THE MORNING CLARION.

Democratic at all times.

SATURDAY - - - MAY 6, 1876.

The Petersburg Index-Appeal sensibly observes that "the breath of life in the nostrils of the Radical party is sectional prejudice and hatred of the Southern people. When that inspiration and source of strength shall expire, we shall have a new country, a union, and a new destiny, from which all the dreary and dreadful past will be expunged, and on which will rest the sunshine of a happy and useful future."

We don't believe this Presidential canvass is to be run upon any narrow issues, says the Richmond Whig, but upon the broad principle that a change of men and parties is demanded by the exigencies of the times, and the change will be made. Nothing can stop the whirlwind once it is set in motion.

A writer (a Rad we'll bet) from this place to the Raleigh Era (Radical) says: "Count on Granville for eight hundred clever majority this summer." That is counting chickens before they are hatched. Democrats, you see the necessity of begining the work early—with a stout heart and determined will.

Col. Donan has taken editorial charge of the Danville News and our worthy cotemporary fairly sparkles from his able pen. We congratulate the News upon this valuable acquisition. As the Col. now has his engine on the track the hand-cars had better get out of the way.

Susan B. Anthony propounds the following conundrum: "United States citizenship—What is it?" Ah, Susan, you will have to give us an easier one.

Numerous suicides reported all over the country.
