HEAR IT FOR YOURSELF

"TUITION AND STATE FUNDS CAN'T COVER ALL THE NEEDS ON CAMPUS. I want to do my part to ensure Carolina is constantly rising to the next level."— Dupal Shah, Senior, Journalism and Mass Communication, Advertising Sequence

"BECOMING A DONOR WHILE I'M A STUDENT GETS ME IN THE HABIT TO remember to give back to Carolina. I donate to other charities, but Carolina is a big part of what I will become once I leave here. I've enjoyed my time here, and I want others to have the same experience I did!"— Geoffrey Whaley, Junior, History and Anthropology

"ACADEMICS ARE A VERY IMPORTANT PART OF STUDENT LIFE. SEEING SO MANY improvements around campus funded by donations is inspiring. I believe that it's never too early to give a helping hand, even if it's a very small donation which can increase in size as the years continue."— Christian E. Mibelli, Freshman, Health Policy and Administration/Pre-Med

"I'VE CHOSEN TO GIVE BACK TO THE UNIVERSITY EVEN WHILE HERE BECAUSE I've experienced the hardships of affording a phenomenal education at UNC. I know how hard it's been for me coming from a middle class family. And if it's hard for me, then I can imagine it's even harder for someone else. I want to be able to help someone else have it better than I did!"— Deidre Richardson, Senior, History and Music

BUILDING A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

UNDERGRADUATES WHO DONATE ANY AMOUNT TO ANY AREA OF CAROLINA are honored with membership in the Heelraisers Society. Heelraisers are recognized annually for their outstanding commitment to building a tradition of excellence. They understand that one of the most important parts of being a member of the Carolina family is to give what they can, in support of a program they care about, to ensure UNC is always a leading public university.
