Democratic Conservative Meeting.

The Democratic Conservative voters of Granville are requested to meet in mass convention, at Oxford, Monday May 29th, to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional district Convention, to be held in Raleigh the 13th and 14th days of June next, and to transact such business as may be deemed necessary.

By order of Co. Ex: Committee.

J. S. AMIS, Ch'm.

April 20th 1875.

DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Convention of the Democratic-Conservative voters of the Fourth Congressional District will be held in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential Elector, and selecting two delegates to the St. Louis Convention. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty given for Merrimon in 1872.

By order of the District Executive Com.

H. A. LONDON, JR., Chairman.

March 31st. 1876.

HURRYGRAPHS.

Bumblebees have put in their buz-zes.

Tell you what let's do. Let's go a-fishing

Come South, young man, and grow up with the country.

Subscribers must look out for the cross mark on their papers.

Every Democrat in the country should subscribe for the CLARION.

Mr. Cozart has greatly improved the appearance of his place with new palings.

A large lot of N. C. Bacon, Hams and Sides just received at [201W] WILLIAMS & BRYAN'S.

The Sunny South, we suppose, has "gone by the board," as only one copy has been received at this office.

The carcass of a deceased canine was found yesterday morning on Main street, in front of the Court House.

Lewis Woodley, from Tally Ho township, was placed in the Oxford jail last Wednesday night, charged with being engaged in an affray.

Corn meal at 80 cents per bushel.

COOPER & WILLIAMS.

The trees on the side walks have put out beautifully and all nature seems now to be smiling with loveliness. Hope she's not smiling at her pull-back.

A train of six wagons passed through town yesterday. Carrying their tobacco to Henderson, when they can get just as good prices on the Oxford market.

MALT-HOP-TONIQUE—For Dyspepsia. Recommended as an improvement on Ale and Porter for general debility.

DIED.—The wife of Mr. Robt] Royster, living in Cantown, died yesterday with pneumonia.

MARRIED—At Aspen Lawn, Mecklenburg county, Va., May 3d, by Rev. T. M. Beckham, Rev. S. V. Hoyle, of the N. C. Conference, and Miss Nannie J. Phillips, of the above named place.

The happy couple arrived in this place Wednesday evening, where were welcomed by a host of friends.

The CLARION extends its congratulations.

KILL THEM ALL.—We notice the dogs are becoming very troublesome in this place. There is about three to every man, not counting the wee poodles that almost every lady dotes on. The Judge had to suspend court yesterday until he sent out and had them driven away from in front of the court house, where they were fighting, howling, barking, &c. Now, it strikes us, it would be a good idea for the citizens to turn out in full force, and kill every last one of these sheep-killing (poodles excepted, as they are harmless) brutes. Give some of them a "pill" boys.

ENTERPRISING.—Messrs W. A. Davis & Co., the editors and proprietors of the Torchlight, will give away four $65 Weed Sewing Machines to the four persons who obtain for them the largest club of subscribers. 30 cash yearly subscribers will entitle the getter up of the club to a new $65 Weed Sewing Machine, warranted to be in perfect order. Go to work. Write for specimen copies of the paper. See your friends and in less than two weeks time you could possibly own one of these celebrated sewing machines. *
