

THE MORNING CLARION.

Democratic at all times.

MONDAY - - - MAY 3, 1876.

THE PEABODY FUND.

We have waited long in the hope that Col. Pool would clear himself of the charge of using the Peabody fund. But it seems, from a correspondence between Gov. Brogden and Dr. Sears, we cannot doubt but that he has misapplied a portion of the fund entrusted to him for distribution. He used it we suppose in his private business with the intention of replacing it, but in this he did a wrong which we are forced to condemn. We do not desire to apologize for his delinquencies, for the CLARION will condemn all such be they Democrats or Republicans.

Many letters have been received at the Treasury containing money to be exchanged for silver. It is not generally known that silver will be given only for fractional currency, not for legal-tenders or National Bank notes.

The ladies of Wilmington and Charlotte are moving earnestly in preparation for the due observance of Memorial day. What are the ladies of Oxford going to do about this thing?

Our State Geologist, Prof. W. C. Kerr, has been appointed orator on the part of North Carolina at the Centennial. A good appointment.

Doesn't it make your mouth water. Charleston, S. C., is now shipping North over 1,000 quarts of strawberries daily.

Several Chicago bells will carry specimens of their painting to the centennial—on their capacious cheeks.

We extend our hearty congratulations to our worthy contemporary the Rocky Mount Mail on its fourth anniversary.

Stop singing "Silver threads among the gold," it is 'silver dollars in your pocket.'

Pretty cool. The mountains in the West were covered with snow last week.

Judge Reed is the probable Republican nominee for Governor.

Bristol is the "coming man" of the Republicans.

New Mexico is to be admitted into the Union under the name of "Montezuma." A more appropriate name, considering the prevailing weakness of the inhabitants, would be "Three card-montezuma."—Chicago Times.
