Democratic Conservative Meeting.

The Democratic Conservative voters of Granville are requested to meet in mass convention, at Oxford, Monday May 29th, to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional district Convention, to be held in Raleigh the 13th and 14th days of June next, and to transact such business as may be deemed necessary.

By order of Co. Ex: Committee.

J. S. AMIS, Ch'm.

April 20th 1875.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Convention of the Democratic-Conservative voters of the Fourth Congressional District will be held in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential Elector, and selecting two delegates to the St. Louis Convention. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty given for Merrimon in 1872.

By order of the District Executive Com.

H. A. LONDON, JR., Chairman.

March 31st. 1876.

To jaw a man that won't jaw back is like kicking at nothing.

Corn meal at 80 cents per bushel. COOPER & WILLIAMS.

If the girls want to pull 'em back all the men in the land can't stop 'em

The man is a fool, who will try to do as his neighbor does, if he cannot afford it.

C. B. C. No longer do these caps stand for Charles B. Cole, one of Granville's unworthy county Commissioners, but represent Commissioner Brough into Court

Young ladies with fair fresh faces will wear their hats more tilting on the back of their heads than ever. Matrons who cannot conceive they are not as young, and fair as ever, will do likewise.

C. B. C. These words stand for an inquiry In view of the free entertainment at the Poor House for man and beast and the Court House affair with the forged certificates, the question may be pertinently asked—Can't the guilty fellows Be brought into Court?

MALT-HOP-TONIQUE—For Dyspepsia. Recommended as an improvement on Ale and Porter for general debility.

NOTICE.—The young men that are desirous of joining the Oxford Minstrel Troup, are requested to assemble at the CLARION office at eight o'clock Saturday night, for the purpose of organizing and electing officers. Six men will constitute a troop.

DIED.—At the residence of her mother, Mrs. Nancy Harrison, about seven miles east of this place, on Monday the 1st inst. Miss Mary Harrison, in the 25th year of her age. She had been for many years confined to her bed from severe affliction which she bore with great christian fortitude and resignation. Her funeral sermon will be preached at 1 o'clock to-day by L. K. Willy, of this place.

HUMANE.—We saw a gentleman in town do a humane act, a few days ago, and as it is a thing we so seldom see nowadays, we cannot let it pass unnoticed. He saw a poor dog that was so devoid of flesh he was comparatively a skeleton, leaning against a post for support as it were. He said "poor fellow, I expect you are hungry," and he marched off and brought him a big piece of meat. That is what we call humane and we have no doubt he will receive his reward in due time.
