TOWN AND COUNTY.

HURRYGRAPHS.

A soft blow--a gentle breeze.

Mrs. S. A. Elliott is quite sick.

Yesterday was observed here as a holiday by some.

Chip hats of a French pattern will be worn this spring.

Mr. McGuire and family of Battleboro, are visiting our townsman, Mr. Bayant.

Seeing is not believing. There are a great many men you can see, and yet not believe.

Though the health of our town is generally good, there is a great deal of sickness hereabouts just at present.

The investigating committee have begun their work and will be heard from through these columns in due time.

There is a purple half to the grape, a mellow half to the peach, a sunny half to the globe, and a better half to man.

We still urge upon our friends to send us items of news. We want to keep the people posted. The CLARION is far from what we wish it as a news chronicler.

The boys in gray seemed to enjoy their holiday playing base ball out on the green.

The colored Radical orator and politician, Jordan Potter, Esq., was in the village last evening, and discoursed to about two dozen of his "cullud friends" from the court house steps.

The ladies of St. Stephens' Aid Society presented their minister's wife with a very handsome quilt as an Easter present. It was indeed beautiful, and they deserve a great deal of credit as it was the work of their own hands. Our Junior made one square.

WHIT SUNDAY.—We were asked last Sunday why the Episcopalians celebrate Whitsuntide. It is known as Whit or White Sunday by that denomination, and they celebrate it as the day when the Apostles received the Holy Ghost, which descended in the shape of cloven tongues, like as of fire, and rested upon them. For further particulars see 2nd chapter of The Acts of The Apostles.

A NUISANCE.—We would respectfully, gently and tenderly, call our town Constables attention to that disorderly crowd of negro boys who make it a habit to play and yell from early Sunday morning until late in the evening, near the Court House. They disturb the community at large, they disturb ladies as they are on their way to Church, and to sum the whole, they are nuisance. Cannot a stop be put to it.

[COMMUNICATED.]

EDITORS CLARION.—You will confer a favor upon the writer if you will tell him if it is proper for a lady to speak to a gentlemen first when they meet on the street.

CURIOUS.

We do not know that we are well enough versed in the rules of etiquette of the present day, as it has been so slashed up, to answer the above, but will try. When a lady has been introduced to a gentleman the first time they meet afterwards, it is the duty of the lady to speak first, after that it is the gentlemen's. It is descretionary with the ladies whether they will acknowledge a ballroom or store acquaintance. It is sometimes done. If we are not correct in the above, we would be glad if some one would enlighten us upon this subject.

KILLED.—We learn that a mad-dog was killed in town on Sunday morning. These animals are dangerous at all times, and it would be a good thing if all the worthless curs in the place were put out of the way. Our worthy town Constable Mr. Crabtree, has sworn vengeance against all the canine breed that look the least "cross-eyed," in the future. We hope to hear the sharp report of his fusee soon.

GOOD.—We heard a gentleman talking about that great subject of Jonah and the whale Sunday, and he wound up and run down by saying, that the whale that swallowed Joah had a much larger heart than the man who put that fence around the Court House and charged two thousand dollars for it, as the whale housed him three days and three nights, and then landed him safe on dry land and did not charge him a cent. "Go for 'em Rattler"

The Toisnot Methodist Church has a swarm of bees hived in the plastering of the wall.

We are proud to state that our little is paper meeting with success a broad. Send 'em in, friends.
