RAILROAD TO OXFORD.

The agitation of the question of a Railroad from Henderson to Oxford, has been a favorite theme with editors and correspondents in this vicinity for sometime.

It is now believed that if the people of this town and surrounding neighborhood will do their full duty in subscribing in aid of building a road to connect with the Raleigh & Gaston road that the scheme can be easily consummated at an early day—say by the 1st of October.

Business men, farmers, mechanics, lawyers, doctors, in short everybody, agitate this question, stir up all with whom you may come in contact and do your own duty in contributing, and the road will soon be in close proximity to your doors. Old Oxford will arouse from her lethargy, business will revive in every department, Factories and Warehouses will sping up, laborers will find employment, money will circulate more freely and a thousand advantages will greet us and make us feel gratified at having done our duty to ourselves and our neighbors,

An exchange paper makes the following three predictions: First—Gov. R. B. Hayes of Ohio will be the Republican nominee for President at Cincinnati. Second—Gov. Samuel J. Tilden of New York will be the Democratic nominee for President at St. Louis. Third—Gov. Tilden will be elected in November.

Just listen at this now! At a recent election in Minneapolis, Minn., the ballot boxes were decorated with flowers in honor of the ladies who voted.

T. C. Evans has severed his connection with the Raleigh News as local editor.

It will be some time before we are familiar enough with silver money for the church going people to put a silver quarter in the place and forget there is no premium to come back to him,

The Sultan of Turkey says no man can be great whose eye-brows are not shaggy. Ain't we glad ours are inclined to be shaggy.

The campaign promises to be very exciting. It will pretty be hot about the last of October. Keep cool—and vote the Democratic ticket.

"Let no single man escape," is the leap year motto of the ladies. Escape what we would like to know.
