Number 11.

H. A. MURRILL, Editor.

NOTICES.

Read Shuford & Co's new ad.

Farmers come in and get a pack of garden seed.

The "Mystery of a Hansom Cab" is completed in this issue.

The ground in front of the Hickory Inn is being sodded.

What's the matter with Hickory's new charter? Hit's ———

Why do people howl against monopolies and then quietly let them be formed.

The legislature of 1889 is now a thing of the past. It adjourned Monday.

Lenoir court next week. The local editor of the PRESS & CAROLINIAN wants to see all of his subscribers there.

Dr. Henry Abernethy in leaving town went to consult Col. Folk. The preliminary trial comss' off to day.

Col. G. N. Folk arrived in town Wednesday. He is to appear in an interesting trial to-day assisted by Messrs F. L. and E. B. Cline.

We call attention to the professional card of Dr. I. P. Jeter, who is now prepared to serve who may call upon him.

"What's that man yelling at?" asked a farmer of his boy. "Why," chuckled the boy, "he's yelling at the top of his voice."

William Henry Harrison Cowles and Samuel Jackson Randall. Por ubile festum!—which is Spanish and, being literally translated, means, a good pair to draw to.—Landmark.

A petition was filed by citizens of Mt. Creek Township asking an order to amend the public road from a point near Gen. Moses' to Sherrill's ford—ordered to be published.

The Pennsylvania militia in Washington got on a big drunk and tried to take the town. They were finally dispersed at the point of the bayonet. A disgrace to this Christian land.

Senator Bill Chandler will deliver the Decoration Day address at Nashua, New Hampshire. Bill is glad that such affairs are only (y)early affairs.

When a poor newspaper publisher refuses a $60. advertisement of a bar-room it would seem that temperance merchants should occupy that space and encourage that resolution.

For $1.50 paid in advance we will send you THE PRESS & CAROLINIAN one year and present you, free of charge, twenty good books as published on our last page. Read the list and send in your subscription.

There is a curious state of things in West Virginia. There is one Governor in possession, holding over and two others have been sworn in and have commenced suit for possession of the office.

On Tuesday last a large crowd of drunken men, heavily armed, marched into the little town of Plymouth, Washington county, and attempted to run out the authorities, but were all overpowered and committed to jail.

J. B. Connelly, formerly clerk of the Superior Court of Iredell county, has returned to Statesville, with his wife and child, and was committed to jail in default of $2,000 bail.

PERSONALS.

Miss Lela Johnston returned from a visit to the East last Friday.

Mr. Jake Hallyburtin was in to see us Tuesday.

Mr. Crowder formerly of the Clipper, was in town Tuesday.

Mr. Menzies, one of our most prominent citizens left for Raleigh on Monday, to have his eyes treated.

Miss Ida Ramsour, of Washington, D. C. spent several days this week visiting Mrs. Murrill.

Mrs. Richardson and daughter Eliza, of Lincolnton are visiting Mrs. Murrill.

Mr. Richards, of Florida, preached two very fine sermons in the Reformed church Sunday.

Miss McConaughy, of Morganton, who has been visiting Mrs. J. T. Moore returned home last Tuesday.

Miss Ella Shuford, who has charge of the millinery department at the one price cash store, returned from Baltimore last Saturday.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. S. S. Halthcock, who has been a most excellent citizen for over a year is going to return to the East.

Mr. H. S. Chase, left last Tuesday for New York and the Northern Markets to buy goods and look after the interests of the nursery business he has started.

New Prospects For Hickory.

Mr. A. A. Shuford has bought a large tract of land from Mr. Sim. Barger, and it is reported will put up a cotton factory thereon. The land lies East of the Lutheran Seminary.

Chase Bros. have planted thousands of bushels of peach seed and have bargained for four car loads of trees and are preparing for the nursery business on a large scale. When all plans are completed they will control the largest nursery South of Rochester.

Too Late.

We will have to ask our Newton correspondent to send us the proceedings of the county commissioners a little sooner. It comes to us too late for immediate publication. Send it to us not later than Tuesday night.

Wives of drunken husbands should wear heavily steeled corsets. Donald Frazer, a watchmaker, forty years old, residing at Bryn Mawr, Pa., fired two shots at his wife Thursday, and then shot and killed himself. Mrs. Frazer's life was saved by the bullets striking the steel ribs of her corset and glanced off.

We suppose it is due to the immense crowds leaving Washington that the trains have been so irregular, and not simply because another President has taken up the reins of Government.

Shot and Killed.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 12.—Capt. F. W. Dawson, of the News and Courier, was shot and killed this evening by Dr. F. B. McDow.

Died.

On last Tuesday night, of Blood Poison, Mrs. Eliza Davis, wife of Calhoun Davis.

Our sympathies are with the bereaved.

Death of Drury Hamilton.

Drury Hamilton, another landmark of this county, died last Saturday, at the advanced age of 88 years. In the early days of Catawba county Mr. Hamilton was one of its most prominent citizens. For many years he was county surveyor, and surveyed more land during his life than any other man that ever lived in the county. He was a member of the first board of county commissioners that was ever elected in the county, and was a member of the first jury empanelled in the county. There are few citizens of the county who will see this notice that have not known or heard of Drury Hamilton. —Newton Enterprise.

He Weeps With Those Who Weep

There is a dog in town named Dan (iel Lamont). He is a Democrat and wears deep black all the time. After the election in Nov. he left home and his owner was uneasy until he learned that Dan was endeavoring to comfort the mourners at the home of our worthy but almost heart-broken Chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee. Dan remained among the mourners just 90 days and voluntarily returned to his old home. His sympathy for the distressed may cause him to visit Newton very soon.

Commissioners' Meeting.

The allowance per month for support of Elsie and Thomas Killian, paupers, was reduced from $2.00 to $1.50 each.

Mabala Hawn was declared a pauper, and allowed $1.50 per month for her support.

Mary Shaffer was declared a pauper, and was sent to the poorhouse. A petition was filed asking an order to buy a public road leading from the old Horsford road, near J. M. Fry's tobacco barn, through the lands of J. M. Fry, M. L. Fry and others, to the new public road leading westward to the Burke county line; ordered to be published.

W. W. Laney, constable for Caldwell township, tendered his resignation, which was accepted.

Wm. Robinson, colored, was declared a pauper, and allowed $1 per month for his support.

Abbey Abernethy, colored, was declared a pauper, and allowed $1.50 per month for his support.

Seventy bills of cost, from January term Superior Court, were filed by the C. S. C., which were adjudged county liabilities, amounting to $1,254.70, of which $674.30 was ordered to be paid.

Nancy Arrowood was declared a pauper and allowed $1.00 per month for her support.

Building lots in "Poenix Park" in the West End are offered at prices to suit everybody—50 lots with running water on each. For prices apply to Link, McComb & Co., or at the Phoenix Mills. 10-21

Big Robbery in Charlotte.

The Chronicle gives a long account of the robbery of Mr. John Farrow's jewelry store at Charlotte last Thursday night by professional cracksmen. The safe was blown open and $4,500 worth of diamonds and watches were stolen. There were eighty fine gold watches in the lot. The robbery was not discovered until the next morning, and there is not the slightest clue to the perpetrators. Mr. Farrow's store is near the public square, and about sixty feet of the electric light. These burglaries are getting alarmingly frequent, and should admonish every man to sleep with his shot-gun in reach.

The Original Hickoryite.

Mr. Simon Haas the first keeper of the Hickory Tavern was in town Wednesday. He is over 80 years old but looks good for 20 more.

Thirty years ago he kept the little tavern—called, Hickory Tavern. Look at Hickory to day—with the Hickory Inn.

Ex-President Cleveland was heartily cheered all the way from Washington to New York. This was the tribute of the plain people who gave him nearly a hundred thousand popular majority for president. He now drives quietly from his hotel to his law office at New York City as any other private citizen.
