THE FLOWERS COLLECTION

Vol. II.==-No. 15.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY A COMMITTEE OF MINISTERS FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA CON FERENCE, M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH,-RUFUS T. HEFLIN, EDITOR.

31 50 a Year, in Advance.

Paetry.

From the Christian Advocate and Journal.

Missionary Hymn.

BY CHARLES BABCOCK.

Go, heralds of savation. Go torth as morning light In every land and union Dupped the studies of night. U-furi the Gospel hanner. Inseri ea wire Josus' name, And ery abud, Hosaona l Our God is come to reign.

II ow glorious on the mountains His standard doth appear, Leading to Zion's fountains, Which flow so free and clear, In streams of full salvation, For every thirsty soul; Through every land and nation, The living waters roll.

Messiah's honner waving. The wond'ring nations see, And Gospel blessings craving, Shall how the suppliant knee Bef re the King of Zion, Whose garments, dipp'd in blood, Proclaim him Judah's Lion, The Lord, the mighty God !

Their idol temples, shaking, Shall crucible into dust ; The chains of error breaking, High wave the G spel banner, As Jesus' name is sung, And let the shout, Hosanna ! Flow forth from every tongue.

Selections.

A Minister Hunting Snakes.

The Rev. Dr. Watson, in his late volume of 'Tales and Takings,' gives this entertaining picture of plantation life in Mississippi. Uncle Billy and the moccasin-mouthed snake. Aunt Susa need no special introduction.

which greatly lessens the danger of his In a previous chapter, the reader had a glance at the features of an old-had a glance at the features of an old-shore of these unsightly marshes but a fashioned 'two days meeting,' in this early day at these out-posts. Two day's stance : and in the sensor of the year stance; and in the season of the year

RALEIGH, THURSDAY APRIL 9, 1857.

HOLY

and opens my Bible, when I knows I awoke at an hour rather late, and inhabited as in days of yore; a little if my last thoughts were not of snakes, care and labor bestowed on the ancient most ebery letter. Next morning my earliest ones, nolens volens, certain- canals would again restore the fertility young massa Tom, who knowed how to read, come in here to run bullets, when ly were. Opening my eyes, what should and population which it originally pos-I see directly over my bed, protruding sessed. It would require no immense from a knot hole in one of the rough expenditure of funds to clear the chan-' 'I om, do you call dese letters dis ?' logs, but the head of a detestable snake. nels of the loose sands, which have ac-'Why yes,' says he, 'you old fool

NOS

At first I thought I dreamed, and it cumulated during so many centuries, could not be a reality, when, watching and to render them navigable for the 'Now,' says I, 'Tom, you'll want my loathsome visitor for an instant, I shallow vessels of the country. Such some ob my good 'bacca soon, an' if you 'buse me in dat way you no get saw the head turn, and the forked a work of supererogation is not, howevtongue protrude, but I saw no more. er, to be expected from the existing

In an instant I was on the floor, and race of Turkish officials, and must be seizing the most indispensable of my left until the time when the curse upon wardrope, I retreated to the hall with it shall be removed, and European civa scream, that secured the anxious pres- lilization, with its concomitant advantaence of Susa in a trice. I told her what ges, shall penetrate into those distant

I had witnessed, and pointed to the wilds. May that time soon arrive ! knot hole over my bed, not doubting I have been led into this disgression too literally, when she exclaimed that but there were one or two others in my by the fact that the Mahr Malka, one bed, if she could but look. of the four main arteries which supplied At that moment the head of a little Babylonia with the waters of the Euand that Jesus to her 'was de sweetest harmless reptile, with a white ring phrates, passed close to Khan-i-Za'ad, about his neck, again made free to take and is still traceable by a slight deobservation from the knot hole. As we pression. It should be remarked, that were joined by one and another of the the beds of navigable canals are below family, old Aunt Susa's laugh, which the level of the surrounding country, had commenced with the first cause of while those of the secondary or irrigamy fears, became perfectly obstreper- ting canals are above that level. This arises from the comparatively shallow ous.

Accompanied by young Massa Tom, 'Why, massa, dat no more'n a little depth of the latter, and rapid accumuand the campaign headed by Unc e bit ob a milk snake, an he no more lation of matter held in suspension by Billy, each with a rifle on the shoulder, bite dan a worm. Dey come back ob the water, which, on deposition, raises we were soon at the edge of the lake, de house here to de spring house to their channels each successive year .--or morass, to which reference has been steal my milk, an' I kills one ebery now Now and then the beds of canals in made. Following its low shore some and den, an' dey does climb up de cor- action at the present day are cleaned half a mile, my nerves were gradually ners ob de house, for I seen one dar out, and the deposit, forming embankschooled to the test to which they were toder day, an' struck it wid my broom. ments at the sides, prevents the flooding to be subjected by frequently meeting I suppose de log hollow, an' he creep of the cultivated land. with his snakeship, that lite: ally swarm in dar. But if it were full ob such Between Khan-i-Za'ad and the little snakes dar be no danger, dat sartin.' village of Mohawil there is nothing to Taking it thus coolly, and with such interest the traveler, but soon after provoking sympathy for my fears, Aunt passing the date trees and modern ca-Susa retired to complete her breakfast, nal of the latter place, a small mound when, as she retired, I sent this rebuke affords from its summit the first glimpse of the ruins of Babylon. Truly said after her : said I, 'Aunt Susa, I hope that snake will the prophet concerning her, 'Babylon get into your bed to night, to see how shall become heaps, an astonishment, easily you will be frightened,' when re- and a hissing, without an inhabitant.' membering my lecture in the morning, Unsightly mounds alone remain of that

The Influence of Wealth.

nies and partook in the festivities, thus acknowledging the supremacy of wealth

At the recent marriage in the Roth | it for beneficent purposes, without afschilds family of England, the nobles fecting airs of superiority .- Baltimore of the land, Dukes and Duchesses, Clipper. Lords and ladies, attended the ceremo-

when they find a Peabody abounding in wealth, honestly acquired, and using

ADVOCATE.

From the Central Presbyterian. "Uncle Meekins."

over hereditary title. It was a splendid pageant, as well it might be, when The Presbyterian Church, in Raleigh those concerned in it could boast of was this evening the scene of a most their millions of pounds sterling, and impressive spectacle, in the funeral sertheir influence, by means of their mon- vices of 'Uncle Meekins' its colored ey, over all the crowned heads of Eu- sexton, for nearly thirty years, and to rope. The Rothschilds are the richest whom the text, "the hoary head is a family in the world, though the origin crown of glory if it be found in the of the family was in very humble cir- way of righteousness" was especially cumstances and of obscure lineage. applicable. How forcibly did it appear,

We have no respect for mere success while the procession composed of five fal brokerage, unaccompanied with or six hundred persons, wound its honorable traits of character; but in length through street after street, that the case of the Rothschilds, it is said 'a good name was rather to be chosen that honorable dealing has character- than great riches, and loving favor rathized the family, from the original found- er than silver and gold.' His character er to the present generation; and we for moral worth, through a long life, know not why they should not be con- was as well known as the features of sidered the equals of the Dukes and his face, as was fully evinced by the Lords of the realm. They have risen general sorrow at his death. He was to opulence by their own sagacity, en regarded and treated with the highest ergy and enterprise-and deserve credit respect and confidence, which invariafor having arrived at their present bly attend the proper discharge of condition. In the United States, they duty, in the humblest as in the most would be equally, or perhaps, more exalted. To the faithfulness with which idolized, than in England, by the would he discharged his domestic duties, let be aristocracy-for here, the money her testify who sustained to him the power is more worshipped. The first honored relation of wife for nearly thirsociety here is not distinguished so ty years. Many to whom his form had much for worth as for money. To get been familiar from childhood, who had money-to accumulate wealth-is the associated him with dear ones, now first consideration—and, if that be at-tained, the individual takes rank with sorrow when this link with the past was the aristocracy of the land, whatever broken. From his official position he may have been his former character- had long heard the words of eternal and the youthful offshoots of the family life, but the golden drops, like the are looked upon as excellent matches, miser's hoard, had apparently been unhowever inferior they may be to others used, until a severe family affliction of less wealth. This is an error which caused this unexpected treasure to yield judicious parents will correct, prefering a gracious return. On the spot where merit to dollars and cents.

In England they have an established deposited, a few weeks ago he bowed his

A Week's Work.

SUNDAY-church doors enter in, Rest from toil, repent from sin ; Strive a heavenly rest to win-

MONDAY-to your calling go ; Serve the Lord ; love friend and foe ; To the tempter answer, No.

TUESDAY-do what good you can , ${\bf Liy}_{0}$ in peace with God and mun ; Remember, life is but a span.

WEDNESDAY-build your house upon Corist the mighty Corner stone : Whom God helps his work is done.

FRIDAY -for the truth be strong : O vn your faults, if in the wrong ; Put a bridle on your tongue.

SATURDAY-thank Gol and sing. Tribute to his treasury bring. Be prepared for Terror's king.

Thus your hope of Jesus cast : Thus let all your weeks he past ; And you shall be saved at last.

For the Children.

A Child's Realization of Trials.

L'ittle Myra McFerrin's mu diel when she was a few days o d, and she was thereafter the special charge of her gran I a other, till three years of I. Grand as to her was all the world; she was her mugel, heridal, her refugi in all her sorrows, har somehine in all her joys. Not long ago her grandmother was very ill, and Myra was removed to a neighbor's house. At length she was brought home, when she instantly ran erying, "Grandma! I want my Grandmal" She was led to the parlor where the pale corpse was lying "Y mr grande ma is dead," said her pt. " Wake her up, she is asleep; she will get up by-an l-by. She was led away reluctantly, but fally confilent she would see her sweet mother again, and hear her speak. She could not understand why she was being dre-sed for a funeral occasion; and after the corpse had been confined, and the company gathered, she stole from her pi and ran to wake her grandmother. She stood a moment at the parlor door, and called softly, "Grandma! Grandma! O, I want my grandma-my grandma !"-de-p silence was her only response. Then, as if pierced with an arrow, she suddenly fell to the floor, and her plaintive, desolate moin told that now, for the first time, she glimpsed the meaning of the word death, and loss of a mother. It is, however, mounfully pleasant to remember that with such knowledge comes the thought of immortality .--The Christian child whose mother is dead, ever thinks of heaven and guardian angels, and sees that mother continually, rest to the preacher were generally already referred to, they seem to be found necessary following such an effort. Tuesday morning had arrived, my weariness was relieved, and I was prepar- shall in a moment detail. The bite of ed to join 'Uncle Billy on an adven- this reptile is deadly, quite as much so ture into the swamp to see its 'lions,' and especially its snakes.

It is yet early in the morning, however, and the cold rain of a few nights formation I should have felt quite as since, renders it necessary that we wait well not to have received, as I had been until the hot hours of the forenoon. I enjoying at brother J's, the luxury of will seek a brief interview with Aunt some well smoked side bacon, along Susa in her little cabin.

'Good morning Aunt Susa,' said I, as I stepped into her quarters.

At the next meal I felt my preference for venison to very much predom-'Why, good mornin', Massa Watson; inate. We soon arrived at Billy's laws o' marcy, dis no place for the canoe, and in the centre of the rocking

CHRISTIA

L axed him, says I,

heap about reading.

ed to sing,

'Well,' says he, 'Aunt Sue, if you'll run my bullets for me this mornin', I'll come in here to night, an' show you a

Here I paused to simplify the theology of this blessed passage, which I feared the simple saint had understood

she 'had often kind ob thought dat !'

name under de sun :' and that she lov

A stave of which, with dampened eyes

she had already struck up, when Uncle

Billy's arrival announced all things in in some parts of these morasses. It is not the ordinary water snake, but a lazy, sluggish, and arrcw mouthed, pois-nous reptile, called by the swampers

He executes his bite but clumsily, congregating for winter quarters, which may account somewhat for what we

as that of the rattle-snake or copperhead. I am informed that swine very readily devour them, which item of in-

with some krout and corn dodger.

readiness for our tour in the swamp.

· esus my all to heaven is gone."

you.

likes o' you. thing I was seated, with Uncle Billy 'Why,' said I, 'Aunt Susa, have you and Massa Tom at either end. Two some places here too good for me ?' and paddles soon sent us some distance out saying this, I advanced toward a little into the muddy and shallow waters, and mantle shelf, and seized Susa's pipe, amid the huge trunks of fallen trees together with some nice tobacco leaves and comical tussocks which constitutes of her own raising, and was preparing the musk rat's home. Snake after to regale myself a little, when she flew snake soon began to make its appear towards me exclaiming :

Massa, you no shall smoke wid dat inch of surface. On a single log I pipe; it no go in your mouf after hav-in been in dis child's dirty mouf, dat ten feet from them. I shuddered, and sartin. Here be a new pipe, an' a mighty good un, too; an' like to the assuming attitudes of defence, while colt, de foal of an ass, we read ob, Uncle Billy shook his burly sides in massa, which no one never ride afore, impertinent laughter, and Massa Tom no one has eber smoked in it.' And amused himself by seeing how many here she commenced filling it up as I decapitations he could make by a given threw myself into the rude resemblance number of shots. On we paddled, and of a chair. more numerous became the snakes .----

"Susa,' said I. 'where did you learn Occasionally they splashed about the to quote scripture ?' side of our bobbing nautilus; and now

Why, massa, blessed be your lips, I learn much from de preachers; but dar, massa, look, dar, by the side ob you !' When turning round, my delighted eyes rested upon a well-soiled, wellthumbed, old fashioned Bible, that had recently received an additional covering uncle Billy paddled us further and of buck-skin.

'Susa,' said I, 'where did you get this?

'I brings it from old Tennessee,' said she, 'twenty years ago;' saying which she handed me the new pipe, on the top of which she had balanced a eoal from the hearth.

Inhaling a whiff or two, said I : 'Susa, can you read ?'

'Yes, massa, blessed be God, I reads mighty well for the likes ob me ; do de hard words are a great bother-some of which I skips; but I read dat Bible

tion, kase if I tell you I fear you won't with rattle-snakes, etc. I said little heaps of brick and rubbish which over- patriot. It brings shame, not honor; as it procures the comforts and conver away or withered every vestige of earthspread the surface of the plain. In- terror, not safety; despair ; not hope more than to remark 'that it was a niences of life ; but something more is | ly comfort from about you. Now hear believe me, nohow.' "Why, yes,' said I, 'I will believe mighty snake country there,' at which Uncle Billy laughed. I spent the rest stead of the luxuriant fields, the groves misery, not happiness. And now, with and gardens, nothing now meets the eye the malevolence of a fiend, it calmly 'Well, den. I tell you, it was de ani of the day in reading the Bible. you. but an arid waste-the dense popula- surveys its desolations and insatiate rather be amongst the poorest of the coming prudence, and you will not be gels. I no know how to read, an' I But with me, as with Aunt Susan. tion of former times is vanished, and no with havoc, it poisons felicity ; kills poor, with a fair reputation, than to be likely to fail .- Bishop Andrew. lays an' cries, an' prays about it ob the subject of 'sarpints' became rather man dwells there. Instead of the hum peace; ruins morals; blights confidence; expelled from the councils of the nation Beware of many voices, silence reigns profound, slays reputation ; and wipes out nationnights ; I den goes to sleep an' dreams obtrusive. for corrupt practices to procure wealth. ALL THE DIFFERENCE .- A quibbling about it, an' most ebery night for a But if my waking thoughts were of except when a few passing travelers or al honor; then curses the world; and Humble mediocrity, with a clear con-A little theft, a small deceit, writer of the last century quaintly obyear I prays an' cries, and takes up my snakes, my dreaming ones greatly ex-Too often leads to more; sition of Rotschild, if his elevation has serves, that when the cannons of the science, is far to be preferred to the poroving Arabs flit across the scene. ______ smiles at its ruins. Bible, when one night it seems as if an aggerated the whole matter. My sleep princes began to war, the cannons of As through an open door. angel come down, an' I don't know was as much interrupted as if it had the hand of man been made the instru- FALSE REPORT .-- The Western Democrat been procurred by fraud or corruption. In the United States there should be the church were destroyed. ment by which God has effected his contradicts the report so industriously circuwhether I 'wake or sleep, I sees all de been the doomed Medusa. The want Just as the broadest rivers run, punishment. But for the curse upon it, there is no physical reason why it should not be as bountiful and thickly 'It was,' says he, 'first mitrum that letters in de book, an' it say to me, of sleep steadied my nerves by morning no aping the nobility of Europe-no efforts to mount upon stilts, for fear of a fall-though every one must rejoin first St. Peter, and then Saltpetre.' 'Dis be a, an' dat b, an dat c, and so so that sweet sleep, oblivions, triumphed on; an' arter a little while I gits up for a refreshing season, a fall--though every one must rejoice

she wittily retorted : magnificence which Scripture so fre-

'Preachers dat come into dese woods quently dilates upon, and which the to bruise de head ob dat old sarpint, de pages of Herodotus so carefully desdebbil, mustn't be frightened into a fit cribe. Who can recognize in those at de sight ob a milk snake.' shapeless piles, exposed to the ravages There was much more in Aunt Susa's of time and the destructive hand of man retort than she herself comprehended. during twenty centuries, any of its for-It was fruitfully suggestive. Yes, mer grandeur ?- Traveler. thought I, the missionary of these woods must not be men of starch and Graphic Delineation of the Miseries and buckram, of taper fingers and tender Effects of Intemperance. stomach, kid gloves and broadcloth,

The following is the most graphic develvet slippers and spotless linen. Here, the stalwart arm, the brawny lineation of the misories and effects of fist, the hunting shirt, with Bible and intemperance that we have ever seendiscipline under one arm, and rifle on it is from arguments advanced by certhe other, are the best representatives tain citizens of Portage county. Ohio, of the Missionary. Like John in the in a memorial to the Legislature on the wilderness, he must wear what the peo- subject :

ple wear, and eat what the people eat, And yet its march of ruin is onward and ask no questions. Yes Aunt Susan still !

he must not be afraid of snakes. If It reaches abroad to others -- invades gifted in the tack of his holy calling, the family and social circle-and his education and refinement will only spreads wee and sorrow all around. It aid him to adapt himself to these rude | cuts down youth in its vigor-manhood paths of life, and cause him to be a in its strength-and age in its weakguide, light, and example upon them ness. It breaks the father's heart-

But if wanting in this tact, his timid bereaves the doing mother-extinguishity, and, in some respects, his manifes- es natural affection-erases conjugal ted superiority, will not be appreciated. affection-blots out filial attachment-What would be natural in other latitudes blights parental hope-brings down would here be prudery. What would mourning age in sorrow to the grave. be becoming in another place, would It produces weakness, not strength ; here be ridiculous; and more than one sickness, not health ; death, not life .--would exclaim, with Aunt Susan, It makes wives widows-children or-Preachers dat come into dese woods phans-fathers fiends-and all of them to bruise de head of dat old sarpint, de paupers and beggars. It hails feversdeble, must not be frightened into a fit feeds rheumatisms-nurses gout-welcomes epidemics-invites cholera-imat the sight ob a milk snake.' parts pestilence and embraces consumption. It covers the land with idleness, The Ruins of Babylon.

poverty, disease and crime. It fills In former days the vast plains of your juils-supplies your alms houses Babylonia were nourished by a com- _____and demands your asylums. It enplicated system of canals and watergenders controversies-fosters quarrels courses, which spread over the surface and cherishes riots. It condemns of the country like net work. The law-spurns order-and loves mobs .wants of a teeming population were It crowds your Penitentiaries; and fursupplied by a rich soil, not less bounti- nishes victims for your scaffolds. It is ful than that on the banks of the the life blood of the gambler; the ali-Egyptian Nile. Like islands rising ment of the counterfeiter; the prop of from a golden sea of waving corn, the highwayman, and the support of stood frequent groves of palms and plea- the midnight incendiary.

sant gardens, affording to the idler or It countenances the liar; respects the traveler their grateful and highly the thief, and esteems the blasphemer. valued shade. Crowds of passengers It violates obligations ; reverences hurried along the dusty roads to and frauds; and honors infamy. It defames from the busy city. The land was benevolence hates love; scorns virtue ; rich in corn and wine. How changed and slanders innocence. It incites the smaller offshoots are wholly effaced .-- defiles the jury box ; and stains the juour home. 'No; he says he too old to larn, ries with it nothing of worth or inherent discreet, affectionate, and firm in gov-With Tom and Uncle Billy the sight 'A drought is upon her waters,' says dicial ermine. It bribes votes ; disnow, but he set here ob nights, and lislittle child said timidly : tens mighty close to what I reads. He was common place. Upon my mind it respectability, however it may be cour- erning her children ; in short, who will the prophet, 'and they shall be dried qualifies voters; corrupts elections; thinks it be enough for I to know how had a far different effect. It was the ted by a venal crowd, who attach more love you for your own sake, be happy up.' All that remains of that ancient pollutes our institutions; and endanimportance to the title of a millionaire with you in a cabin, and who will cleave civilization-that 'glory of kingdoms,' gers our government. It degrades the reality of more than I had ever read or to read.' than they do talent, virtue and integri- the closer to you when the storm of addreamed about horrible dens of serpents, 'the praise of the whole earth'-is re- citizen ; debases the legislator ; dishon-'Who learned you to read, Susa.' 'Well, now, dat be's a funny ques- whole regions now and then strewed cognizable in the numerous moldering ors the statesman; and disarms the ty. Money is useful and to be desired, versity or persecution shall have swept nobility, which descends from father to head to receive the baptismal water, son. They pride themselves on their and united for the first, and last time descent, and are fond of tracing back with God's people in the sacramental their genealogy-and yet this proud supper. His peace flowed as a riveraristocracy yielded its pre-eminence to the name of Jesus was very precious to the influence of wealth. The lordly of him, and he sat under his shadow with the land were proud to associate with great delight. No cloud obscured his the descendants of the money king, and setting sun, but sinking in a clear sky, take those by the hand whom their gave promise of a glorious rising. At forefathers spurned with contempt, and the grave's mouth all distinctions cease. persecuted with ignorant and vindictive For he that is called in the Lord, bemalice. The 'despised Jew' has been ing a servant, is the Lord's freeman ; elevated into the esteemed and courted likewise also he that is called, being Israelite, by the potent influence of free, is Christ's servant.' 'They also money. It is well that even mony can serve who only stand and wait."

remove the injustice which has heretofore been practiced towards the followers of Moses, who are entitled to the same consideration as the rest of mankind. In the United States the distinction is not between the Jew and the

It is no uncommon thing for men to Gentile: but between the rich and the flatter themselves that God cannot be poor. What is significantly termed the displeased with them because they have 'cod-fish aristocracy' seems to be the omitted to do a great many bad deeds, governing power, although they are which they would have done had they compelled to solicit the assistance, not been restrained by the fear of the sometimes, of the most worthless portion law or of public opinion. The soundof the community. They cannot stand ness of such morality is very well exfirm in their assumed preeminence; for hibited in Lessing's parable of 'The success in trade adds to their number, wolf on his death-bed. and diminishes their exclusiveness; 'A wolf lay at his last gasp, and was whilst occasional reverses sometimes reviewing his past life. 'It is true,' place them at the foot of the ladder. said he, 'I am a sinner, but yet I hope The English and New York papers are full of details in relation to the not one of the greatest. I have done marriage in the Rotschild family; whilst evil, but I have also done much good. the latter also fill their columns with Once, I remember, a bleating lamb that had strayed from the flock came the marriage of Dean, the Irish coachman, to the daughter of a N. York so near me, that I might easily have throttled it; but I did it no harm.' millionaire. These things serve to "I can testify to all that,' said his amuse, and, perhaps to instruct. We are not the advocates of ill-sorted and friend, the fox, who was helping him to unequal matches; but they serve the prepare for death. 'I remember perpurpose of restraining the too preva- fectly all the circumstances. It was lent opinion, that money should control just at the time when you were so dread-the natural affections. Some descend- fully choked with that bone in your ant of Dean may yet be President of throat." the United States, or lead all uppertendom at his heels. Stranger things have occurred. Or, should Dean be so successful as to obtain a fortune, he may "I would not [said one who was not turn on his heel to those who now affect himself pious] marry any one who was disgust at his presumption, although not a Christian. I should feel it such they were employed but a few years an honor to share a heart in which God ago in currying down horses, and dwelt." It was a fine thought, and in forking up the manure of the deserves to be specially remembered. stables which they kept. Of all You want a friend in whom you can pride that of wealth is the most con- have entire and unlimited confidence; temptible, though it is the most preva- one who can be your counsellor in all circumstances of difficulty or trial : one lent.

is the aspect of that region at the pres- father to butcher his offspring ; helps We like to see a man rise by honest who is to be identified with you through the furthest of which was not fifty feet ent day ! Long lines of mounds, it is the husband to massacre his wife ; and dare a mighty heap ; read it from the industry, prudence and economy from life, in hope and fear, in joy and sorfrom me. When thoroughly satisfied true, mark the courses of those main aids the child to grind the parricidal apostle Solomon all de way to the apostle Solomon all de way to the prophet Saul; but reads de most in dat 'de way he would show me snakes was poverty to wealth-from obscurity to row. She is to be a sort of presiding arteries which formerly diffused life and axe. It burns up man ; consumes wodistinction. There is something which divinity at thy family board, and her vegetation along their banks, but their man; detests life; curses God, and despart where Jesus be on de earth, it bechannels are now bereft of moisture pises Heaven. gratifies us in the self-made statesman countenance the mirror in which must a caution, dat sartin,' was no exaggeraing the most easy. tion, we returned to the shore, and to or philosopher-but the bare possession be reflected the faithful image of thy and choked with drifted sand; the It suborns witnesses; nurses perjury; 'Can Uncle Billy read ?' I asked. of wealth confers no dignity, and car- domestic bliss or woe; one who will be

" With her deep and tender eyes, Like the stars, so still and saintlike, Looking downward from the skies.' Nash. C. Adv

A Little Boy's Prayer.

J. P. A.

Sunday, March 8th, 1857.

Self-Righteous.

A Fine Thought.

A little boy after saying nightly the prayers which had been taught him, was quite tenneious of what he called praying his own way He had a large number of brothers and sisters, whose needs and pecultarities he sometimes made the subject of his petitions. On one occasion, at commencing this exercise he was overcome with sleep. Wrestling with this stupor, he said :

"On, Lord, bless Elizabeth and make her better than she is.'

His head fell back on his pillow, but soon rousing, he murmured, drowsily, "Biess Henry too" It was in vain ; the tongue rolused its office-so he added, indistinctly,

"Oh, Lord, I can't, there's too many of 'em," and he sauk into the deep slumber of childhood.

At another time, while conducting this exercise in a somewhat more wakeful manner, he said :

"Lord, please to bless father and give him a new heart. Be so kind as to bless sister Mary, and give her a new heart .--Oh, Lord, bless mother-but you used not give her a new heart, for she could not have any better one than she's got, and 1 don't see how she'd go to work to be any better woman than she is now.'

Doing Good to Others.

.....

Here is a pretty story of a little girl. Perhaps you have read it before, but it will do you good to read it again :

'A mother who was in the habit of asking her children, before they retired at night, what they had done during the day to make others happy, found a young twin-daughter silent. The elder one spoke modestly of deeds and dispositions, founded on the golden rule, Do unto others as you would they should do unto you.' Still the little bright face was bowed in silence. The question was repeated, and the dear

"A little girl who sat by me on the bench at school had lost a baby brother. All the time she studied her lesson she hid her face in her book and cried. I felt so sorry that I laid my face on the same book, and cried with her. Then required to confer happiness in this life, or in that which is to come. We had your prayers and the exercise of a be-wour prayers and the exercise of a besaid I had done her so much good." 'Tis hard at first, but tempts the feet From small and distant springs, The greatest crimes that men have done, Have grown from little things.

pleaded, hallooed, but could procure no retreat. Tom went on with his snake shooting: further into this pademonium, when the horrible idea took possession of my mind that should we tip over, (an event by no means improbable,) what position could be conceived of more horrible as we passed under the low limb of a tree, Billy would knock them off with than thus to be tumbled into the very jaws of a thousand detestable reptiles, amid mud and quicksands! From entreating I became peremptory, and Uncle Billy paused. When at a safe distance from the detestable 'varmints' we counted all that were visible, I counted one hundred and fifty snakes.

13

his paddle in the canoe. I remonstrated,