

Will Have Progressive Dinner

On the evening of December 17, the Woman's Club will have a progressive dinner. The members will first assemble at the home of Mrs. Bill Wise for the cocktail course which will be served. From there they will proceed to the home of Miss Lucille and Margaret Wilson for the salad course. Progressing to the home of Mrs. Walter L. Jones for the main course, the club will then go to the home of Miss Louise Mason where dessert will be served. At the home of Miss Noracella McGuire coffee will be served, and a Christmas tree enjoyed.

The club will make plans for spreading Christmas cheer to less fortunate people.

Mission Circle Met Wednesday

The afternoon circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. Z. Candler, Mrs. David M. Hall, circle leader, presided; and an offering was taken for the Bethlehem House in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. J. F. Freeze conducted the devotional, which centered about the Christmas story; and M. S. Ratledge, accompanied by Miss Margaret Candler at the piano, sang, "Long Years Ago O'er Bethlehem's Hills" The missionary topic, which was a general review of the work of the women of the Methodist church in the mission field, was presented by Mrs. Dan Tompkins. Mrs. Candler served delightful ice cream, cake, and coffee.

Baptists Plan For Christmas

Plans have been made by members of the Sylva Baptist church for the presentation of the play, "The Other Shepherd", at the church, Sunday night, December 22. The public is invited to this service. On Monday night, December 23, there will be a Christmas program for the younger children of the Sunday School, and gifts of confectionaries will be presented to them.
