We Are Supporting The NRA

With enthusiasm for the NRA plan running high, with men going back to work in every part of the country, with a spirit of optimism and cooperation at the highest peak since wartime days, the country is definitely out of the doldrums and headed for better times. Wages and salaries are going up, more people are going to work, prices are on the upgrade; all of which, operating together are leading us back to prosperity. We, the undersigned, pledge ourselves to solidly back and wholeheartedly cooperate with the President's plan of recovery.
