TOWN AND COUNTY.

HURRYGRAPHS.

Charlie Paschall is quite sick.

Farmers are busy with their farm work, consequently but few attend court.

Sol Cooper was thrown from a horse last Saturday evening. Sol wasn't hurt much.

The election yesterday resulted in electing J. B. Crews Mayor, with the same Board of town Commissioners.

At Buena Vista the cry went up—"a little more grape Capt. B."

Another Braxton has poured hot shot right into C. B. C.

The Rev. J. R. Griffith occupied the Methodist pulpit last Sabbath, both morning and night; preaching two excellent sermons.

The Fire Company was out yesterday evening.

The people mourn because of the state of things, Brought about by the bold conspiracy of rings.

The colored Sunday Schools in and around this place held a meeting in the colored church last Sunday.

Orange county Grangers talk of having a county Fair next Fall, What do the Granville Grangers say to having one too? No doubt it would do much good.

Folks will marry. 13 marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds in this county during the month of April. Two to white and eleven to colored persons.

The funeral of Mrs. Jas T. Hurt was preached in the Baptist church last Sunday evening, by the Rev. Mr. Marsh. A large number of relatives and friends attending.

"Button parties" are quite popular in the West. We do not know from whence they derive their name, unless it is because they are always sure to come off.

The Torchlight of this morning likened C. B. C's circular to a game of cards. Well, it does look like there is a "good deal" of "tricks" about it. Wonder if he won't "see it and go one better."

We saw a young man go to sleep in Church Sunday night. We cannot conceive how any man can allow himself to be wrapped in the arms of Morpheus, with a pretty girl sitting by him. It looks as though he had no taste for beauty. Come old boy, redeem your reputation, ere it is too late.

It is rumored that a Republican paper will be started here about the opening of the campaign. How much truth there is in the rumor we do not know—and do not care.

He got a friend to do the thing,

The thing was done in a hurry:

It hit the man that made the fling

And failed to cause a flurry.

Je, ho!

Je, ho!

As soon as the novelty wears off, a man never wakes a baby up for the purpose of making it laugh.—Woodson in Wilson Advance.

What do you know about it, Woodson? Rock the cradle, Eddie.

DIED.—We are pained to chronicle, the death of Capt. Jno. Morrisson, of Petersburg, Va., who died at his residence near Walnut Grove, on Friday last, in the 64th year of his age. He was well known in the tobacco trade of Granville county.

BRIC-A-BRAC.—There was an old nigger

And his name was Uncle Brac,

And he lived long ago, long ago.

They thought he was a fool.

And could use him as a tool.

But Brack couldnt see the thing so.

NEW GOODS.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Chas. A. Taylor, which appears in another column. Charlie has everything in his line that is good, and will sell his goods as cheap as you can buy anywhere in town, and then they are fresh, having been on hand only a few days. When you want fresh confectionaries, canned fruits, &c., call on Charlie at the Post Office store.
