VOLUME XV.

OXFORD, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, JULY 27, 1887.

A Patthiul Horse,

Youth's Companion.

with a raging fever.

NUMBER 5.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate Sold only in cans. ROYAL BAK- And when he gazed upon gra ING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., N.

W. ALLEN, Attorney and Connsellor at Law.

OXFORD, N. C. Practices in the Courts of Granvile and adjoining counties, and the Supreme court at Raleigh. Co Office in court House

PHOMAS W. CANNADY.

ATTORNEY AT LAW OXFORD, N.,C. Practices in the courts of Granvil e and adjoining counapl21-12m.

ful cure at your own home tweny-eight years. Treated by most of the noted specialists without benefit. Cured bimself in three months. and since then hundreds of others Full particulars on application. T. S. PAGE, No. 41 West 31st St.

New York City. CURE THE DEAF

PARKER'S GINGER TONIC

MARVELOUS

Wholly unlike artificial systems. nded by Mark Twain, Richard Processis, Hons, W. W. Astor, Judah P.

SORE, WEAK AND INFLAM-

MED EYES. Produces Long-Sightedness and Restoring the Sight of the Old. Cures Tear Drops, Granulation, Stye Tumors, Red Eyes, Matted Eye Lashes, and Pro-ducing Quick Relief and Permanent Cure.

Grandmother's Ball. EVELYN KIMBALL JOHNSON.

andmother was gay and wou dance all night, In defiance of orthodox creeds; And so I've a Little story to write Concerning one of her daring deeds. ly elever, as we have said.

With dimples that played hide and e cared not whether they stout or slim,

I she could only get to the ball And so, kind reader 'tis plain to see,'

frown Upon every kind of worldly glee,

A foreigner recherche and gay; mother's face,

He declared her the Then he hied away to the old Town Over which some

And planned to honor grande

That night when her fast asleep, And the moon gleamed

the lindens-tall, From her chamber window she

And she was well pleased

With this tall gentleman late from alked into their midst, and, seizing

And left the foreigner all in a whiri, Minus of partner, upon the floor I ext morn this story was spread around town,

h shake of the head and nous frown Pronouncing all such "conduct

But when age had wrinkled dear grandina's face, And her children's children

The blazing place. With its mouth of crimson gaping

She related this little escapade And laughed till the crystal tears Those cheeks that to mem'ry

Dear cheeks that ne'er were wrink led by frown !

Edward Graham Haywood. Since George E. Badger and Judge Pearson died it is very doubtful if North Carolina has had as able, as thoroughly furnished, as scientific a lawyer as identified with the North Caroli Col. Edward Graham Haywood na bar. He was strictly a scienwhose death was announced in tific lawyer and his range of studyesterday's Star. He died sud- ies was wide and accurate. The denly Monday night in Releight only lawyer left who can fairly where he was born, and where be said to be so scientific and he had lived all his life. He was learned as Marcellus V. Lanier. probably in his 57th year. He Esq. of Oxford, of whom Chief was the son of the late Senator William H. Haywood, who was 1875, that if there was any more considered the best equity law- learned lawyer in North Caroliyer of his time. Col. Haywood na than he was that he did not was prepared for college by the appear before the Supreme Court. late J. M. Lovejov, of revered the writer of this were class- Greek Testament every day and mates at Lovejoy's. The late possibly his Hebrew Old Testa-Daniel, Louis E. Henry, a very bright and promising youth, and balf description of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first, the analysis of large frame and grew stout no better than the first of the mountain state. David M. Carter, Gen. Junius ment. Col. Haywood was a man class. As far as known to us, had a big brain in a big head.
He had a system of mnemotechy

in our class at the University and here were some sixty-four mem-ed him, was an unusually hand- tion if we are not mistaken. He Ed. Graham, as the boys callsome boy, and dressed with a was a man of superior abilities, fastidious neatness and costliness of attire that none rivalled. MENSTRUATION or He was unusually precocious and crate army as Lieut. Colonel. sequent distinction. He delivered an address at one of the ber. Apply Loveice commencements that Uxford, N. C.

the boys, with the boys' injustice! and envy, said either his father wrote it or his friend Col. D. K. McRae. We have but little whose home is in an adjoining for he was intellectually extreme- small cabin situated in the foot-He married Miss Mag Henry, est neighbor, reached home about of the most charming and superb entering the cabin he threw himwomen we have ever known or self down upon his cot and soon seen. She died a few years ago, fell into a restless slumber, from Though one was short and through By her Col. H. had several sons which he awoke late in the night

His seat was once contested and out medicine It might haphe made a speech in behalf of pen that some neighbor would himself. He was then some pass in the morning, but there That all the good people looked with twenty-eight years old. Judge was no certainty that any person the ablest effort of the mind for a weeks.

man of his age to which he had A realization of his helpless listened. He was a Presidential condition aggravated his disease, Elector in 1860, and canvassed and the poor man grew worse, did not indulge in anecdote or il- his one faithful friend and com lustration. His speeches were panion, could be heard near by, ble brute to the rescue. philosoph cal elevated, eloquent evidently waiting for his coming. and statesmanlike. They were All day long the animal retoo purely abstruse and intellect. mained within hearing distance. nal and subtile for the universal and during the long tendious mind to grasp. But as manifes- hours of the second night could many Presidential tickets and len his master.

Oxford in 1844. He said that no response save a moan of diswas his first appearance as a political speaker. The Senate and As the music louder and louder blew the bar were his proper arenas. (Toquote one line from a balladold) There he was unapproached by And the revelers' feet more quickly any man North Carolina ever had at the bar or ever sent to the loped rapidly away. As the Senate. Mr. Gaston might rival sound of the horse's feet died him in some particulars, but in away the sick man felt as eloquence, in the most exquisite though his only fund and Hurried her out through the open English in the most luminous means of relief were now lost to and perspicacious thinking, in him, and he shuddered at the clearness of statement, in lucidi- thought that he might fall into ty of arrangement, in readiness that never-waking sleep before of retort, in powers of memory, any person could know that he in wit, in humor, in sarcasm, in And withered lips spoke grand- dramatic description, in superb acting he has never been equally ed by any North Carolinian. Mr.

partments and was familiar with among the great lawyers of our

State. He seried in the Confed-

The nearest neighbor of the sick man was a ranch-nan, whose home was located on the river about six miles distant. Once in Benton, so long in the U.S. Senate, from Missouri, was a very a while this neighbor rode over able man, almost of the first rank. to the miner's camp for a short visit, but these trips were made He was able to hold his own in at irregular intervals, and there debate when the great debators was no certainty when he would and orators and philosophical be there again. statesmen of the country were in that angust body.

was ill.

The ranchman on the river had finished his breakfast and was But we have been betrayed injust ceming out of his house to an unanticipated parenthesis. when his attention was attracted Col. Haywood, like Mr. Badger, to a riderless horse coming down was at his greatest at the bar. the mountain road at a tremen-He was essentially a lawyer, al dous gallop. though he was a man of excel-The horse did not slacken his lent reading in some other de-speed until he reached the corral or enclosure near the house. He some of the masters in literature. was flecked with foam and short Those who were best qualified to of breath showing that he had estimate his legal acquisition com from a distance and at unpowers had the highest opinion of him. He probably received The ranchman, knowing the larger fees than any lawyer ever horse, spoke to him gently, which the animal acknowledged by a loud whinny, at the same time running restlessly up and down the road by the cerral. The ranchman approached the horse which, however, would not suffer itself to be captured, but galloped off toward its home, stopping Justice Pearson remarked about at a short distance and looking built of great slabs of well-hewn back with evident anxiety.

The ranchman returned to the corral, when the horse again galloped down the road, and moving Mr. Lanier is not only learned uneasily about, as if determined at law but he is familiar with five

Another attempt to capture left the great wall sprang far up were of the ten or eleven inches high, and imal avoiding the man in a man-hundred feet—a frowning mass this writer alone survives. Mr. He had a system of mnemotechy called to the man to follow—call- you how it was built to keep the cord Times has found a man in of his own, and once thought of ed to him by every dumb sign. Warlike Tartars out—twenty-five Stanly county one hundred and Lovejoy said to us more than of his own, and once thought of chantable Tobacco in these States once that it was the best class— rublishing it. He could recall almost as plainly as though he feet high by forty thick, twelve twelve years old. His name is once that it was the best class— rublishing it. He could recall almost as plainly as though he feet high by forty thick, twelve twelve years old. His name is bread. He had a basket on his were possessed of the power of hundred miles long, with name is the most intellectual he ever any date at will. He published taught. Of the class Haywood some of his more elaborate ar-appearance as a public speaker had been murdered in his lonely this gigantic work built on the fight of Yorktown by a gentle. I wondered to mysel was at Wilson some few years cabin by "rustlers;" or had acci- rugged, craggy mountain tops man who heard the conversation that rich man walk off, what cold. If Taylor's (h rokee Remago on a Tenth of May celebraand he deserves to be numbered hills several miles from his neara most lovely and beautiful wo dusk from an extended prospect- movement manifested great of railroad in the United States. of the Old School Baptist church man, and a daughter of the late, ing tour almost worn out and pleasure and started on a gallop The material it contains would for more than sixty years. Nev-Hon. Louis D. Henry. She was sick. He removed the saddle toward his home. The horsemen build a wall six feet high and er was known to tell a lie; never morning paper, while she gazed sister of Louis E. mentioned and bridle from his horse and followed at a lively pace, but the two feet thick right straight had a law suit; never took a dose And her eyes could look saucy or above. Mrs. Haywood was one turned him loose to graze, and free horse kept well to the front, around the globe. Yet this was of medicine, and never paid a tent intentness. Thus an hour to be sure that the chase had not out a trace of debt or bond. been abondoned.

One day last autum a miner,

On they sped, and in about for-ty minutes from the time of start. tent office says that "Until one was given him. Col. Haywood in early life was Almost delirious; he knew not jug the men reached the cabin of goes through the twenty-nine at. One felt like taking off his ha member of the Legislature what to do, being alone and with- their friend, which seemed to be amining divisions of the patent in the presence of this venerable

The men dismounted, and en at its 185 classes of subjects, subtering the cabin found George divided into over 8,000 sub-classupon his couch, wasted in form as, but little conception can be Badger heard it and said it was would call for days or possibly and apparently dead, and at the had of the diversified subjects of door stood the taithful horse, invention to be seen there, or the which, having tried to save his immense amount of labor that master, was patiently waiting for must necessarily be bestowed some sigh that he yet lived. The upon their examination before a extensively. His speeches were Morning came and he was una- sad sight was so, touching as to patent can be issued, as no part not popular. That is to say, he ble to leave his bed. His horse, force tears to the eyes of the men of a device can conflict with who had been guided by the no- somebody else's device. The

A hasty examination disclosed these divisions, and the cost of the fact that life was not extinct, examining and "keeping the run" and while one of the men set of over 3,000 sub-classes of deabout preparations for the relief vices, in round numbers, are: of the sick man, the other mount- Persons employed, 263; cost per tations of ability they were the be heard moving about with rest- ed his horse and galloped away annum of running the divisions, finest speeches delivered in the less tread, as though conscious for a physician, the nearest of $479,160 It costs for photo-State in the memorable year of that some misfortune had befal- whom lived some twenty miles graphing or otherwise producing "For some must watch while som impending war. Mr. Badger and Daylight appeared at last, and Betere sundown of that day Patent Office Official Gazette, for Mr. Henry W. Miller were both the sick man made an effort to the doctor reached the miner's five years ending 18%, $183,686,- The breezes of Fortune fan the Electors on the other fickets, speak. The horse, hearing the cabin and found the sick man 58, and for producing copies of surface of the great Ocean o welcome voice, went to the door conscious, through the skillful drawings of the weekly issues of Humanity, and it laughes and most thoughtful and attractive to o the cabin, and pushing it open ministrations of his kind neigh patents, designs, trade marks and dances in the sunlight of Pros the cultivated. Mr. Badger's thrust his head into the sick bors. Within a fortnight he was pending applications, and for the perity. The silvery light a ark forte was not the stump. He was man's presence, at the same time able to walk about. When told reproduction of exhausted copies, forty-five years old before he siving a low whinny, as much as of the remarkable conduct of his for the same period, $368,872.13. made a political speech. It was to say, "What is the matter?" to horse the man wept like a child. delivered in the Court House at which kindly inquiry there was He said he had always known that his horse was unusually intel igent and affectionate, but he is visiting her cousin Miss Bettie For a moment or two the hors could scarcely believe the story McNair in Henderson. stared strangely about, seemingof his wonderful sagacity.

y bewildered, then quickly with-George is in good health-again. drew, and in a few moments galand the care and attention which he bestows upon his horse are like the care of a devoted mother home Saturday. for a favored son. Not long since gentleman, having glearned of the incident related above, expressed a desire to purchase the horse, but George informed him that no money could tempt him to part with the animal; that it was his intention to keep him as land could produce, and when he died to bury him decent'y, and erect over his grave a monument with the inscription: "To M Best Friend."

The Greatest of Great Walls Says a correspondent of the Milling World, who has recently been traveling in China: "O course we had to go to the great walls of China. This country abounds in great walls. Her mural defences were most extensive-walled country, walled cit ies, walled villages, walled palaces and temples-wall after wall and wall within wall. But the greatest of all is the great wall of China, which crests the mountain range and crosses the gorge from here some forty miles away. Equeezing through the last deep gorge and a deep rift in the solid rock cut out by ages of rolling wheels and tramping feet, we reach the great, frowning, doubled-bastioned gate of stone and hard brick-one archway tum-y to England. bled in. This was the object of morning to get a colored boy to it will all be true. our mission, the great wall of China, built two hundred and carry a bundle weighing two and Our hearts are harps, tuned by the remaining three months. thirteen years before our era, stone, laid in regular courses some twenty feet high and then topped out with large hard-burned bricks, filled in with earth and gave the job to a white boy who their several notes. But the reinforced by shortage in most closely paved on top with more Episcopal College in Maryland, if we are not mistaken. He and cocasionally giving a loud high and thick and castellated only wish some of our learned the last the la the horse, which usually was a the mountain side—now straight experice in the new order of of love and kindness are gone crops of these States, which is horse ran up the road again and of this wall; the book will tell A correspondent of the Con- sat on a doorstep. The negro was be a bright future for all mer-quickly saddled two of the best toys. The great pyramid con-dentist, but from the strings. As I stood and affections and children teething. April 29th, 1887.

Years Old.

horses on the place, and secur tains 85,000,000 cubic feet, the his last set at the youthful age watched these two extremes, I ing their revolvers to guard great wall 6,350,000,000 cubic of 109. To show the strength of pitied both, but pitied him most against danger, and providing feet. An engineer in Saward's his manhood yet, it is enough to who had so much, yet wanted some medicine and stimulants to party here some years ago gave state that last winter he cut that great gift of Gid-1 heart doubt that it was his own work county, and who lives alone in a use in case of emergency, they it as his opinion that the cost of wood, cut up and split into fine well trained to the sufferings of rode rapidly away in the directhis wall, figuring labor at the wood a large dead tree, and last humanity. tion of Galena George's cabin. same rate, would more than year sprouted tourteen acres of George's horse observing this equal that of all the 100,000 miles ground. He has lived a member now and then looking back, as if done in only twenty years with- doctor's bill. He fired off the and thirty mills passed. A lady office, and takes at least a glace man of four generations back."

A Letter From Somewhere, SOMEWHERE, N. C., 1 July 19,1887 MR. EDITOR: I, Tom Tullomething of what I teel and see somewhere, am going to tell you happening around me. What I have to say will at least have this merit, that it comes fresh from the beart. My thoughtel will be disconnected and often number of persons employed in times in homely language, but they will be the sincere atterance Things stranger than romance are happening Somwhere that you know not and dream not of But such is the world, must sleep," And some must laugh while some plates of these devices for the must weep.

les on the happy wave; h gen tle billows rise and fall and soft ly murmer sweet anthems of rest and peace. But alas, all the Ocean is not surface. Below the Miss Nannie McNair of Tarboro shining wave is the charm and the abyes; and ah, who can look deep down into the Ocean o Mr. and Mrs. Lysander Moore, Humanity, and see the misery of Kansas City, Mo., who have and crime and degredation there been here on a visit to Mr. Geo. without having his soul stired to . Harris' family, left for their its very depths! Alas, those who float carelessly upon the surface From the present outlook it is of the Ocean seldom think of the safe to predict there will be a -hadow they cast upon the grea

Henderson News.

verlooks the pocket flask.

cansiderable increase in the popmass of Humanity below them. ulartion of Henderson in the near I am a toiler, a toiler in this great Human Sea, trying hard to Farmers tell us there is little swin, and at every stroke feeling cause for complaint about tobac- some one pulling or pushing me he lived upon the very best that co worms just now. They are down. It is so hard to keep up scarcer this senson than has been the struggle. To struggle and struggle and struggle and never The Germantown Independent get higher. At times I have is of the opinion that there seems thought, why not give up,-why to be an oversight in a law against not cease my puny struggling concealed deadly weapons that and sink,-sink down and down among the monsters of darkness The heaviest rain we have had that revel below me? in this section in a long time fell I know the dark side of lif Thursday afternoon. It washed and I have had glimpses of the the land badly and proved quite bright side. The iron fingers of damaging to crops in some local Destiny have swept the strings of poor Tom's heart and they Messrs. Allen & Ginter, of have vibrated as though they Richmond, have bought a lot would break. Then wonder not on Montgomery street, and con that I should feel for the suffers somewhere. Marriage bells are tracted for a large four-story facwringing Somewhere, and funeral dirges are tolling, and your Messrs, Clary Brothers will also build on Garnett street on their hear them not; but I hear them. This town Somewhere is one o lot, work having already been commenced. This firm handles the chief stalls in Vanity Fair large quantities of the "weed," and the programme, as you might much of which is shipped direct- guess, is varied enough. I hope to write to you occasionally, and the receipts for the correspond- Hunt. We have read a great lately I will tell you of what is happen- ing nine months of the previous cured by bond and to bear interest about the New South. We know ing Somewhere. Sometimes my year, the rece pts in both mark- at eight per cent, per annum, from better now what it means than letters will be filled with sadness ets being about equal. It is not we did yesterday. We tried this and sometimes with gladness, but expected that over 6,000,000 a balf pounds and costing twen. the hand of God and given us to which will make the combined ty-five cents from a store to our gladden our journey through receipts of the two markets about house, a few blocks off. He ask- life. They are so strung that the 54,000,000 pounds, or 25,000,000 ed ten cents to do the errand, rosy fingers of joy and the iron pounds less than the preceding a co-partnerships, under the firm We declined his services and hand of sorrow may each touch year. This very large amount. only asked five cents. This is the damp atmosphere of the world every loose Tobacco market in boasted "New South," and we often rusts the strings and the both the States, is proof positive that we represent a number of the Largest, most Reliable and most Libtheoretical writers upon the sub- screw the keys and get it all out named was very meagre. What State, and we are prepared to write ject could have a little practical of tune; all the soft sweet notes then can be said about the 1887 stopped in the street Somewhere most favorable weather conditaught. Of the class Haywood was the finest in intellect unless was the finest in intellect unless. Carter was abler. We rather or think Carter had the most logical mind as he had the greatest talents for the acquisition of languages. He was the ablest man grages. He was the ablest man grages. He was the ablest man talent specific to the finest intellect unless some of his more elaborate arguments. The last production on top for six horses to be driven dent says of him: "He remembers distinctly seeing the soldiers say, I'll give you ten cents for fourteen burded tell you that something was wrong. The old negro rais impressed the ranchman that he felt that something was wrong. Could it be that Galena George—as the wint a dent says of him: "He remembers distinctly seeing the soldiers of fourteen burded tell you that some the first the abreat of the late of the dently fallen into the shaft of his vaulting over gorges, spanning between Cornwallis and Wash- kind of a heart he had. I am edy of Sweet Gum a id Mallein is in the without the means of es- wide streams, netting the river ington at the surrender. With sure it could not have been larger evil results. It or s coughs, archways with huge hard bars of this gun uncle Billy has probably er or better than the puny copper colds and consumption. The strange conduct of the copper, with double gates, with killed more deer than any other coin over which he was disputing. horse indicated that something swinging doors and bars set thick man in North Carolina. He has Such a heart was not given him unusal bad happened, and that with iron armor-a wonder in the also a pocket book which belong by God; it was once in perfect was enough to prompt the ranch- world before which the old time ed to his father and is possibly tune and could respond to the A first-class barman to speedy action. Calling classic seven wonders, all gone 125 or 150 years old. He has his touch of sorrow, but the heavy yourself to be without it again?

H. T. Hughes, one of his assistants, the men now save the great pyramid, were third set of teeth—opt from the weight of gold had broken some it never fails to relieve all bowel

Gentle Woman's Revenge.

Husband and wife had a little tiff. He buried his now in old musket over the heads of the entered the car. Husband drop-An exchange in describing the immense crowd, after which a ped his paper and looked at her

"Ah," said he, "that's a fine roman. And a widow, too. Don't you think she's ha dso ne ?" "Yes, rather, You seem to like widows."

"Indeed I do. They're just charming." Husband evidently thought this would pique his partner.

But it didn't. "Allred," said she, tenderly, and placing her hand softly on on his arm. "Alfred, I guess I was in the wrong a little while igo, when I became angry at you, and I'm sorry, so sorry, so sorry. Will you forgive your litle wife ?" "Certainly. Don't say another word about it." "And will you grant a little request I have to make of you, hubby dear ?" "Of course. Anything that lies in my p wer."

' You say that you think widows are so charming ?" "Then make me one; that's a good husband, mine. Oh, I shall Protection or Free Trade. There is no doubt South is rapidly becoming protectionized."-Baltimore Ameria can, Rep. Prot. .-

"This is not true. If it were true you could find Protection sell at public anction, at the this is not the case. We do not believe that a Protection Democrat would stand the ghost of a chance in any district in the State. Many daily papers are for Protection, but they have not been able to beguile the people."

-Wilmington Star. next Democratic State Convenion to declare unequivocally for Raker in the property known as the Free Trade as against Protection, and put the Democratic nominee in Granvill county, N. C. This Mine on this platform there will be a is on the land adjoining the square issue before the people. two hundred and thirty acres, more or less. WALTER CLARK, In this event not a single Demo- or less. Oxford, N. C. cractic nominee will be elected June 9th, 1887. in this State, The Republicans desire a fight on this issue. Shall D LOT IN OXFORD. we have it next year! We are! certain the Democrats will try to the receipts of loose Tobacco in end of Main Street, adjoint the largest markets of Virginia or store of Banky Gee, and the King bury residence, being the place no North Carolina-Danville and occupied by Williams & Forman Lynchburg, for the nine months 40 feet back from street. At the were 17.542.000 pounds short of in said property, owned by D. pounds will come to each market Jung 18 and we have left only harsh dis-course of selfishness and lust. In the other day a rich merchant the 1886 crop, even under the Respectfully.

A Bright Prospect for Virgin-

> Golden Threads. The chilling blasts of winter

An unimely death so often fol-lows neglect of a slight cough or

For Toilet Use Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly ease of the scalp caused my hair to be come harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles to this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

PERFECT SAFETY, prompt action, and wonderful curative properties, easily place Ayer's Pills at the head of the list of popular remedies for Sick and Nerva ous Headaches, Constipation, and all silments originating in a disordered Liver.

I have been a great sufferer from Headache, and Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the only medicine that has given me relief. One dose of these Pills will quickly move my bowels, and free my head from pain. — William L. Page, Richmond, Va. Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Low Sold by all Dealers in Madiate

LAND SALE.

Sale of Town Lot.

Notice: If the Star will influence the to the highest bidder, for cash, at

By virtue of the powers vested in If will be well to notice that the store house and lot situated in the town of Oxford, at the North beginning with October 1, 1886, same time and place and on the and ending with June 30, 1887, same terms will be offered for sale in D. C. WHITE, | Executors,

CANNADY & FEILD

Notice.