

Wonderful Furniture Values

At Our New Location

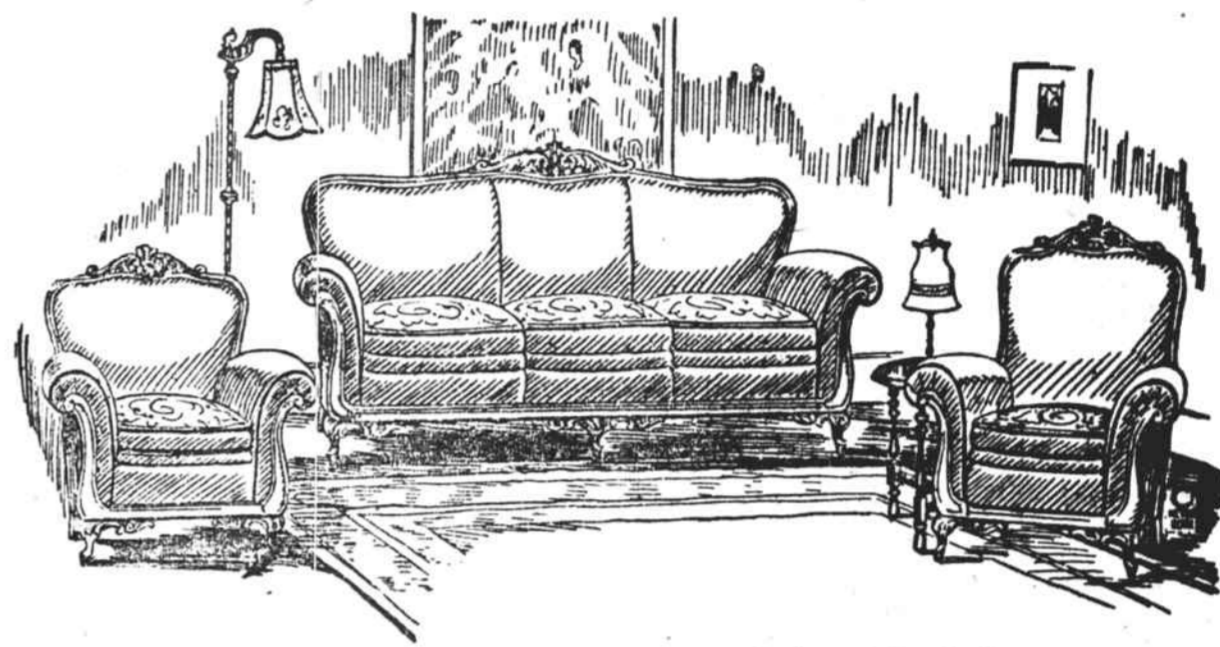

We have recently moved into the store on the corner formerly occupied by T. V. Allen. This gives us more than twice the floor space we had before and makes it possible for us to serve the furniture buying public to much better advantage than ever before—To illustrate this service we are showing below a few of the many unusual furniture values we are offering—This is not a sale—though the prices sound like it—just a sample of the values we are offering from day to day.
