From the War Centers of Ethiopia as Italy Advances

Above are scenes from the Ethiopian war front and a map insert indicating the northern battle front where the Italians attained their first objective in the capture of Adowa. It was here that Italy met with crushing defeat in 1896. Top, left, Natives of Adowa, armed for the defense of one of their rock forts. ## 40 YEARS AGO

(Tuckasee Democrat, Oct. 17, 1895)

Mr. Sims, wife of Rev. A. H. Sims, of Dillsboro, died this morning.

Gen. E. R. Hampton is again at home and will probably not return duty in the Collector's office at Asheville.

Prof. and Mrs. R. L. Madison with their two little boys, were down Saturday and spent the day with friends.

Miss Hilda, the only child of Burke Sherill, deceased, and Mrs. Maggie Sherill, died of diphtheria, at her mother's home in Buncombe.

Rev. J. P. York, who has been in charge of the circuit including this section, was assigned by the Conference to duty near Winston in the vicinity of his old name, Mr. Ledford, or Clay, succeeds Mr. York here.

Lyndon McKee and Elsie Wolff left Saturday for the exposition at Atlanta. Mr. Gail Fisher is filling the place of Mr. McKee at the depot in his absence, and Mr. L. C. Gribble is officiating at the Drug Store in Elsie's place.

President Cleveland is expected to attend the Exposition in Atlanta next week, reaching there the 23rd. Returning by the way of Asheville, he will go down to Col. Cox's Green River plantation, in Polk county, to spend a few days hunting partridges.

Mrs. F. E. Hearn, who has been spending some time with her parents here, left for her home in Ashburn, Va., yesterday. Her sister, Miss Mamie Stedman, went with her and will probably spend the winter in the south. Enroute they will take in the Exposition at Atlanta.

At the Conference of the M. E. Church at Clyde, which has just adjourned, Rev. Jno. S. Burnett, a native of this county, was made a presiding Elder. This is a gratifying recognition of the eminent ability of this talented young man. If his life is spared, we feel confident that the future has still greater honors in store for him, and his career will be watched with much interest by his friends here, who feel a great deal of pride at the success which has so far attended his course. After the Conference, Mr. Burnett came out and spent a few days with his parents near Webster.

The difficulties with which the singers, Fitzsimmons and Corbett, are meeting in their efforts to find a place where they will be allowed to engage in their brutal prize fight, inspire the lovers of morality and decency with elation. Gov. Culberson, of Texas, called the Legislature together to pass a law which would enable him to keep the disgraceful affair from taking place in that state and the law was promptly passed. Then the pugilists turned their eyes toward Arkansas, but Gov. Clark says they shall not fight in his state, and so says:

Division W. M. U. Policies, Politics Potato Problems Pester President

Washington, October 16.—Three liveliest questions in Washington: 1. What is the Supreme Court going to do about the four New Deal laws, upon the constitutionality of which it will shortly have to pass? 2. How effective will the American neutrality policy be in keeping us out of trouble in the European war,...

The Baptist women of Western North Carolina—fourteen associations known as the Asheville Division of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to North Carolina Baptist State Convention—will meet in the annual session in Franklin, on Thursday, Oct. 24. Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, of Raleigh, head of the state organization, will be present at the meeting. Mrs. Jones, who at the state meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union held in Durham last March, tendered her resignation to take effect one year later, is finishing her fifteen year as an active officer in Woman's Missionary Union in North Carolina—having served the last twenty consecutive years as president. As Miss Sallie Bailey (sister of Senator Josiah W. Bailey) Mrs. Jones served seven years as corresponding secretary. After becoming Mrs. Jones, she served seven years as corresponding secretary and as treasurer. Mrs. Jones has been for a number of years a Vice President of the Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence of Kansas City, Mo., who is Southwest Mission Study Chairman, will also attend the meeting at Franklin, as will Miss Naomi Schell, missionary to Japan, who is residing in Asheville, and other prominent speakers of Baptist missionary circles. Rev. E. Gibson Davis, pastor of the First Baptist church of Asheville, will tell of his recent visit to Palestine.

The afternoon session will pertain largely to Young Peoples' Work. Miss Curran, of Raleigh, State Young Peoples' Leader of North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union, will speak.

Mrs. J. R. Morgan of Waynesville, Divisional Superintendent, will preside; Mrs. E. R. Elmore of Mars Hill's Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. Eugene Coker of Mars Hill, Young Peoples' Leader; Mrs. J. F. Brooks of Hendersonville, Personal Service Chairman; and Mrs. B. F. Bray of Marion, Mission Study Chairman.

Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, who is also a representative of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board in Atlanta, will show pictures made by herself as she has traveled over the territory, including Cuba, Canal Zone, and Western Frontiers, pertaining to the work of the Board, at the night session.

Totals	4704	671	4288	285

(By John Thomas Wilson) The nation-wide poll on "Our Next President" is fast reaching peak proportions. Thousands of ballots are now pouring into national headquarters each week, with the political fortune of favorite candidates daily swinging this way and that. It is yet too early to attempt to accurately define the exact trend of the political mind of the nation-wide voter. One fact, however, stands out in bold relief. That is that indications are the 1936 political race will be one of the most desperately exciting national campaigns this generation has known.

A total of 9948 ballots from 23 states have been received and tabulated at national headquarters at the end of the second week of balloting.

Those favoring the renomination of President Roosevelt are 4704. Those favoring the nominating of some Democrat other than President Roosevelt total 671. Those opposed to the present administration and favoring a Republican president are 5288, while those who favored a third party candidate are 285. Summed up, the total national Democratic ballots at the end of the second week of balloting are 5375; the total national Republican ballots are 4288; and for the Third Party choices, 285.

Taking into account that the "solid South" is usually conceded to be Democratic, and thus eliminating the totals of 7 of the 23 states, from which ballots have thus far been received, the basis for the conclusion is reached that the 1936 race will be a most exciting political battle.

The total national ballots received thus far from the "solid South" states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Oklahoma and Virginia, total 1400 votes. The total national Republican votes from these same Southern states total 835.

The Roosevelt national vote, to date, of 4704, less the 1400 Southern states vote, totals 3304.

The total national vote of 4488 less the 835 Southern states vote for the same states, totals 3435.

The closeness of the above figures indicate the national trend, as applying to Eastern and mid-Western states thus far reporting, which gives ground upon which political observers reach...

Breakdown DEMOCRATIC VOTE

Roosevelt	4707

Other scattered Democratic votes for first, second and third choices included Smedley Butler, Hearst, Ickes, Tagwell, Henry Ford, Jim Reed, Wm. Murray, Wallace, Robinson, Thomas, Garner, Baker, Harry Moore, Sheppard, Douglas, Barclay, McAdoo.

Breakdown REPUBLICAN VOTE

Lowden	65	27	9
Hughes	104	131	56
Col. Roosevelt	101	77	129
Fish	9	56	15

an early conclusion that 1936 is going to be very politically "hot".

The state by state tabulation of the nation-wide balloting, presented herewith, furnishes most interesting figures for the undisturbed perusal of Mr. Voter. It must be admitted that inconsistencies show both ways in the tabulation of ballots from the 23 states. These figures will no doubt "level out" of themselves as this nation-wide straw vote from 2,000 news papers progresses throughout the country.

There is still time to cast a ballot in this nation-wide straw vote on who we would like for our next president. The ballot is printed herewith and you, Mr. Citizen, are not politically committed in any manner by casting your vote. Let's show the leaders of our favorite party which candidate we would like to have nominated at the national convention next year. We can all express an opinion by clipping, voting and mailing the ballot to The Journal today.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHTER AT SYLVA HIGH

Although Sylva High was defeated by Murphy, last week, by a 13 to 0 score, there is no gloom in the high school ranks. In fact optimism, caused by the return of Dick Green and Clay Clark, two former Sylva High Stars, has driven away the gloom. Green, a quarterback is one of the best ground gainers that Sylva High ever had; and Clark, tackle, is a big fellow and good at both offense and defense.

Another thing that makes Coach Huff believe he will have a winning combination is that the boys are showing more interest in football. Nearly three teams were out for practice this week. The team faces a tough game tomorrow at Hayesville; but it is expected that Sylva will start a winning streak there.

The next game on the home lot will be with Andrews on the 25th.

W. A. WISE DIED YESTERDAY

W. A. Wise, assistant superintendent of Parsons Tanning Company's Sylva plant, died early yesterday morning, at the age of 59.

Mr. Wise had been connected with the Parsons Tanning Company for several years and had served in official capacities at different places. He came to Sylva some two years ago.

Mr. Wise is survived by his widow; one son, W. T. Wise of Sylva; two daughters, Mrs. Hugh Quick, Elkins, W. Va., and Miss Virginia Wise, Parsons, W. Va., and one brother, the Rev. C. E. Wise, of Baltimore.

Funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of his son, and interment will be in the Keener cemetery.
