

Atlanta Defeats Houston, Moves Ahead of Giants

ATLANTA — The Atlanta Braves re ATLANTA—The Atlanta Braves re-tooksole possession of first place in the NL West on Wednesday night, beating the Houston Astros 6-3 as Tom Glavine struggled to his 21st victory. Fred McGriffand David Justice hit consecutive solo homers in the second inning, and Damon Berryhill hit a three-run homer to break a 3-3 tie in the third as the Braves bounced back from a 5-2 loss Tuesday

Glavine (21-6), a 20-game winner for the third straight season, was roughed up early and wound up allowing all three runs and nine hits in 62-3 innings. The 1991 NL Cy Young Award winner threw 136 pitches, struck out four and walked three as he won for the seventh time in eight decisions.

Greg McMichael got out of a bases-loaded, one-out jam in the eighth when Steve Finley bounced into a double play, then finished for his 17th save in 19 chances after loading the bases in the ninth. The Astros stranded 14 runners in all.

Ken Caminiti and Kevin Bass walked with one out in the ninth, and Andujar Cedeno reached on a throwing error by third baseman Terry Pendleton. Chris Donnels then struck out and Ed Taubensee hit a roller in front of the plate that Berryhill picked up. The catcher lunged to his left and tagged Caminiti for the final out.

Atlanta, which has won 19 of 25, went ahead in the third against Doug Drabek (9 18) when McGriff hit his 36th homer -417-foot drive to right. Justice, who struck out four of his previous five at-bats, followed with his 39th, a 430-drive over the centerfield fence.

San Francisco Drops Final Home Game to Colorado

SAN FRANCISCO — San Francisco wasted two bases-loaded opportunities and Daryl Boston homered twice as the Colorado Rockies beat the Giants 5-3 Wednesday and knocked them out of first place in the NL West.

Colorado, which stopped the Giants' seven-game winning streak, took a 5-1 lead in the sixth against Jeff Brantley on Boston's second homer of the game and 14th of the

The Giants closed to 5-3 in the bottom of the inning when Barry Bonds walked and pinch-hitter Mark Carreon hit his sev-enth home run of the season, but San Francisco had just one runner after that.

Darren Lewis singled leading off the seventh and stole second and third, but was stranded when Matt Williams grounded out. Bonds, who carried the Giants during the streak, went 0-for-3 for the second straight game.

The Giants loaded the bases with two outs in the fourth, but Kirt Manwaring grounded out to first.

Kent Bottenfield loaded the bases again in the fifth, but Williams bounced into a double play off Steve Reed (9-5) after homeplate umpire Bruce Froemming called a strike on a 3-0 pitch that appeared high and Giants rookie Salomon Torres (3-4) wasn't sharp and lasted only 2 2/3 innings in his seventh big league start. He gave up homers leading off the first and second innings, and issued a leadoff walk in the third to Nelson Liriano.

Women's Soccer Cruises Past 9th-Ranked Devils

Crow's Corners Helps Tar Heels Win 67th Straight

BY STEVE POLITI

It's hard to say what Dawn Crow saw. She was, after all, standing about 25 yards away from the action in the corner of the field. And her teammates on the UNC women's soccer team were bunched up in front of the goal, tangled with their oppo-nents, the Duke Blue Devils. Still, her cornerkicks helped carry the

Tar Heels to their 67th consecutive win — a 7-2 win over the Blue Devils Wednesday night at Fetzer
Women's Soccer

M a y b e Crow, UNC's junior fullback

who handled almost all of the cornerkicks

who handled almost all of the cornerkicks
Wednesday, spotted Angela Kelly.
"Angela Kelly is playing out of her mind," Crow said. "I've never seen anyone play with that much heart or determi-

Kelly booted Crow's cornerkick into the Duke goal at 21:23, tying the game for the Tar Heels.

UNC trailed 1-0 — the second time in three games that the Tar Heels had fallen behind—after Missy Durham headed the ball into the net off of, appropriately, a

Maybe Crow saw Debbie Keller in the crowd of blue uniforms.

"Debbie Keller's coming into her own," Crow said. "She's been playing a heck of a

Keller headed another Crow cornerkick into the Duke goal at 32:49 into the game, breaking a 1-1 tie to give the Tar Heels the lead for good. The freshman from Naperville, Ill., also scored UNC's third goal. She took a pass from midfielder Danielle Egan, who had four assists in the game, and soared the ball with her left foot from just inside the goal box into the corner

"I've seen many good goals in my life," head coach Anson Dorrance said, "but I have seen few goals like Debbie Keller's.

That's an amazing goal."

Duke pulled within one at 34:36. After a UNC defensive breakdown, midfielder Cara Lyons tapped the ball past Tar Heel goalie Tracy Noonan at 34:36. But Kelly scored her second goal just before halftime on a pass from Egan after another Crow

Forward Mia Hamm's second-half hat trick gave the Tar Heels, who have won all 17 of their games against Duke, a comfort-

And fittingly, Crow assisted on Hamm's second goal off another cornerkick. Crow was the 12th player in the North Carolina lineup until junior midfielder Tisha Venturini was sidelined Sunday with a broken left foot.

"Dawn's been playing very well all season," Dorrance said. "The silver lining in Venturini's injury is that Dawn is on the "Dawn served up great balls," Keller said, "and I think that helped."

North Carolina junior Keri Sanchez shadows Blue Devil forward Kelly Walbert in the Tar Heels' win at Fetzer Field.

Men's Soccer Blasts Davidson Defense

BY JILL SANTOPIETRO

It may be coincidental, but Temoc is Comet spelled backwards.

And even if is coincidental, it's fitting. Temoc Suarez scored a hat trick and UNC's defense recorded its second shut out of the season as the Tar Heels defeated Davidson 5-0 Wednesday at Fetzer Field.

The youngest of three Suarez brothers on UNC's team, Temoc showed a panache on the field which electrified the fans.

"Temoc is coming along," said head coach Elmar Bolowich Davidson said. "He's an amazing player to watch."

Suarez had two goals in the first half within 1:04 of each other, giving UNC an early 2-0 lead. Senior forward Todd Haskins, who had two assists in the game, slid another goal into the left corner, taking advantage of a distracted Davidson goalie Alex Deegan to make it 3-0 at the half.

The UNC backfield, led by junior sweeper Greg Berhalter, held the Wildcat offense at its mercy in the first half. The Tar Heels outshot the Wildcats 16-1. Berhalter gave credit to the offense.

"I think the best defense is good of-fense," Berhalter said. "We played well offensively. We weren't forced to play defensively."

The Wildcats grabbed only four more shots in the second half as the UNC defense kept up the pressure.

"The defense is very solid," Bolowich said. "We hardly made changes in our defensive lineup. Berhalter is a very good sweeper, and our two marking backs do a very good job."

Temoc Suarez joined in praise of the defense "You have to give the defense credit." he said. "It's our second shutout. The defense keeps on playing well."

Carolina's offense got more than just a dose of Suarez, as Todd Haskins added a goal and a cross corner assist and Ben Di Meo, a second-half addition, added the assist to cap the Temoc Suarez hat trick.

Midfielder Hector Suarez fed the ball to defender Eddie Pope for a finesse fourth goal coming off a Carolina corner at 57:41 into the game.

Bolowich was pleased by his team's recent turnaround. Since a slow start, the Tar Heels have won seven of their last eight games, with the only loss coming to No. 1 Virginia.

"We feel we are a strong team. We feel we belong in the Top 20," he said. "We did not show it in the beginning of the season because of a number of reasons, and now I think we're in the swing of things."

Davidson head coach Charlie Slagle added: "The entire Carolina team was awfully good. We made them look a little bit good at times, but they're awfully good."

The last Wildcat-Tar Heel match last season resulted in a 4-3 North Carolina loss in overtime. UNC now has a 16-2-2 record against Davidson.

North Carolina's next game and second ACC match of the season is Duke at Fetzer Field on Sunday. "Duke is a different game and a different challenge," Bolowich said.

Suarez Continues Blistering Scoring Pace With Hat Trick

BY ZACHARY ALBERT ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR

When freshmen enter any sports program, they usually expect to see a good deal of time on the bench. Waiting their turn, so to speak.
Not so for UNC forward Temoc Suarez.

The Mt. Pleasant, S.C., native not only started Wednesday night's game against Davidson, he netted a hat trick in the 5-0 win for the 6-3-1UNC men's soccer team

But the scoring potency of Suarez is nothing new. In the last three games, Suarez has knocked in eight goals, including four in last week's road trip to The Citadel.

Despite being thrust into the offensive scheme so quickly, Suarez has fit in well.

"I think at the beginning of the season I had to find a rhythm, and I think I've found it now," Suarez said. "Now it's just a patter of desiren well acch gene".

matter of playing well each game."
Suarez tapped in the first Tar Heel goal

The Senior Class will present Bowl-a-Rama in of the evening, but the highlight of the night came at 16:08 into the first half, when enior Todd Haskins juked two Davidson defenders down the left side of the crease. Haskins booted a crossing pass to the center of the zone that Suarez headed into the net to put North Carolina up 2-0. UNC head coach Elmar Bolowich said that Suarez's youthful exuberance has helped him make the proper adjustments. "We have had a number of times that players did well and then got into somewhat of a slump, but I don't think Temoc is that type of player," Bolowich said. "He's just so fired up to play games and so motivated to go forward and score goals.' Suarez kept the Davidson defense at bay the entire game, much to the chagrin of Wildcat head coach Charlie Slagle

"He's got great speed and great antici-pation," Slagle said. "Our team gave Temoc a little bit too much room, and he gave us

Campus Calendar

THURSDAY

11 a.m. World AIDS Day Committee will

12:15 p.m. The Loreleis will sing in the Pit. 3:30 p.m. University Career Services will old a workshop, "Keeping Your Career Options pen," for freshmen in 306 Hanes Hall.

Open," for freshmen in 306 Hanes Hau The Ridgefield Action Project will meet in front of the Morehead Planetarium to go play The Morehead Planeau....
with kids
The Curriculum in African and Afro-American Studies will present Hanes-Willis Visiting Professor Berekt Habte Selassie, who will speak on "Cultural Justice in Africa: Aspects of Public Law and Policy in the Post-Colonial State" in the Faculty Lounge of the Morehead Planetarium building 4 p.m. University Career Services will spon-sor a career panel in math and computer science in 210 Hanes Hall. 5 p.m. The Office of the Student Body Presi-dent State Relations Committee will meet in

I'M NOT

SURE I HAVE THAT

MUCH

MAYBE HEAVEN

IS A PLACE WHERE YOU'RE

ALLOWED TO BE BAD

Great Hall balcony.

Students for the Ethical Treatment of Ani-

Students for the Ethical Treatment of Animals will meet in 301 Dey Hall.

The Rainforest Action Group will meet in the second-floor lounge of the Campus Y.

The MBA Public Speaking Club will meet in G7 New Carroll Hall.

5:30 p.m. The Vietnamese Student Association will show a video in Union 205.

6 p.m. Brothers, a discussion group for African-American male students, will meet in the first-floor lounge of Hinton James.

The Presbyterian Campus Ministry offers students to come to dinner at the Presbyterian center.

7 p.m. Carolina Indian Circle will meet in 200 Chase Hall.

Chase Hall.

The Catalyst will have a planning session in 452 Hamilton Hall.

The UNC Women's Forum will meet in 108

The UNC Women's Forum will meet in 108 Bingham Hall.
CUAB Performing Arts Series Outreach
Committee will meet in Union 200.
The Leadership Development Center will present Leadership Matters, "Networking: A Leader's Advantage" in 101 Greenlaw Hall.
7:30 p.m. The Environmental Issues Committee will meet on the second floor of the Student Union.
8 p.m. Alpha Phi Alpha will present The Great Hall Comedy Jam in Great Hall. Admission is $6. Tickets will be sold in the Pit and the Union Box Office.

friendly.flexibility.benefits

WE'VE GOT A LINE

ON FUN & FLEXIBILITY

Red Lobster America's number one full-ser vice seafood dinnerhouse, is ready to lure

you in with a convenient location, upbeat environment, full training, great pay and excellent benefits! Join us in one of the following full & part-time positions:

RED LOBSTER

4416 Chapel Hill Blvd. Durham

Please apply in person at the above location

Monday-Friday, 2pm-4pm. We are an equal

Red Lobster.

Hosts/Hostesses

• Line Cooks

• Bartender

· Wniters / Wnitresses

Alley Coordinators

• Food Production

Dishwashers

opportunity employer.

the Union.

Charlemos, the weekly discussion meeting of the Spanish House, will meet on the second floor of Carmichael Residence Hall.

9p.m. WXYC 89.3 will feature "A Beginner's Charle Haufers! Music."

TIEMS OF INTEREST
The Spanish House in Carmichael Residence
Hall has room for one more female student. Applications will be accepted until today. Contact the Spanish House.
University Career Services will hold an Inter-

University Career Services will hold an International Careers Conference Oct. 30 at the George Watts Hill Alumin Center.

The program costs $15. Come by UCS, 211 Hanes Hall, for program information and registration form. Deadline Oct. 7.

University Career Services will sponsor the Job Hunters' Network to talk about job searching. Will meet at 3 p.m. Wednesdays beginning Oct. 6 in 307 Hanes Hall.

Sangam will present "Ghandi" at 3 p.m. Oct. 3 in 08 Gardner Hall.

The Campus Y Action Grant will have a mandatory training session for many groups from 9 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. Saturday in Hanes Art Center. Call the Campus Y at 962-2333 for more information.

Copies On Saturdays

and Sundays Good until October 24, 1993 Good on all 8 1/2 x 11 plain paper self-service and autofeed copies

Open Til Midnite 7 Days A Week

0

C.O. COPIES 169 E. Franklin St. . Near the Post Office

967-6633

Players THURSDAYS 50° DRAF

No Cover with UNC ID

929-0101 159¹/₂ E. Franklin St.

Go HEELS! BEAT UTEP!

106 W. Franklin St. (next to Pizza Hut) 942-PUMP

1/2 Price Yogurt DTH

Buy any size of our delicious Yogurt Pump yogurt and get a second yogurt of equal or lesser value at half-price! (excludes shakes & flurries . toppings extra) not valid with any other offers good thru Oct. 10, 1993

Calvin and Hobbes

ACROSS
1 Carry lightly
through air
5 Raise trivial objections
10 Rats!

10 Rats!
14 Jai —
15 Too fat
16 Cleveland's waterfront
17 Incline
18 Vulnerable
20 Brief passage
22 Swaps
23 Suggestive look
24 Loot
26 Nautical term
28 Paronomasia
29 Stitched
33 Height: abbr
34 Caught
37 Kansas senator
38 Part of MPH

38 Part of MPH 39 Set out briskly 41 Painting 42 Exec

42 Exec. 44 One making an

IF HEAVEN IS GOOD, AND IF I LIKE TO BE BAD, HOW AM I SUPPOSED TO BE HAPPY THERE?

HEAVEN IF TINDID 1 YOU LIKE TO I WANTED

THE Daily Crossword by Don Johnson

51 Desert

64 Walk back and forth 65 Horses 66 Mexican dollar 67 Winter vehicle 68 Inclined 69 Lots

DOWN

scarf 5 Dove, at

Star — Author Milne

3 Genealogica

6 Border 7 Old-timer, for

8 Equal: pref.

11 Uninteresting

9 Musical

direction 10 Put off

©1993 Tribune Media Services. Inc All Rights Reserved

51 Desert 12 Coating of particles 53 Josip Broz 54 Maximally 57 Spanish misters 60 Jumping insect 63 Nuncupative 64 Walk back and forth 57 New York 57 New York 57 New York 58 New York 58

· 12 Coating of ice

particles 13 Bills 19 B.A. word

laborers 24 Intimidating

24 Intimidating persons
25 New York Indian
26 Northern natives
27 Warn
28 Roman procurator
30 Herb with heart-shaped leaves
31 Omit a vowel

vowel
32 Cancels
35 Swiss river
36 Poor grade
40 Draw off

gradually 43 Made fun of

47 Obi

50 Bends

52 A dance 53 Concise

54 Mountains 55 River duck 56 Aromatic spice 57 Observed 58 Soothe

59 Like a incursion

45 Before JFK
46 Paces
48 Social
49 Donkeys Need help with this crossword puzzle? Call 1-900-454-3014. Your phone company will bill you 95 cents per minute. Rotary or touch-tone phones.