leader Lessons.

1. Peter: Compact Zeal. Lesson 3.
2. John: Ripened Love. Lesson 4.
3. Paul: Passionate Devotion. Lesson 10.

III. Helper Lessons.

1. John: Faithful Pioneering. Lesson 1.
2. Matthew: Divine Transformations. Lesson 5.
3. Stephen: Heroic Witness. Lesson 8.
4. Barnabas: Greatening Greatness. Lesson 9.

5. Mark: Return of the Quitter. Lesson 11.

6. Luke: Double Healer. Lesson 12.

7. Timothy: The Glorious Ministry. Lesson 13.

3. The Summarizing of Contents.

The following is suggestive:

Lesson I. John the Baptist was a humble and courageous man. He did not take honor to himself nor trim his message to suit the crowd.

Lesson II. Mary should not be worshipped, but she is worthy of great honor. Her faith made her to acquiesce in the Lord's will in spite of the fact that she knew that her character would be suspected.

Lesson III. Peter, while being fickle and cowardly, is a fine example of the transforming power of God's grace.

Lesson IV. John the apostle was a reticent man. He did not say much about himself, but was passionately in love with his Lord.

Lesson V. Matthew, though humble, was a man of force of character and decision. He left all and followed Jesus.

Lesson VI. Mary Magdalene, because she was saved, was steadfast in her devotion to the Lord. Because of this, she was able to tell the good news of the resurrection to the discouraged disciples.

Lesson VII. Mary and Martha both loved the Lord. Martha was mistaken as to the best way to please Him. Mary chose the good part in fellowship with her Lord which has made her name immortal.

Lesson VIII. Stephen was so completely filled with Christ that his face shone as the face of an angel.

Lesson IX. Barnabas was a good man and filled with the Holy Ghost. Therefore, he was qualified as a leader of men.

Lesson X. Paul's knowledge of Jesus was so real that he had as his supreme aim to magnify Him.

Lesson XI. Mark, though having turned back from the work, was restored and became a great and honored minister of Christ.

Lesson XII. Luke, the skilled and popular physician, gave himself up to be the attendant of the missionary of the cross.

Lesson XIII. Because of Timothy's religious training, he became a worthy minister of the gospel.

Corner Stone of Society.

The sanctity of marriage and the family relation make the corner stone of our American society and civilization.—Garfield.

Our Enemy.

A merely fallen enemy may rise again, but the reconciled one is truly vanquished.—Schiller.

Alabama Mayor Out With Strong Facts

Judge G. W. Thomason, Mayor of Tarrant City, Alabama, widely known and highly esteemed pioneer citizen, recently gave his unqualified endorsement to the Tanlac treatment.

Sleep was often impossible, and I gradually weakened so I could hardly attend to my office duties.

"The first bottle of Tanlac Improved me wonderfully, and each successive bottle gave added impetus to my returning strength. I felt ten years younger when I finished the sixth bottle a short time later. Tanlac gave me new zest in life that still remains with me."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists.

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and maybe despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by parcel post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Advertisement.

This Little One Had Colic for Three Months

"My baby suffered from colic for three months and I was afraid I was going to lose her," writes Mrs. A. J. Tolbert, of Holly, Fla., "but she soon got over it when I gave her Teethingin, and now I will never be without it, for I give it to both my little ones and it keeps them well."

Colic is a very common complaint with babies and if not corrected in time often leads to more serious disturbances. Teethingin corrects baby's indigestion, relieves distress due to an overloaded stomach, cleans out the bowels and regulates the system.

Teethingin can be had at any drug store or send 30c to the Moffett Laboratories, Columbus, Ga., and receive a large package and a free copy of Moffett's Illustrated Baby Book.—(Advertisement.)

Of the Earth Earthy.

The lady had just lost her husband and had gone to a summer hotel to rest. She often dreamed of her husband and she would sometimes get up in the middle of the night to see if he wasn't walking about. Any little disturbance caused her to be frightened. One night mysterious raps were heard on the wall of the summer hotel.

"Great goodness," cried the frightened woman in room 13. "I wonder if that could be my departed husband?"

"No," growled the man in room 14. "It's the people on the other floors killing mosquitoes with their slippers."

Spats and Old Boots.

"He was wearing spats," said a witness of a man he had described as "respectable."

"Are spats a sign of respectability?" asked Mr. Lankester, the magistrate.

"They are often used to conceal old boots."—London Tit-Bits.
