THE NORTH CAROLINA HERALD
M. KIZER & CO.,
Editors and Proprietors
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1887

VOLUME III.

With this issue we enter Volume III. Two years old. Are asked whether we have been of any good to ourselves and to our nation. The first part we can answer. In the second we can hardly reply. As editor and readers know, we have tried to push the material welfare of our people. Not one number of the Herald has appeared, in which we have not advocated progress and advancement. We pride ourselves that in our two years' course we have not done anything to injure or impede this prosperity. All we ask is common confirmation of your patronage, and we will try to give you value received.

NULLIFICATION IN MAINE.

A man named Burns imported Imposts from Europe and sold them in the original packages. Being indicted for selling liquors, the judge of the Superior court charged the jury that the act was a violation of the law of Maine. The judge knew that the law of Maine was not inferior to the law of the United States. This question has been finally settled by the Supreme Court of the United States as follows:

Justice Taney stated the case. The question is how far a state may regulate or prohibit the sale of ardent spirits, the importation of ardent spirits, the importation of which has been authorized by Congress. Is such a law a regulation of foreign commerce or of the internal traffic of the state? This question came directly before the court for the first time in the case of Brown v. the State of Maryland, 12 Wheaton, 419. And the court there held that an article authorized for the use of Congress to be imported should not be subject to the laws of the state. The former case was decided in 1819, and it remains to be seen if the importers for some reason original in the case in which it was imported.

Proceeding, the Chief Justice says:

Adopting, therefore, the rule as laid down in Brown v. Maryland, I propose to apply it to the cases of Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The law of Congress regulating foreign commerce authorizes the importation of spirits distilled liquors, and liquors in casks or barrels containing less than a certain quantity, specified in the laws upon this subject. Now the State law can exercise no influence over the importation of these articles by the importer in the several ports of arrival in which they are to be used. It would be duty of this court to decide their rule.

Now, if the Maine folks proceed with their measure they will have to be whipped into line. The affair is coming on at a good time, for the tobacco factories will soon close, and many thousand colored men would like the job of making Maine submit to the laws of the Union.

Volunteer---Thistle.

We reported the victory of the Volunteer on Sept. 24th in our last issue. The second race did not take place on Sept. 25th, but on Friday Sept. 28th a stiff breeze gave both yachts a chance to show their sailing qualities. The preparatory gun was fired at 10:32. Both yachts crossed the line at 10:48, the Volunteer gaining a start and keeping the lead throughout the race. The Volunteer won by 11 minutes and 54 seconds.

President Cleveland, in his Southern and Western trip, hires his own car, selects his own company, and pays his own friends traveling and other expenses en route, like any other citizen. This is a Democratic administration—Abercville Citizen.

On Wednesday last the New York Democratic Convention at Saratoga nominated the following ticket: For Secretary of State, Frederick Cook Compton; E. C. Womble, Treasurer; L. J. Fitzgerald, Attorney General; Chas F. Tolson.

The Massachusetts Republican State ticket: Governor, Oliver Ames; Lt. Governor, J. Q. A. Brooks; Secretary of State, H. J. Pearce; Treasurer, A. W. Beard; Auditor, T. R. Ladd; Attorney General, A. S. Waterman.

The Russell Gold Mine of Montgomery county, has ordered two large crushers, six automatic ore feeders, and nine concentrators. These, with the large host recently erected, make the equipment of this mine almost perfect. It is almost needless to add that the Mecklenburg Iron Works secured this order, and in the face of strong competition from Northern and Western builders of mining machinery.

A representative of Dixie dropped into the works of the Mecklenburg Iron Works at Charlotte, recently and found that of all the factories through the shipping port was the busier. Orders for three large, and one medium sized saw mill had been received that morning, and the shipping clerk was endeavoring to keep up with two teams of large, active horses. As we walked through the works it was pleasant to note the active, busy workmen, whose every motion belied the charge that our Southern people are slothful and indolent.

Don't discount everybody by hawking, bawling and spitting but see Dr. Sage's Cutter's Remedy and be cured.

Everybody has heard of a "horse laugh," but who has ever seen an equine gifted with the power of speech? Such an animal would be pronounced a miracle; but so would the telegraph and the telephone have been a hundred years ago.

Even very recently a cure for consumption would have been looked upon as miraculous, but now people are beginning to realize that the disease is not incurable. Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery will cure it, if taken in time.

This world-renowned remedy will not make new lungs, but it will restore diseased ones to a healthy state, when all other means have failed. Thousands can gratefully testify to this. All druggists,
