They are: David Leete, crew club and past president of the SCC; Pete Simpkinson, crew club; Melissa Denmark, women's volleyball club; Pierce Barden, sailing club; and Carolina Heller, equestrian club and current SCC vice-president.

Awards will also be presented to outstanding participants in IM-REC Sports. They are: Mark Arrowood, supervisor; Steve McRae, men's manager; Steve Watkins, fraternity manager; Christine Norwood and Deborah Mayo, women's co-managers; Joy Sallenger, grad/faculty manager; and Christy Santoro, lifeguard.

Wright, Katter win tennis classic

Charles Wright and Jill Katter defeated Tio Lien and Michiko Nohara 6-3, 6-3, to win the First Annual Carolina Charity Classic on April 4. The mixed doubles tournament was sponsored by the UNC Men's and Women's Tennis Clubs, and $200 in donations was raised to benefit Habitat for Humanity.

Douthit, Heller qualify for zonal horseshow

Merdith Douthit placed third and Caroline Heller finished second at the Regional Horseshow at Hollins College in Hollins, Va., on April 7. This qualified them for the Zonal Horseshow at the University of Virginia last weekend.

Earlier, the UNC Equestrian Club travelled to Ferrum College in Ferrum, Va. Sarah Crumbaugh made headlines as she placed first over fences, first on the flat, and was named reserve high point rider for the show. Heller also contributed with a first place finish over fences, and Gail Durkin took second on the flat.

The club's first meet of the semester was held Feb. 23 in Laurinburg. Katie Largen, Heller, and Kelly Mannix all took first place finishes, while Gwen Lynch, Durkin, Douthit, and Jennifer Albert captured seconds.
