NUMBER 41.

REPUBLICAN BOODLE.

THE U. S. SUPREME COURT OPENED MONDAY.

Chief Officers in the Field—Vacancies Open—A New Scheme to Collect Boodle.

Special to the Press and Carolinian.

Washington, Oct. 10, 1892.—The republican complaint of a lack of campaign boodle is made for no other purpose than to deceive. They have today a larger fund at the disposal of their national committee than was used by them in the campaign of 1888. This is no hearsay or guessing, but an absolute fact.

Mr. Harrison knows from experience the value of having a few good offices to dangle in front of the political workers of his party, therefore no one was surprised when he officially announced that none of the numerous existing vacancies would be filled until after election. He wishes the impression to go out that the men who do the most telling work for him will have the pick of these places. Among the most desirable vacancies are an assistant postmaster general; a commissioner of the general land office, and a seat on the bench of the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

The fall session of the U. S. Supreme court opened today. The only business transacted was the swearing in of the new member, Justice Shiras, of Pennsylvania, and the official call of the court on the president.

A few days ago Lige Halford, the president's private secretary, gave out a short but very carefully worded interview, in which he stated in substance that instead of being opposed to members of the cabinet and other prominent officials going on the stump, as has been reported, (doubtless by order) the president strongly favored their taking that method of rendering an account of their stewardship to the people. Now wasn't that a neat way of notifying the officials to get up and hustle?

A new method of working the clerks for political contributions has been put into operations, which its originators claim is no violation of the Civil Service law. The clerk receives from his state republican association a circular letter asking him if he has any "suggestion" to make that will be beneficial to his party to call at a given address, and when he calls he is politely informed that he has been assessed five per cent of his salary, and that he had better lose no time in handing in the cash. One of these circulars was sent to a Missouri democratic clerk, who after calling and satisfying himself of the nature of the scheme laid the whole matter before the Civil Service Commission.

Pat. Egan, U. S. Minister to Chile, now here, says Mr. Blaine will take the stump for Harrison, but he will have to do so before Washington people will believe it.

The 14 cent Cravat window display is only to last ten days at J. C. Martin's.

A Burglar Kills a Burlington Merchant.

Ransom, N. C., Oct. 10.—Sunday night a burglar entered the store of J. F. Matthews at Burlington, and was discovered by the latter, who slept in the building. The burglar was fired at, but Matthews' aim was poor. The burglar returned the fire and shot Matthews dead. The Governor to day offered a reward of $300 for the capture of the murderer. The police this morning arrested a merchant whose place of business adjoins that of Matthews. Circumstantial evidence against the man arrested is said to be very strong.

STATE NEWS.

The rolling mill at Cleveland will be in operation by December 1st.

Senator Ransom will speak in Morganton on Tuesday, Oct. 25th.

Governor Holt will speak in Morganton on Saturday, Nov. 5th, instead of Oct. 12th, as advertised last week.

Rev. E. P. Davis, of Winston, well known through North Carolina as a young Presbyterian minister of much ability, has received a call to a pastorate in Montgomery, Ala., and expects to accept.

Maj. Charles M. Stedman is to take the stump. He is a very able and forcible speaker. Maj. Stedman's speeches will give zest and earnestness to the campaign in the west where he will be engaged.

The second annual tobacco exposition at Rocky Mount will begin November 2nd. This is a new but growing market, and the exposition will eclipse anything of the kind, perhaps, ever held in the State.

One of Senator Ransom's gin houses in Northampton county was destroyed by fire last Saturday night. Ten bales of cotton, a lot of cotton seed and some lint cotton were destroyed. No insurance.

Last Saturday revenue officers made a raid into Lincoln county, Tenn., and three of them were killed by the moonshiners. The names of the officers killed were: S. D. Mathew, Joe Spurrier and C. S. Cardwell.

Rev. J. L. Michaux has sold the Greensboro Workman to Mr. W. S. Roberson, but it is a satisfaction to know that the work of Mr. Michaux's forceful and original pen will continue to be seen on the paper.

Gov. Holt has offered a reward of $200 for the capture of certain incendiaries who burned a church at Chashier's Valley in Jackson county. This is the fifth house which has been destroyed there by incendiaries since 1886.

Pottle Withdraws.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 10.—It is said on absolutely reliable authority that Joseph Pottle has retired from the congressional race and returns to the democratic fold.

Homestead Again Excited.

HOMESTEAD, PENN., Oct. 7.—At 2 o'clock this morning an attempt was made to blow up the Mansion house, a boarding house in which between forty and fifty non-union men were sleeping.

Will Sullivan Succeed?

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A rumor was circulated last night in the upper part of the city that John L. Sullivan, the ex-champion, had attempted to commit suicide.

Folk on Cleveland.

We refer to the veto power of the president, and the wise and judicious use of it by President Cleveland in defeating fraudulent pension and appropriation bills. The action taken shows a great degree of careful scrutiny on the part of the executive.

It needs only that the character of the majority of the bills vetoed be called to mind to convince every fairminded man that the president has acted with prudent discretion.—[Progressive Farmer, June 12th, 1888.]

GALLOWS DOES ITS WORK.

HANGMAN'S DAY, VERITABLY, IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

Four Colored and One White Pay the Penalty of Their Crimes on the Scaffold.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 7th.—John Williams and Mildrey Brown (colored) were hanged at Spartanburg at 11:45 this morning.

Anna Tribble (colored) was hung at Newberry, S. C., today, in the corridors of the jail, for the murder of her infant last February.

Tom Brock was hung at Picken's courthouse today for the murder of Jerry Hughes, town marshal of that place, in June last.

William Watson (white) was hung at Anderson at 11:15 this morning for murdering his wife.

General Navy News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—If the failure of the Carnegie works to deliver material for the new war ship under construction at the navy yard continues much longer it will seriously affect the workmen there, as a large number will have to be suspended from the construction department. There has been no reduction at all as yet, Constructor Bowles having found enough work for the men in completing those parts of the ship that the material is in hand for, but which, under other circumstances, would follow the heavier work.

There has been great delay in getting the sponsons for the cruiser Raleigh and the heavy belt armor for the double turreted monitor Amphitrite, as well as small lots of structural steel, from the Carnegie works, that company being the contractors. The delivery of the armor should have been made more than a year ago.

Columbian Exposition.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—This was public school day in the order of the festivities of New York's Columbian celebration. The results of more than 250 years of educational work were represented in the parade. Twenty regiments of grammar school boys took part in the parade.

A Georgia Factory Burned.

ATLANTA, Oct. 9.—The Georgia factory in Clarke county was burned this morning. Loss $130,000. The factory employed 300 operatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland in New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Ex-President Cleveland arrived in town this morning. He was accompanied by E. C. Benedict and his private secretary.

Total Visible Supply of Cotton.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The total visible supply of cotton for the world is 2,695,402, of which 2,304,502 are American; against 2,268,878 and 1,898,278 respectively last year.

Of course no good Confederate soldier is going to vote for Weaver. We once heard a man in the line curse Gen. Lee, and if that fellow is alive he may vote for Weaver, but no man whose heart was in the cause of the South will do any such thing.—[New Bern Journal.]

The republican managers have issued a manifesto in defense of the ballot-box stuffer, Dave Martin. The g. o. p. is certainly in sore straits, when it is driven to the defense of so disreputable and villainous a scoundrel.

An attempt has been made to blow up a non-union boarding house at Homestead, Pa.

WEAVER AT PULASKI.

DID NOT SPEAK WITHIN THE TOWN INCORPORATION.

Perfect Courtesy on the Part of Democrats—Rather Small Audience Listened to Him.

PULASKI, TENN., Oct. 8.—General Weaver arrived here at 10 o'clock this morning. He was met by nearly one hundred and fifty members of the people's party, who, with a brass band, escorted him to the fair grounds, where the speaking took place. The democratic committee of Giles county had thirty-five extra police appointed to preserve order. At one o'clock this afternoon General Weaver began his speech at the fair grounds. Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, occupied seats on the platform. By actual count there were three hundred men and three women on the grand stand.

Murderous Work of Moonshiners.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 9.—Acting Commissioners of Internal Revenue received a telegram from Collector Munn, at Nashville, to day saying that Deputy Collector Cardwell died at Clentville yesterday at 3 p. m.; that Deputy Collector Nather was killed instantly, and that Deputy Collector Sparier is still alive, but seriously wounded. He also received a telegram from Revenue Agent Kuisely, at Knoxville, saying he will start at once for the scene of action for the purpose of executing the instructions of the department for the apprehension of moonshiners concerned in the killing of the revenue officers.

Acting Commissioner Wilson says the department is determined to punish the perpetrators of this outrage if possible, and to that end instructions have been given Special Agent Chapman, of Georgia and Alabama districts, and to Special Agent Kuisely, of Tennessee and Mississippi districts, to place their entire force at the disposal of Collector Munn, of Nashville district, in running down the moonshiners and securing their punishment.

Husband Cremated by an Insane Wife.

COATSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 9.—Mrs. Wm. Sharp, an insane woman, Wednesday night poured coal oil on her husband while he was sleeping and then applied a match, burning him to death.

Will the Caucasian Suspend?

CLINTON, N. C., Oct. 8.—The extent of the Clinton fire is now being adjusted, though it is not as heavy as first reported. The Caucasian office was almost completely demolished and it is stated that it is a question whether the paper will appear again or not.

A Weaver Candidate Will Support the Democratic Ticket.

SHELBY, Oct. 10.—Mr. A. B. Peeler, third party nominee for sheriff and one of the strongest and most influential men in it, has withdrawn and will support the democratic ticket from Cleveland down.

On Monday the funeral services of Lord Tennyson were held in the parish church at Halsemere, and on yesterday the remains of the poet were laid to rest in the poet's corner in Westminster Abbey.

White North Carolinians hurrahing for old Weaver, late of the northern army of invasion, and the persecutor and maligner of the south, is enough to make true men ashamed of the race that can produce such creatures.—[Wilmington Messenger.]

DEMOCRACY BOOMING.

HENDERSON, HOLTON AND SHUFORD IN HICKORY.

Henderson Frazzles the Boys—Democracy and Truth Gaining Ground Daily—Shuford's Knees Weakening.

The joint debate between Congressman Henderson and Would-be Congressmen Shuford and Holton took place here Saturday. A good crowd was present, and Mr. Henderson in his leading speech strongly expounded democratic doctrines. After his speech he was loudly cheered and presented with a beautiful bouquet by the ladies. Mr. Holton followed and had as much regard for truth as republican orators usually do. He abused democracy and tried very hard to boost up his sinking party.

Lastly, Mr. A. C. Shuford spoke and tried hard to delude the people of his party, by heaping abuse upon democracy.

Wreck on the L. & N. T.

PORT GIBSON, Miss., October 8.—Passenger train No. 45, on the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas railroad, which left Memphis at 5 o'clock Thursday evening, was wrecked at 3 o'clock yesterday morning nine miles below this place.

The fireman was killed and Engineer Comas and a negro passenger were seriously injured. Two coaches, sleeper and baggage car were burned, including mail and express matter. The wreck was caused by the burning of a trestle.

The presidential election falls this year on November 8. The electors chosen in the several states are to meet on Monday, January 9, to declare the result in each. It will be transmitted to Washington by a special messenger in each case, and announced by congress on the second Wednesday in February. The house of representatives canvasses the electoral vote for president and the United States senate canvasses the electoral vote for vice-president.

The Birmingham Age Herald says that "General Weaver was not the first man to smell decayed hen fruit in the Georgia campaign." The Springfield Republican adds that Weaver received every assurance of protection while in Georgia and that his effort to pose as a martyr is but evidence of his cowardice.

Here is what Mr. Cleveland says: "Unorganized good intentions and idle patriotic aspirations cannot successfully contend with the compact forces of private interests and greed."

Democrats heed. Organize. Do it at once.

U. S. Consul Philip C. Hanna has been fired at from a Venezuelan warship.

Mrs. Benjamin Harrison is thought to be sinking. In this affliction the president has the sympathies of all his fellow-citizens.

A battle has been fought between the French and Dahomeyans. The latter were about exterminated.

Georgia has certainly put her heel most vigorously upon republicanism and third partyism. The democratic majority is something over 80,000 with several back "deestricks" yet to bear from.
