APPOINTMENT OF EMIGRATION AGENT. -At a meeting of our State Agricultural Board on the 6th inst., Mr. Samuel J. Fall was elected Emigration Agent. In announcing this appointment, the Raleigh Observer says: "For five years this gentleman was a resident of North Carolina, coming to us from Erigland. During his stay here he traveled all over our State and became well acquainted with our people and country, and he was endorsed to the Board by a great many of our leading men. Much of bis life has been spent in traveling over Europe; so that his selection as Emigration Agent for our State we regard as not only wise but as promising great results to our State. He will return to Europe in a few days, equipped with pamphlets, etc., of information to circulate amongst the tenant farmers of England." Mr. Fall left Raleigh
