

Banker—TO PRISON—Bootlegger

Two men of high place and power heard verdicts of "guilty" in New York courts and sentence pronounced for their imprisonment. On the left is J. Krosel, lawyer-banker who was convicted of aiding and abetting the misapplication of more than $2,000,000 of a safe deposit affiliate of the Bank of the United States. He got 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 years. . . . On the right is "Waxy" Gordon, convicted beer baron and racketeer, who got 10 years and a fine of $80,000, sixty thousands of which represented cost of the case to Uncle Sam. . . . Gordon's conviction on income tax evasion ranks next to the Al Capone case.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES, M.D.
THE ADOPTED CHILD

Have been consulted frequently in regard to the adoption of a baby, by the classiest couple. Those interested are inspired by the highest, sweetest of human impulses, I do not know of anything more self-sacrificing, on the part of would-be parents, who by adoption of nature are denied children of their own. The "foundling" baby is free from the taint of underworld parentage, laboratory test with nothing plus; Granted that the parents are unknown—no estate claims or bobbing up of indigent relatives to trouble for the foster-parents in later years. There is no germ of INHERITED DISPOSITION. Like the wriggly snake cannot beget the dove. Just recently a sample came to my notice, which suggested this letter to you. A nice, well fixed with property, but denied the blessing of a home, adopted a little boy from a foundling home. The foster parents were over thirty-five, and the finest of characters. All the little boy's parents was lavished on the little walf; no actual heir and no sweeter parentage. I have known the adopters intimate since their youth. . . . No more ideal home. The boy is now eighteen, and isn't at home any more. He was found by his guardians as soon as he found the value of falsehood. He never missed the opportunity to deceive and run away—did so on all sorts of crime of juvenile sort. He forged checks; even did what was called house. No amount of pleadings and tears could feaze him into a born criminal. I'm glad it is not always that way.
