"Lady-Frock" Has Multitude of Uses

Warrenton, North Carolina

HARRIET POINTS OUT NECESSITY FOR AT LEAST ONE OF THESE LONG-SLEEVE MODELS IN EVERY WELL-PLANNED SPRING WARDROBE

BY HARRIET

ONE may be undecided whether to buy a jacket suit or an ensemble for Easter.

But there is one type or dress that every smart woman is sure to need this late spring and summer that is a safe bet, whether this is a new coat to wear over it or whether one's last year's coat is used.

The dress I have in mind is the long-sleeved "lady-frock" which is appropriate for afternoon parties, for little affairs at home, for the theater, for dinner in town and for fust about all those times when one wants to look her best-not too dressy but still somewhat more important than a tailored frock al-

Style Is Important

This is usually a mousteline de soie, a chiffon, crepe Loma, georgette or some other sheer silk frock, made with especial attention turned on sleeves, neckline and skirt.

This is a frock every woman might as well plan. She will need it. She will wonder a hundred times, "What shall I wear," if there is no dress like this hanging in her wardrobe.

I suggest one of the new, shadowy prints for this type of dress, preferably in a leaf or a fern design, but of course rather delicate flowers are just as good a choice.

One very springy dress of this type is pictured here. It features a green leaf design on a soft gray background. It is a French import, from Philippe and Gaston, featuring an overskirt, flaring sleeves with tight cuffs and a little vestee with a rippling jabot ending the V neck that the vestee fills.

Sleeves Cut Raglan

The sleeves are cut raglan with the shoulders of the bodice and a little sash ties in a pert bow on one side. Such touches as these give a sizable brim. There are lit- perfect taste. It is just a few yards of lovely material crown. And chenille dots its chic practically an established shape for Quite appropriate for wear with this type of dress is a Marcelle Lely spring hat of green baku straw with chenille polka dots in darker green, also illustrated. This hat folds back its front brim to make letting its length out in the rear to and jade green ring would be in tinted ones are smarter than white.
