

W. H. KING & COMPANY,
WILLIAMS & HAYWOOD.
WE INVITE YOUR PATRONAGE.
Pure Drugs Carefully
Compounded.

ONE MORE CAR LOAD,
Our Popular Brands of Flour
—AT—
OUR POPULAR PRICES.
VALLEY CITY MILLS
PATTERN ROLLER PROCESS FLOUR
RETAIL PRICES.
LILY WHITE,
$6.00 per bbl. $3.00 per 1/2 bbl.
SNOW FLAKE,
$5.50 per bbl. $2.75 per 1/2 bbl.
RELIANCE,
$5.00 per bbl. $2.50 per 1/2 bbl.

W. C. & A. B.
Stronach,
—GROCERS—
Bakers and Candy Manufacturers.
North Carolina.
THIS SEASON'S CATCH.
North Carolina Roe and Cut Herrings,
Barrels and half barrels.
North Carolina Corned Shad,
$6.50 per bbl.
North Carolina Herring Roe,
15 kits.
North Carolina Shad Roe,
10 lbs. net, $1.50 per kit.
North Carolina Corned Mulletts.

New Mackerel.
New Shore No 1 Mackerel,
Kits 10 lbs. net $1.35
New Bay No 2 Mackerel,
Kits 10 lbs. net $1.25.
New XXX Boiler No 1 Mackerel,
Kit 10 lbs. net $2.35.
MIR'S ROOT BEER,
5 gallons for 25c.
HE-NO.
Best and most Economical of Teas,
1/2, 1/4, 1/8 and 1 lb packages.
75c per pound.
Trade Supplied at Importers Prices.
Cases contain 24 to 25 pounds only.

Stronach's Bakery,
EVERYTHING OF THE BEST.
No Alumn.

HAM MOCKS.
We have a few Hammocks at 84c., would be cheap at $1. baseball Caps 10c., cost $2.20 per doz to make;
balls 4c. up, bats 9c.,
full line belts 5c. up,
fans for everybody
and description.

Gauze Shirts 7 Cents Up.
Men's gauze underwear and anything you want in furnishing goods for men,
ladies and children.
Corsets 24c. up. Full line gloves, handkerchiefs and toilet gloves, umbrellas. We have them for less than factory prices. Are you going to the mountains, to sea or stay at home, come and look at our

Trunks, Bags and Valises.
We will save you 50 per cent in this department. We have trunks as low as 37c.
Buggy whips 6c. up.
Lap robes 50c. up.
Shoes and slippers,
we have no competition. We are selling
shoes and slippers
for less than we can buy them at factory.
How can we or any one else do this? It is

PLUCK, NERVE, AND PUSH.
A shoe factory failed a few days ago, our buyers were on the spot with cash in hand took the stock at 35c in the dollar. We will offer you these goods at 35c per cent less than you can buy at the factory.
It is as much pleasure
for us to sell goods
cheap as it is to you to buy them. The

LYON RACKET STORE,
20 Centre St., Goldsboro, and 129 Fayetteville St., Raleigh.

The State Chronicle.

VOLUME XL. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1892. NUMBER 93.

STEVENSON FOR SECOND. NOMINATED AT SESSION YESTER- DAY ON FIRST BALLOT.

The Other Candidates—The Official Roll of Each State as Given.
By Telegraph to State Chronicle.
CHICAGO, June 23.—The first indication of organized life in the wigwag this afternoon was at 1:30, when the Democratic club of Indianapolis marched into the hall following the two banners. The New York delegation came in very quietly at 2:15. Although the convention time of meeting was 2 o'clock, it was not until 2:54 p. m. that Chairman Wilson called the body to order. Most of the delegates were in their seats and the galleries were quite well filled.

Gov. Porter, of Tennessee, offered a resolution to limit nominating speeches to five minutes, and seconding speeches to two minutes each. The resolution was greeted with applause and adopted. The call of States was then begun. Alabama asked to be passed. Arkansas nominated Gray, of Indiana, without comment. The name was greeted with applause. Colorado gave her place to Indiana, and Jno. E. Lamb took the platform and in a highly eulogistic address nominated Hon. Isaac F. Gray, Colorado, gave way to Illinois and Mr. Worthington took the platform to nominate A. E. Stevenson. Mr. Worthington said that he stood here to name as a candidate a man known by every woman and child and voter who ever licked a postage stamp in the land—a big, big, hearty, brainy man, whose courtesy was rarely equaled and never excelled.

In conclusion he presented a candidate "who does not have to get a certificate from a labor organization to prove he is a friend of labor—Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois."

R. J. Vance, of Connecticut, rose in his place to second the nomination of Isaac F. Gray. Idaho also seconded the nomination of Gray. When Iowa was called the chairman of the delegation said: "Iowa has no candidate to present."

When Kansas was reached L. A. Scott, of Indiana, seconded the nomination of Isaac F. Gray. When Kentucky was called, Hon. John S. Rhea took the platform. He said that he came from the home of the star-eyed goddess, to second the nomination of Mr. Stevenson. "Kentucky took her democracy, like her whiskey, straight." The roll call proceeded without interruption until Michigan was reached, when Hon. F. E. Uhl took the platform and nominated Adlai E. Stevenson. When New York was reached Governor Flower arose and announced that New York had no candidate to present.

North Carolina for Stevenson.
Mr. Elias stood on his chair when North Carolina was called and seconded the nomination of Stevenson. He said that if Mr. Stevenson was wise enough "to be in the cabinet of the Hon. Grover Cleveland" he was fit to run on the ticket with him. When Ohio was called there were cries of "Campbell," but the chairman of the delegation announced that the State had no candidate to present. The chairman of the delegation announced that Wisconsin would present a candidate through Gen. E. S. Bragg. Taking the platform Gen. Bragg nominated Hon. John L. Mitchell. The rain of the star was pouring down so heavily that its noise almost drowned Mr. Bragg's voice. A lot of pieces of paper about size of note paper had been distributed among the delegates before the convention met bearing the words "Grover, Grover, four more years for Grover. In he goes. Out they go. Then we'll be in clover." As the band struck up the air, the Pennsylvania delegates began to sing, and, presently, the whole convention was singing, "Grover, Grover." The New York delegation did not join in the singing. Michigan did, and, with this Pennsylvania in its vocal efforts. Then the band played "Dixie" while the convention exercised its lungs in vigorous cheering.

The chairman ordered the roll to be called upon the four candidates. Alabama started out for casting its solid vote for Morse; Arkansas led the Gray column, and California dived between Gray and Stevenson. Connecticut voted solidly for Gray; Delaware for Morse; Florida cast 6 votes for Stevenson and two for Gray and seven for Stevenson; Idaho voted for Gray; Illinois gave her entire forty-eight votes to her favorite son, Stevenson; Indiana, Iowa broke in upon the routine by announcing that her twenty-six votes were cast for that democrat of democrats, Henry Watterson. Kansas, voted for Gray. Kentucky cast 12 for Gray, 12 for Stevenson and 2 for Mitchell. Louisiana voted for Stevenson. Maine voted 4 for Gray, 7 for Stevenson, one absent. Maryland 12 for Gray, 4 for Stevenson. Massachusetts 4 for Gray, 5 for Morse, 20 for Stevenson. This made Gray and Stevenson a tie. Michigan cast 28 votes for Morse. Minnesota voted 18 for Gray. Mississippi 9 for Gray and 8 for Stevenson, 1 for Morse. Missouri voted as follows: Stevenson 16, Gray 10, Morse 8. Montana scattered 5 for Bourke Cochran, 1 vote for Lambert Tree, of Illinois. Nebraska voted for Mitchell, 6 for Stevenson, 3 for Gray. New Hampshire solid for Stevenson. New Jersey, 19 for Gray, one for Stevenson. New York was called amid excitement and cast 72 votes for Stevenson amid tumultuous cheers. This put Stevenson 43 votes ahead. North Carolina followed suit with 22 for Stevenson. North Dakota voted 6 for Gray. Ohio gave 4 to Gray, 4 to Mitchell and 38 votes for Stevenson, thus increasing his lead to 93, amid cheers. Oregon voted 8 for Gray. Pennsylvania said, voting its individual preferences, it voted 4 for Mitchell, 6 for Morse, 17 for Stevenson, the balance and the majority of the delegation for Gray, but under the unit rule the 64 votes would be cast for Gray. This left Gray only 21 behind. Rhode Island gave 8 to Gray; South Carolina voted 18 for Stevenson; South Dakota voted 4 for Stevenson; 2 for Gray and 2 for Mitchell; Tennessee 14 for Gray, 8 for Stevenson, CONVENTION ECHOES. DETAILS OF THE BALLOTING EARLY YESTERDAY MORNING.

Later Reports From the Session Which Named Cleveland as the Standard-Bearer.
By Telegraph to the State Chronicle.
CHICAGO, June 23.—There was great confusion early this morning when the State of Alabama was called, and it was with difficulty that the chairman made himself heard to announce the scattering vote of the State. The next vote, Arkansas, solid 16 for Cleveland, was greeted with a storm of applause. The call proceeded without incident until Illinois was reached, when the chairman announced that on the poll of the delegation there were 36 votes for and 12 against Cleveland. Under the unit rule he cast the 48 votes for Cleveland.

"Gentlemen," the chairman said, "Kentucky asked for time as some wished to change their votes." When the vote was announced, Cleveland had 18 out of 26. The New York delegates applauded the Louisiana vote which gave Cleveland only 3. The roll call proceeded, and New York voted 72 votes for Hill was greeted with applause. Ohio vote was awaited with interest. When it gave 16 votes for Boies, the Iowa men set up a mighty yell. As the roll call proceeded the excitement became intense. It culminated when Alaska cast her two votes for Cleveland. There was growing excitement. Both the Hill and the Cleveland leaders were around the Arizona delegates waiting the announcement of their vote. It had been supposed that Arizona and New Mexico which had been given additional representation in the convention would vote with the anti-Cleveland people. When the chairman of the Arizona delegation got the floor and announced five votes for Cleveland there was wild and renewed cheering and much confusion, both in the galleries and on the floor, that it was impossible to transact business. Then the District of Columbia was called and cast her two votes for Cleveland that gave him all but two-thirds of a vote of the 607 necessary to nominate. New Mexico settled the question the next minute when she announced four votes for Cleveland. A South Carolina delegate went to the clerk's desk and had a vote changed from Boies to Cleveland on account of an error. The Texas delegation changed its vote to 30 for Cleveland. The West Virginia delegation to 12 for Cleveland, the Maryland delegation to 16 for Cleveland, the Kentucky delegation to 22 for Cleveland. Mr. Neal, of Ohio, moved to suspend the rules and make the nomination by acclamation. He was ruled out of order.

John W. Daniel Speaks.
Mr. Daniel, of Virginia, took the platform and said: "The democratic people of the United States have entered their voice through the lips of their chosen delegates. By that voice it has been decided that Grover Cleveland is the nominee of each and every democrat in this convention. A voice, 'So he is,' (cheers). In behalf of the delegation from Virginia, which came here divided today, but who go home as one, on behalf of every true hearted democrat in the party, I have the honor to move that the great banner of the people, I move that every democrat in this convention and that by every tongue the words shall be uttered that Grover Cleveland is to be the leader in this grand campaign. (Cheers.) We can, we must, we will, my countrymen, carry the great democracy to triumph. Mr. Daniels remarks excited the greatest enthusiasm, but the chair was unable to get order for a crowd of New York people were crying out to Governor Flower, Lieutenant Governor Shehan and others the nomination but the New York delegation sat silent when the vote was put and from other parts of the hall came some emphatic negatives. The convention hissed at this and the hissing continued until Governor Flower got on a chair. His lips moved, but his words could not be heard beyond the limits of a circle just about him. He was trying to make the nomination unanimous. Those who heard him cheered. Bourke Cochran jumped to his feet and said as there was some dissent uttered when the motion was made to declare the nomination unanimous, he would state that the vote of the New York delegation to the convention was chosen in the affirmative. Cheers greeted this announcement and Don Dickinson immediately moved an adjournment. The motion was carried and at 3:47 p. m. the convention adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Official Vote.
CHICAGO, June 23.—The official vote of this morning was: Cleveland 617 1-3; Hill 114; Boies 103; Gorman 35 1-2; Stevenson 16 2-3; Carlisle 14; Morrison 3; Campbell 2; Pattison 1; Russell 1; Whitney 1. Total 908 1-2. 3 absent three delegates entitled to 2 1-2 votes. In the confusion incident to the closing hour of the convention no announcement was made of the official ballot for President, or even of the official stenographer's record of the balloting. The table sent by the United Press this morning was compared with the official table of the convention stenographer as the vote of each State was recorded. It is an absolutely correct record of the vote of the convention during the roll call.

Senator Hill Returns Thanks.
CHICAGO, June 23.—Edward Murphy, Jr., received the following telegram this morning:
HON. EDWARD MURPHY,
Auditorium Hotel.
Please express to the New York delegation my heart-felt thanks for their steady devotion to my candidacy and for the gallant fight which they made to preserve the rights and dignity of the regular democratic organization of New York State.
(Signed) DAVID B. HILL.
Tammany Talks.
Edward Murphy to-day said: "We have the hardest campaign of fighting

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED. FIRST GUNS SOUNDED THROUGH- OUT THE STATE YESTERDAY.

A Large and Enthusiastic Ratification Meeting in Raleigh Last Night.
The Democratic campaign of 1892 in North Carolina was formally opened yesterday and last night throughout the State, and the demonstration in Raleigh was stimulated by that party enthusiasm worthy, truly, of a capital city. At 8:30 p. m. Fayetteville street was ablaze with bon-fires, and the parade of the Knights of Pythias band added life and interest to the occasion—a meeting of Raleigh and Wake democracy to ratify the work of the Chicago convention—and when the assembly was called to order by Mayor Badger, Metropolitan Hall was well filled with young and old democrats all. After a motion that the representatives of the democratic press be made secretaries, Capt. Coke was called upon and responded in a fifteen minutes speech in which he eulogized both members of the National ticket and predicted success in November. He said to properly appreciate Mr. Cleveland, contrast him with his political opponent, Benjamin Harrison; that he owed his nomination in particular to his able defence of that one plank in the platform which contrasted more than any other, the political differences of the two. He spoke in advocacy of tariff reform and dwelt upon the friendship of Cleveland and democracy to the laborers of America. Here the hour in which he was nominated, at the dawn of day, introduced a sentiment that as the working people thought America were going to their daily labor, a chief justice, a friend to the workmen, was nominated the highest office in their gift—a protector. He spoke of Cleveland as the "pure statesman and honest man." He then referred to the second name on the ticket, A. E. Stevenson, of Illinois, and said that every North Carolinian should work with renewed courage in that they were voting for a native born "Tar-Heel." He referred to the personal of the republican ticket and especially to White-Raid, commonly known as "White-Raid," and to his insults to the South. In referring to the platform, he said the platform adopted at Chicago was a paraphrase almost of the wise democratic platform of the recent State convention in this city. Mr. Coke was followed by Gen. W. R. Cox, of Edgecombe, who eulogized Cleveland, referring to the remarkable record he made while president, and of the honor shown him by this, the third consecutive nomination. Said no fears should be entertained in nominating or voting for one so universally loved by the people of America. He said Cleveland was defeated before by blocks of 5 and by fraud, and predicted overwhelming victory in the coming elections. He referred to him as the candidate of the people who would be elected by the people and said he had no enemy save among the corruptionists and spoilsmen. Rev. J. J. Hall responded to a loud call from the audience and eulogized Cleveland particularly on his honest and noble, manly motives and career. Said the people respected those traits of character and honored such. He said Cleveland loved the truth, was willing to be tried by the truth and that has made him a man respected by all and disliked by few. Capt. S. A. Ashe followed briefly, referring to the occasion, the significance of it and the importance of democratic unity, with a eulogy for the ticket.

At this juncture Mr. A. B. Stronach moved that the assembly organize itself in a Cleveland-Carr Club, which was enthusiastically agreed to. On motion, Mr. A. B. Stronach was made president. A large number reported their names for membership and a committee consisting of Messrs. Stronach, Terrell and Thompson, was appointed to report the other permanent officers at a subsequent meeting. A motion thanking the K. of P. Band was carried and the meeting adjourned.

The mention of the names of the National and State officers elicited much applause throughout the proceedings, especially that of Cleveland. It was truly an enthusiastic collection of democrats, who left the hall last night determined to let no opportunity pass from now until after the elections, in working for democratic supremacy.

Enthusiastic Democratic Club at Liberty.
LIBERTY, N. C., June 23.—Tonight a large and enthusiastic Democratic club was organized here. Business men, working men, professional men and farmers enrolled their names. This is one of the hot beds of the people's party, but it is confidently believed that the Chicago platform will satisfy all who are in earnest about reform tariff. Silver and civil service reform are all satisfactory to those who have calmly considered them. The intense earnestness and broad conservation of the democracy insures popular favor and success. No more protection, no more bayonettes at ballot boxes, no more blocks of five. This is our motto to victory.

Cleveland, Stevenson and Carr Club at Henderson.
Special to the State Chronicle.
HENDERSON, June 23.—Immediately after the nomination of Mr. Cleveland early this morning, the Cleveland, Stevenson and Carr democratic campaign club was organized here, with a large and enthusiastic membership. W. B. Shaw was chosen as its president, and W. S. Parker, secretary and treasurer. A congratulatory telegram was at once sent to Mr. Cleveland, and the service of the club tendered. A like telegram was sent to Hon. Elias Carr. We propose to redeem Vance county from the third party imputations cast upon her. Put us down please as the first organized force in the field in the State, if not in the whole country. We will give our banner to the breeze as soon as it can be made.

A Wealthy South Carolinian Dead.
By Telegraph to the State Chronicle.
CHARLESTON, S. C., June 23.—Wm. B. Smith, the richest man in the State, died here to-day, aged 77 years. He was born in this city and was engaged in the cotton business.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED. FIRST GUNS SOUNDED THROUGH- OUT THE STATE YESTERDAY.

A Large and Enthusiastic Ratification Meeting in Raleigh Last Night.
The Democratic campaign of 1892 in North Carolina was formally opened yesterday and last night throughout the State, and the demonstration in Raleigh was stimulated by that party enthusiasm worthy, truly, of a capital city. At 8:30 p. m. Fayetteville street was ablaze with bon-fires, and the parade of the Knights of Pythias band added life and interest to the occasion—a meeting of Raleigh and Wake democracy to ratify the work of the Chicago convention—and when the assembly was called to order by Mayor Badger, Metropolitan Hall was well filled with young and old democrats all. After a motion that the representatives of the democratic press be made secretaries, Capt. Coke was called upon and responded in a fifteen minutes speech in which he eulogized both members of the National ticket and predicted success in November. He said to properly appreciate Mr. Cleveland, contrast him with his political opponent, Benjamin Harrison; that he owed his nomination in particular to his able defence of that one plank in the platform which contrasted more than any other, the political differences of the two. He spoke in advocacy of tariff reform and dwelt upon the friendship of Cleveland and democracy to the laborers of America. Here the hour in which he was nominated, at the dawn of day, introduced a sentiment that as the working people thought America were going to their daily labor, a chief justice, a friend to the workmen, was nominated the highest office in their gift—a protector. He spoke of Cleveland as the "pure statesman and honest man." He then referred to the second name on the ticket, A. E. Stevenson, of Illinois, and said that every North Carolinian should work with renewed courage in that they were voting for a native born "Tar-Heel." He referred to the personal of the republican ticket and especially to White-Raid, commonly known as "White-Raid," and to his insults to the South. In referring to the platform, he said the platform adopted at Chicago was a paraphrase almost of the wise democratic platform of the recent State convention in this city. Mr. Coke was followed by Gen. W. R. Cox, of Edgecombe, who eulogized Cleveland, referring to the remarkable record he made while president, and of the honor shown him by this, the third consecutive nomination. Said no fears should be entertained in nominating or voting for one so universally loved by the people of America. He said Cleveland was defeated before by blocks of 5 and by fraud, and predicted overwhelming victory in the coming elections. He referred to him as the candidate of the people who would be elected by the people and said he had no enemy save among the corruptionists and spoilsmen. Rev. J. J. Hall responded to a loud call from the audience and eulogized Cleveland particularly on his honest and noble, manly motives and career. Said the people respected those traits of character and honored such. He said Cleveland loved the truth, was willing to be tried by the truth and that has made him a man respected by all and disliked by few. Capt. S. A. Ashe followed briefly, referring to the occasion, the significance of it and the importance of democratic unity, with a eulogy for the ticket.

At this juncture Mr. A. B. Stronach moved that the assembly organize itself in a Cleveland-Carr Club, which was enthusiastically agreed to. On motion, Mr. A. B. Stronach was made president. A large number reported their names for membership and a committee consisting of Messrs. Stronach, Terrell and Thompson, was appointed to report the other permanent officers at a subsequent meeting. A motion thanking the K. of P. Band was carried and the meeting adjourned.

The mention of the names of the National and State officers elicited much applause throughout the proceedings, especially that of Cleveland. It was truly an enthusiastic collection of democrats, who left the hall last night determined to let no opportunity pass from now until after the elections, in working for democratic supremacy.

Enthusiastic Democratic Club at Liberty.
LIBERTY, N. C., June 23.—Tonight a large and enthusiastic Democratic club was organized here. Business men, working men, professional men and farmers enrolled their names. This is one of the hot beds of the people's party, but it is confidently believed that the Chicago platform will satisfy all who are in earnest about reform tariff. Silver and civil service reform are all satisfactory to those who have calmly considered them. The intense earnestness and broad conservation of the democracy insures popular favor and success. No more protection, no more bayonettes at ballot boxes, no more blocks of five. This is our motto to victory.

Cleveland, Stevenson and Carr Club at Henderson.
Special to the State Chronicle.
HENDERSON, June 23.—Immediately after the nomination of Mr. Cleveland early this morning, the Cleveland, Stevenson and Carr democratic campaign club was organized here, with a large and enthusiastic membership. W. B. Shaw was chosen as its president, and W. S. Parker, secretary and treasurer. A congratulatory telegram was at once sent to Mr. Cleveland, and the service of the club tendered. A like telegram was sent to Hon. Elias Carr. We propose to redeem Vance county from the third party imputations cast upon her. Put us down please as the first organized force in the field in the State, if not in the whole country. We will give our banner to the breeze as soon as it can be made.

A Wealthy South Carolinian Dead.
By Telegraph to the State Chronicle.
CHARLESTON, S. C., June 23.—Wm. B. Smith, the richest man in the State, died here to-day, aged 77 years. He was born in this city and was engaged in the cotton business.

SOMETHING NEW IN SUMMER DRINKS, LEMON SHERBETS, ORANGE SHERBETS, —AT— W. H. KING & CO'S, WILLIAMS & HAYWOOD'S OLD STAND. TRY ONE.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.
THE SEASON
—AT—MOREHEAD.
The season at Morehead is now open, and for those who will visit there this summer, we have provided liberally of materials and wares suited for a sea-side resort.
Dress fabrics for traveling, boating and evening wear, long evening gloves, long silk mits, evening slippers, gauze and feather fans.
Blazer Suits, shirt and blazer, Cravenette Overgarments, Waterproof Basket Trunks, Leather Bags, Canvas Telescopes and Grips.
Bathing Suits, Bathing Shoes and Bathing Caps for ladies and gentlemen.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.,
123 and 125 Fayetteville St.
NEW HERRINGS.
J. R. FERRALL & CO.,
222 FAYETTEVILLE ST.

We are receiving regular packing North Carolina Roe and Cut Herrings direct from the fisheries, and can make low prices.
A very choice lot Va. Hams 2,000 lbs. fine N. C. Hams.
Ferry's Pig Hams, Smoked Beef and Tongues.
Orange Brand Small Hams, Harvey's Fine Breakfast Bacon, The Celebrated Magnolia Hams and Magnolia Shoulders.

Fine New Crop Cuba Molasses
Direct from the Importers. Prices low and prompt delivery of goods to all parts of the city.
TELEPHONE 88.

MISS MAGGIE REESE
1892. 1892.
SPRING and SUMMER
Millinery Novelties
—AND—
REGULAR GOODS.
We have the best selected, most correct, as well as most beautiful stock of millinery we have ever displayed, from the cheapest child's hat to the latest Parisian Novelty.
Our children's muslin caps and shirred hats are very desirable and seasonable.
A great variety of Straw Caps and round hats for boys under six years.
Many attractive novelties in Hair Ornaments, Crepe de Chine Ties and Vests, etc., etc.

HAIR - - - GOODS,
Drapery Silks, Embroidery Silks, Zephyrs and Woods.
Prices Reasonable.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Miss Maggie Reese,
219 Fayetteville St.

FRUIT JARS,
ICE CREAM FREEZERS,
PARCELAIN LINED PRESERVING KETTLES.
STEEL PRESERVING KETTLES,
GRANITE IRON KETTLES,
Baby Carriages,
CROQUET SETTS,
BEAUTIFUL GLASSWARE.
Paint in Small Cans
Now is the time to use these goods.

Thos. H. Briggs & Sons
BALEIGH, N. C.