KINCAID—PLOTT

Coming as a surprise to the numbers of friends of the young couple in this section, was the announcement of the marriage, on Sunday, at Clayton, Ga., of Mr. P. W. Kincaid, Jr., and Miss Mary Pauline Plott.

Mrs. Kincaid is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Plott of Wayneville; and Mr. Kincaid is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Kincaid, of Dillsboro. They are making their home, for the present, with the parents of the groom.

Mr. Marshall Kincaid accompanied the couple to Clayton and witnessed the ceremony.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAYS

A very pretty and enjoyable occasion was the birthday celebration on Sunday, given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Cowan at Webster, honoring Mrs. Octavia Cowan Self, of Asheville, Miss Evelyn Sherrill, of Sylva, and Messrs R. B. and Dan Cowan, of Webster. Others of the Cowan family who were born in the month of September, present at the dinner, were Miss Mildred Cowan, and Messrs Paul and Claude Cowan also of Webster.

The dinner, consisting of the best of everything, was attractively served in cafeteria style, from tables arranged in the dining room.

During the day, forty friends called to extend their good wishes and congratulations to Mrs. Self, and the others.

Among the guests was Mrs. Martha Stillwell, who at 84 is the oldest member of the family, and is the great, great aunt of some of those present. Mrs. Roxie Rogers, a childhood playmate of Mrs. Self, was also present.

MRS. MADISON HOSTESS

Mrs. M. B. Madison was hostess at bridge at her home on College Hill last Friday afternoon. Miss Peggy Morgan received a gift for high score, while Mrs. Jennings Bryson cut the consolation.

Mrs. H. L. Brooks, who is spending some time here with her husband, Dr. Brooks, was presented a guest prize. Fall flowers were used throughout the house. At the conclusion of the games the hostess served a delicious salad course.

Those playing were Misses Ruth Gilley, Carol Gilley, Peggy Morgan, Annie Louise Madison, Mesdames Ervin Robinson Walter Jones, Fred Hooper, Cyrus Nicholson, H. B. Morgan, Jennings Bryson, H. L. Brooks, and J. B. Madison.

MRS. GRIMSHAW PASSES ON

The many friends of Mrs. Thomas Grimshaw, in Jackson county, will be grieved to hear of her death, which took place September 1, at her home, Five Oaks, Flat Rock.

In 1881 Mrs. Grimshaw, as the bride of Thomas Grimshaw, came to Whiteside Cove, where for years she was loved by her neighbors, who were all her friends. She removed to Flat Rock in 1912.

BALSAM

Miss Ida Brooks and Mr. Fred Farmer were married at Clayton, Ga., Thursday the 22nd.

Mrs. Walter Bryson spent last week end with her daughter, Miss Louise, at the home of Mr. Crockett Campbell, where she is boarding while teaching school at Maggie.

Mr. Rufe Queen and family of Dillsboro were visiting relatives here Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Ensley left Sunday to spend a few days in Asheville and Black Mountain before leaving to spend the winter in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Mehaffey motored here from Hendersonville Sunday. Their daughter, Mrs. Hubert Ensley and two children returned with them to spend a few days.

Several members of the Balsam P. T. A. attended the P. T. A. at Willets, Friday afternoon.

Our teachers attended teachers meeting in Sylva Saturday.

The Methodist Sunday school held its picnic at the "How-Well Home" Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bryson. An interesting musical program was rendered. Mrs. J. E. Long presided at the piano. Solos were sung by Misses Harriett Long and Helen Queen. Many climbed the nearby mountain peaks. Last, but not least a bountiful picnic lunch was served, and all reported that they spent a most enjoyable day, regardless of the inclement weather.

A large number of friends and relatives enjoyed a big dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Coward Sunday, which was given in honor of Mr. Coward's birthday.

when you're in PAIN!

Insist on genuine Bayer Aspirin; not only for its safety, but its speed.

Take a tablet of Bayer Aspirin and some other tablet, and drop them in water. Then watch the Bayer tablet dissolve—rapidly and completely. See how long it takes to melt down the other.

That's an easy way to test the value of "bargain" preparations. It's a far better way than testing them in your stomach!

Bayer Aspirin offers safe and speedy relief of headaches, colds, a sore throat, neuralgia, neuritis, lumbago, rheumatism, or periodic pain. It contains no coarse, irritating particles or impurities.
