DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Convention of the Democratic-Conservative voters of the Fourth Congressional District will be held in the city of Raleigh on Tuesday the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress and a Presidential Elector, and selecting two delegates to the St. Louis Convention. A full attendance is earnestly desired. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty given for Merrimon in 1872.

By order of the District Executive Com.
H. A. LONDON, JR., Chairman.
March 31st, 1876.

PROSPECTUS OF THE
Granville Democrat,
PUBLISHED AT
Henderson, N. C.,
S. J. SKINNER, Editor.

JONES & HAWKINS, PUBLISHERS.
WE would respectfully announce to the public that the GRANVILLE DEMOCRAT, heretofore published at Oxford, has been moved to Henderson, where it will be issued on the same terms and will be devoted to the same objects as previously announced in its columns. Politically as its name indicates the Democrat will lend its aid and influence towards the furtherance of the interest of the great Democratic-Conservative party of the County. Its Literature will be such as to render it of interest to the farmer, and its agricultural department will render it both desirable and attractive to the farmer.

Democratic Conservative Meeting.

The Democratic Conservative voters of Granville are requested to meet in mass convention, at Oxford, Monday May 29th, to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional district Convention, to be held in Raleigh the 13th and 14th days of June next, and to transact such business as may be deemed necessary.

By order of Co. Ex: Committee.
J. S. AMIS, Ch'm.

HURRYGRAPHS.

Cucumbers are selling in Raleigh for 15 cents a piece.

Last end of all things—The wax-end, of course.

Yesterday was memorial day, but it was not observed here.

Corn meal at 80 cents per bushel.
COOPER & WILLIAMS.

We are glad to state that Charlie Paschall is well enough to walk about.

Eggs are eggs-ceedingly scarce in this market. They sell for a shilling a dozen.

"Be content with what you have," as the rat said to the trap when he left his tail in it.

A man who has a scolding wife may not always be a gardener, but usually keeps a hot house.

May seemed to be in rather a bad humor yesterday. We can't tell which we admired most her smiles or her tears.

The Swepson case has been moved from Orange county to Wake, and will appear at the Spring term of the Superior court for that county.

MALT-HOP-TONIQUE—For Dyspepsia. Recommended as an improvement on Ale and Porter for general debility.

Revs. R. H. Marsh, J. A. Stradley, F. R. Underwood, left yesterday morning to attend the Baptist Convention which assembles in Richmond, Va.

Don't put too much confidence in these sunny days, for though they seem as harmless as the little lamb of the household, pneumonia is lurking around. Hold fast to your overcoats.

A very pretty Sunday-school song is the one entitled, "Put your arm around me, boys." We know a young lady who doesn't like to hear it. She says it sounds like "Put your arm around me, boys." Her objection was evidently to the plural—"boys."

We heard a lady of color reprimand her son, on Sunday last, as follows;

"Now, John Henry Josephus Augustus Lincoln Grant, you jes' cum an' put on your shoes dis minit. De idea of you bein' out doors, barefoot, on de Lord's day! Why, folk' will think you's Irish."

We understand she had been baptised the Sunday before.

There is an elderly man in this town who growls continually about the quantity of reading matter the CLARION contains, and was also heard to say that he would not give a cent for dozen copies. Now we would like to know, if it is so worthless, why it is he goes to a certain store in town to read it? If there is anything we do dislike it is to hear a man run a newspaper down, and then deliberately borrow it from another man to read. It is comtempible to say the lest of it.

MARRIED.—Our townsman, Mr. Henry Bryan, was last Tuesday united in matrimony to Miss Ellen D. Cooper, at her residence near this place. Rev. D. E. Jordan officiating. The CLARION wishes them a long and happy life.
