

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Disasters of the Danville Railroad.

Saturday night, about 8 o'clock, the spacious Danville Railroad Depot in this city, fell with a great crash to the ground, a perfect wreck. The immediate cause was the vast weight of snow, the accumulation of two storms, upon the roof, with the added pressure of the rain of Saturday afternoon, which was absorbed and held by the snow as a sponge.

The Canada's mails.

The Canada has arrived at Boston and we have the following additional intelligence.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

The present position of peace prospects is this: It may be remembered that Austria made a suggestion of certain terms, not known to the public, which the Austrian cabinet considered might constitute a basis for pacific negotiations.

Further News Per Steamer Canada.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Full extracts from the Canada's mails, arrived on Saturday, and state that the main forces of the Russian Army have been commanded to remove from Odessa to Nicolaieff.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—It is set down as a truth upon good basis that the present Government intend to make a complete failure at Berlin.

A Fashionable Fern in New York.

If "Fanny Fern" did not write the following, we do not know who did: "You enter the church porch. The parson, with his thumbs in the armpoles of his vest, meets you at the door."

ILLUSTRATING OPERATIONS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The Trenton Gazette says that a party organizing has begun in New Jersey for the purpose of joining Col. Walker. It is already considerably strong, and the volunteers will probably soon be put on board a steamer in the lower part of New York Bay, with an outfit, munitions, &c., for the expedition.

Later from California.

RUSSIA HAS NOT REPLIED TO THE PROPOSAL.

Russia has not replied to the proposal, but would send representatives to the Conference, hence has arisen the rumor that the Austrian Anglo-French proposal is merely to define the meaning of the third point, and that if an understanding be effected, the Vienna Conference, so called, will be reopened in Paris in the middle of January.

ASTA.—There are few additional particulars concerning the surrender of Kars.

On the 14th, Gen. Mouravieff sent a courier to Erzurum. Gen. Mouravieff offered to grant an honorable capitulation, and allowed an English Captain (Thomson) to go to Erzurum. Thompson returned to Erzurum and reached Kars on the 22d. Gen. Williams then demanded an interview with MONTEVIEVO FOR THE 24th.

By this time the garrison had not food, except some horse flesh for the sick in the hospitals.—Here the narrative breaks off, and we have no details of the surrender.

PRIVATE ACCOUNTS WITHOUT DATES.

(rather doubtful) say that Omar Pacha had driven in the Russians and taken possession of Khoni, five leagues from Kutais, and was preparing to attack the latter city, which was garrisoned by ten thousand Russians.

GREAT BRITAIN.—Attention is entirely occupied in discussing the probabilities of peace.

It is remarkable that the general public speak more in favor of carrying on the war now than at any previous period. The Queen has sent a jeweled decoration to Miss Nightingale.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The splendid steamer "Montevievo," of the Collins line, arrived at her wharf yesterday (Sunday) with dates from Liverpool up to 29th ult.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

From the seat of war there is no account of any active engagement. All are in winter quarters, but very watchful, and the Allies suspicious of the intentions of the Russian forces.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

The rumor out says that Denmark intends to take part with the Allies, but there is also a certain "proviso" put in by said "Rumor." The Peace negotiations are just in statu quo. Count Esterhazy, had reached St. Petersburg. He had made known his mission but had not yet received a reply.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Austria had notified the Prussian Cabinet of the contents of Esterhazy's despatches and the terms of the ultimatum, and Prussia assents to her influence to urge the Czar to accept the terms.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

The Court of Saxony had also sent an Ambassador to St. Petersburg with a like recommendation to the Czar to make peace. The terms of the propositions are kept secret from the public and it is believed by some things that have leaked out, that Russia, in all probability, accept of them, but for the demand made by England for indemnity for expenses of the war.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

A French frigate had been lost off the Spanish coast, and all hands on board perished. By the overland mail from India, it is stated that a large number of pirates had been destroyed on the coast of China.

THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

ENGLISH MARKETS.—Cotton was easier but not quotably lower. The sales during the four days previous to the Atlantic's sailing Christmas, intervening, were 24,000 bales.—Flour had declined 1/2; Western canal sold at 4 1/2; Ohio at 3 3/4. Corn was 2s. lower; wheat at 42s. 6d. White at 45s. Provisions were unchanged and quiet. The Consols had declined to 88 1/2. Spirits of turpentine quiet at 36s. 6d. Rosin was quiet at 4s. 9d.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—It is set down as a truth upon good basis that the present Government intend to make a complete failure at Berlin.

WEALTH OF ATLANTIC CITIES.—The wealth concentrated at the great commercial points of the United States.

(says the Boston Traveller) is truly astonishing. For instance, one-eighth part of the property of this country is owned by the citizens of New York and Boston. Boston alone, suits corporate limits, owns one-twentieth of the entire Union—being an amount equal to the wealth of any three of the New England States, except Massachusetts.
