GET INTO THE GAMES!

The Dept. of Housing and Residential Education is currently seeking applicants for Residence Hall Staff positions during the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games. A Residence Hall Staff position during the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games may be one of the most challenging and fulfilling commitments you can assume. Through this unique opportunity, you will receive a broad-based, skill-building experience that will enhance your abilities in interacting with others, balancing commitments, and increasing your cultural and current issues awareness. We are looking for staff members who have qualities such as maturity, a sense of responsibility, effective communication skills, leadership potential, and sensitivity to diverse populations.

Qualifications: Qualified candidates must: (1) Be available to live and work in the residence halls from 8am on June 21, 1999 through 5pm on July 7, 1999. (2) Agree to a background check that will be conducted by the Special Olympics World Games staff. (3) Have at least some type of awareness of the on-campus living experience. (4) Not have any major outside commitments or employment simultaneously with the Special Olympics World Games.

Compensation/Benefits: Assistant Residence Hall Managers receive $1,000 stipend; Tar Heel Ambassadors receive $800 stipend. All Residence Hall Staff members are provided air-conditioned rooms on-campus at no charge. Applications will be accepted until Feb. 19, 1999. For further information and application, contact: Rebecca Casey, Assistant Director, Dept. of Housing and Residential Education, Teague Hall 07, CB#5510, Carolina Campus. Tel: 962-5240. Email: rebecca_casey@unc.edu

Consider joining the Dept. of Housing and Residential Education staff for a rewarding and challenging experience!
