SOLID FOR CLEVELAND.

SENATOR HILL WILL STUMP HIS STATE FOR THE TICKET.

Adjournment Near—World's Fair Bill—Silver Men Solid—Bland Will Campaign for Cleveland.

Washington, July 26.—Senator Hill proposes taking a very active part in carrying New York for Cleveland and Stevenson and in electing a democratic legislature, which will elect Senator Hiscock's successor, and his activity is not on paper, but on the stump in every section of the state.

This will probably be the last week of the present session of congress, unless there shall be a deadlock between the House and Senate on the World's Fair appropriation, and that is not regarded by those who ought to be best informed as probable. A member of the House appropriation bill said this morning that he did not think the attempt of the republicans to make political capital out of the democratic opposition to the appropriation would influence any vote when the question comes up again on the report of the conference committee to the House, but that those democrats who had voted against it on constitutional grounds would be satisfied with having put themselves on record and would not filibuster in any way to prevent the House receding from its previous position, if those favoring the appropriation can muster a majority, and it is generally believed that they can.

As soon as the World's Fair appropriation is disposed of the House will be ready to adjourn, and unless the anti-option bill, now before the Senate, shall prove a stumbling block, the Senate will raise no objection.

So much has been said about the opposition to Mr. Cleveland among those democrats who favor free coinage and of threats being made by them of bolting the ticket, that I went to Representative Bland, of Missouri, who during the several silver contests of the present session was everywhere recognized as the leader of the silver democrats, just before he left Washington, to do a little campaign work, in search of information. He said in answer to questions: "Yes, we silver democrats were disappointed, and we are still a little mad, too, about our second defeat; but not one of us has ever had the remotest idea of bolting the ticket of our party. I expect to take the stump for Cleveland and Stevenson, and I expect that every democrat who voted for free coinage will do the same."

BLOODSHED AT THE ALTAR.

The Guests at a Wedding Resort to Whiskey, Knives and Guns.

MAHONEY CITY, Pa., July 25.—Jno. Lipski, a young Poleander, was married at 2 o'clock to Mary Kolsowich. All the guests drank freely and soon a dispute arose between two of the men as to which of the wedding gifts was the most valuable. They came to blows and Lipski, who just passing through the room with his bride stepped forward to part the men. Then the row became general and knives and revolvers were used. One of the shots struck the bride in the side and she fell to the floor, where she was trampled upon by the fighters. The neighbors summoned the police who surrounded the house and arrested all who had not in the meantime fled. Twenty-seven were arrested—all of whom bore ugly cuts.

A Medley of Murders.

NASHVILLE, TENN., July 25.—Major J. H. Wynne, a farmer living near Ash Barus, about 40 miles from this city, last night, murdered his wife and stepdaughter with an axe, mutilating them most horribly. He then went to his son's house, 2 miles away, and there attempted to take his own life with a dirk. He inflicted a deep wound in the neck but it will not prove fatal. Family troubles were the cause.

The murderer was lynched.

The Railway Commission.

The railway commission has completed the assessment of the taxable value of the railways. There is no increase in valuation save in the cases of the Albemarle and Pantego, the Norfolk & Western and the Carolina Central. The assessment of the latter is as follows: From Wilmington to Hamlet and from Charlotte to Rutherfordton at the old rate, $4,500 per mile; from Hamlet to Monroe $8,000 per mile, and from Monroe to Charlotte $6,000 per mile. The Georgia, Carolina and Northern railway is assessed at $6,000.

Denies the Report.

SALISBURY, N. C., July 23.—A report is being circulated in some portions of the seventh congressional district that Mr. Henderson pledged himself two years ago not to be a candidate again but to give way to Mr. Leazar. Mr. Henderson writes that there is no foundation for any such report and that he has never promised anyone to give way to Mr. Leazar or any other aspirant.

H. C. FRICK SHOT DOWN.

CARNEGIE'S DIRECTOR ATTACKED BY A CRAZY RUSSIAN.

A Sad Sequel to the Homestead Riot—A Revolver and a Crank Conduct the Arbitration.

PITTSBURG, July 23.—Henry C. Frick, practically dictator of the great Carnegie iron and steel enterprise, controller of the coke industries of the western part of the state and the possessor of a fortune estimated from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded a few seconds before 2:45 o'clock this afternoon.

A moment before the tragedy a slim, dark complexioned young man, neatly dressed, called at the office and requested to be allowed to see Mr. Frick. An usher carried him to that gentleman's office.

What brief conversation passed between the two men is not known but hardly a minute before there was a noise like a scuffle and then a shot rang out.

Before the startled clerks in the other offices could rush to the scene there were three more shots.

The officers appeared with their prisoner, who was pale and trembling, and with his clothing spattered with blood. There were hundreds of groans and howls, intermingled with cries of "shoot him," "lynch him."

It was with difficulty the officers succeeded in conveying the man to the Central station where he gave the name of Alexander Berkman, and said he resided on Forty-second street, New York. He was, he said, a Russian Jew; he has been in America six years and in Pittsburg two days.

"Why did you shoot him?" was asked, and with a half hysterical gurgle he replied: "I guess that you know that."

He is said to be demented.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—Chairman Henry C. Frick, of the Carnegie company, did not come down to his office this morning as he jokingly assured his associates that he would when he was carried to the ambulance on Saturday night; nor is it probable that he will be seen at his desk for many months to come. Reports from his residence this morning are to the effect that he passed a restful night.

The order, signed by Mr. Frick and posted at the Homestead works this morning, to the effect that men returning to work would be insured against removal, and which was given in the United Press dispatches of last night, is regarded as the final peace offering of the firm to the strikers.

PITTSBURG, July 25.—Bergman's landlord, with whom he stopped before he went to the Merchant's hotel, has been arrested as an accomplice in the attempted murder of Frick.

Unwelcome Passengers Killed by the Conductor.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 21.—Northern Pacific Conductor Dole shot two men riding on the roof of the express car yesterday on the trestle near Valley City. One died instantly and the other will die. The men pulled the bell rope to stop the train. When the conductor ordered them to come down they refused with the above result.

The Morganton Herald says there is a curiosity in the state hospital piggery that is attracting no little attention. It is a "mule-footed" pig, which, instead of parting the hoof as the ordinary pig does, has a hoof like a mule. It is claimed that for some reason this variety of the pig will not take the cholera.

The First Gun.

New York, July 20.—The first decisive gun of the democratic campaign of 1892 was touched off tonight in Madison Square garden in the presence of a vast assemblage. The huge auditorium was packed from pit to dome, and as the place holds ten thousand persons comfortably, it is estimated that almost twice that number were present. The occasion that brought this vast throng together was the notification ceremonies of the two great leaders of the democratic party—Grover Cleveland and Adlai E. Stevenson.

But the Men Work in Secrecy—They are Brought in Under Cover of the Military Guards.

HOMESTEAD, July 22.—For the first time since the present lockout began the Carnegie company today made a pretence of starting its mills here. It was something of a surprise to Homestead people to see smoke issuing from the armor plate mill this morning, and they were still more surprised at noon when the whistle was blown for dinner hour.

RACE TROUBLE IMMINENT.

A Dastardly Crime Perpetrated in South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 26.—A few evenings ago George Kinard, a negro, forty years old, outraged Mrs. Allison, a white woman at Irmo, in Lexington county. The negro held a pistol to her head and threatened to kill her if she resisted or cried out. Upon the departure of the negro Mrs. Allison raised the alarm, posse scoured the country and yesterday Kinard was arrested and placed in Lexington jail.

The negroes around Irmo are greatly excited over the affair and are gathering at Irmo, there having been talk of lynching by the white men. One negro was killed for interference this morning. This shooting still further incensed the negroes and there was talk of rescuing the ravisher. The white men of the neighborhood are collecting at Irmo under arms and the negroes are also out in force. Trouble is feared tonight.

Good Education at Low Rates.

Many parents are thinking about sending their sons off to school next fall, and there are many young men who are making plans for their education. The question they are trying to decide is, "Which is the best school to attend?" They want the best advantages, but they want to secure these advantages at lowest prices possible. Davis School, at Winston-Salem, N. C., is a military college, has a large faculty of able professors, offers a full course of study, and for those not prepared for college classes there is a complete preparatory course. The rates are very low; the location is famous for beauty and health. The past session was the most prosperous in the history of the institution. There were cadets from many sections of the United States.
