NEWS OF THE WEEK IN U. S. CONGRESS

40 YEARS AGO

(Tuckasee Democrat, Feb. 13, 1896)

J. H. Parker, of High Point, learned some time ago that a large amount of gold coin was buried near Lineberry station on the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railway. In some way he located the treasure and unearthed it. There is $18,000. The man who buried it it not known. The find has caused great excitement in all that section.

There are several cases of measles in town.

February is proving to be the most disagreeable month of the year, with its alternate spells of wet and cold weather.

Frequent rains with freezing have put the roads in bad condition. Up to the first of this month they had been fairly good, for winter.

We learn that Rev. A. B. Thomas is conducting a very interesting revival meeting at the Sugarfork Baptist church—Franklin Press

Charlie Bumgarner, who has been working on the Vanderbilt estate for several months, came home Tuesday, having just got over a case of measles

The horse of Dr. W. A. Sprinkle being tied at Addie on Tuesday, fell dead, it is believed from fright, at an approaching train. He made every effort to get loose and failing, died from sheer alarm.

There will be an entertainment and supper at Webster on Thursday night, Feb. 20, under the auspices of the M. W. O. U. to promote by a liberal patronage.

Dr. Wolff and Neil Buchanan, who have been for the last several weeks in Florida, reached home Wednesday. They went for the purpose of investigating conditions there with a view of removal and returned more in love with Western North Carolina than ever. Dr. Wolff says he wouldn't give one square inch here for the whole of Florida. This orange grove is a thing of the past and other industries are greatly depressed and languishing.

Thieves are operating in this vicinity with a boldness that is astounding. Monday night Mr. M. Buchanan's residence was entered and robbed of a quantity of provisions. The table in the dining room and the pantry were stripped of cold meats, preserves and other things that had been left from supper, and a quantity of fresh ravenant, eggs, cheese, crackers and preserves from a jar were taken. Matches that had been struck were scattered over the floor, and it is supposed, furnished the light. The room entered adjoins the room occupied as a sleeping room by Mr. Buchanan and his family and the outer room was not locked. Hitherto people living here have not found it necessary to use locks, as so little stealing has been done. The following night the house of W. A. Dills, and other houses at Dillsboro were entered and robbed of various articles of wearing apparel and provisions. If another raid is attempted it will probably not prove so successful, as it will not be so unexpected.

JOHN C. COWAN DIES IN WEST

A. D. Cowan has received a message telling of the death, on last Saturday morning, in Arlington, Wash., of his brother, John C. Cowan, who passed on after a two or three weeks' illness.

Mr. Cowan, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cowan, of Webster, was 53 years of age, and had been in Washington State for the past 25 years, with the exception of two years during the war, which he spent here.

Mr. Cowan had been in the employ of the Sark River Lumber Co., at Arlington for many years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nannie E. Mallonee Sherrill Cowan, by his brother, Mr. A. D. Cowan, of Sylva, and by other relatives.

Young Men Meet Here

From 200 to 500 young men are expected to be in attendance at the Young Men's Convention held at Cherokee, but the Sylva, because of the housing facilities for so large a crowd.

SCHOOL REOPENED

Sylva schools, both the High and Elementary schools reopened yesterday morning after having been closed for two weeks because of weather conditions.

KILLER GETS 15 YEARS

FOR STANLEY MURDER

Judge Felix E. Ailey, presiding at Haywood Superior Court, sentenced Clarence Moore to serve from 12 to 16 years in State Prison for the murder of Hubert Stanley, at Hazewood, December 21, last. Moore, a young Haywood man, entered a plea of guilty of murder in the second degree.

JACOBITE REPUBLICANS ATTEND LINCOLN DINNER

Stillwell, Milas Parker, and Jeter Snyder went to Greenboro this week to be present at and participate in the North Carolina State Lincoln Day dinner.

Rev. J. J. J. A. H. Weaver, Jeter Snyder, E. P. Stillwell, Milas Parker, and Jeter E. Monteith attended the Eleventh District Lincoln Day dinner, in Asheville.

Miss Bryson, who has been in the city for some time, is very funny in most of her remarks.

When an American woman moved to America, she took an actual part in the World War, but there were more than 14,500 of them regularly enlisted in the military and naval services of the United States, who are entitled to a bonus on the same basis as the men who served. They are mostly members of the Army Nurse Corps, enlisted nurses who served in the Navy hospitals, and survivors of that interesting corps of young women who were given the rating of "Yeoman" in the Navy, and went through the war in uniforms, doing clerical work in the Navy Department in Washington and at the various naval bases.

Western Carolina College Broadcast February 21

TODAY and TOMORROW

(By Frank Parker Stockbridge)

Edward VIII became King of England on the death of his father, George V, without even a mild protest from those of his subjects who still believe that the throne belongs by right to the family of Stuart. Less than 200 years ago, in 1746, the last battle fought on British soil resulted in the defeat of the army led by Charles Edward Stuart, the "Young Pretender," grandson of King James II, who had been deposed and banished in 1688.

Until 1901, when the present King's grandfather succeeded his mother, Queen Victoria, there was a constant fear in England of another "Jacobite Rising" to put the House of Stuart back on the throne. Fingerbowl were banned at important public banquets, lest some secret adherent to Stuart cause, in drinking the toast "To the King" should hold his wineglass over the fingerbowl and so drink to "The King over the water".

In late years the Jacobites have contented themselves with gathering at the statue of Charles I in Trafalgar Square on January 30 each year denouncing the reigning monarch as a usurper. This year, however, they postponed the denunciation to March 27, so as not to annoy the mourners for King George V.

Some of my Canadian friends tell me that their Jacobite "Society of the White Rose," has a jolly time at their annual dinners, denying the claim to the British throne of the monarch at whose call they would all go out and fight for the Empire.

Western Carolina Teachers College will present a long program over radio station WSM, Nashville, Tenn, next Friday, February 21.

The sketch, written by President H. T. Hunter, is entitled "A Teacher's College in the Open Country". It is in four scenes.

The first scene is that of a group of children from a training school, with their teacher, taking a field trip about the campus; the second is at the High Falls of the Tuckasee River; the third, in the chapel of the college; and the fourth, a trip into the Great Smokies.

The personnel of the broadcast will consist of: From the faculty; President H. T. Hunter, Dean W. E. Bird, Mr. C. F. Dodson, Miss Alice A. Benton, Mrs. Charles G. Gully, Miss Winnie Alice Murphy, Mr. Charles Morgan, Miss Dorothy Moore;

College students; J. C. Rich, Marvin Connell, Paul Schachner, Ned Tucker, Billy Williams, Ruth Burch, Homes Jackson, Johnny Robertson, Carolyn Weaver, Claude Keener, Betty McFarland, Margaret McDaniel, Jack Sloan, Hugh Tomberlin, Belle Bright, Irene Franklin, Jane Hunter.

Training School children; Charlie Bird, Elizabeth Ann Hunter, Harold Hooper, Jane Elliott, Mary Katherine Bryson

No doubt many friends of the college will listen in on the program, and that the college and this region as well will receive a vast amount of favorable publicity.
