

years old.

James McCroden was a school teacher in the city schools of Baltimore. The daughters were high class seamstresses and sewed for the wealthy families in the city. They were very musical and often entertained in a musical way. All regular attendants, some being Presbyterian and some Episcopalians. Robert never joined any highly respected gentleman, loyal norantly as Mrs. Perinson pictures church until he came to North and true. He had many friends them. And the appearance of Wise Carolina where he united with and he loved them. He was fond, in those days suggested to her the Reedy Creek Baptist church near of flowers and animals. He took appearance of frontier life in those Grove Hill.

Harmon. Later the father took another school and left Robert until his death. with Mr. Harmon's family. Harmon had a brother-in-law who liv-This was in 1861.

Carolina to visit this family and children of Mr. and Mrs. George organized at Ransom's bridge un- ful. der Major Rob Alston and went straight to Hanover Court House, the first battle Robert was in. From there he went to Maryland. He was then 18 years old and was a great favorite among the soldiers as he had both music and wit about him.

In the battle of Spottsylvania Court House Mr. McCroden, Maj. Robert Alston, Capt. Phil Alston and black headed Al Alston were all wounded. Mr. McCroden, losing an arm, came near dying. When he left the hospital he was sent back to Harmon's at Grove Hill, but spent much time at Mr. Henry Egerton's, Mr. Pittman's and Dr. Perry's, all of these living near Grove Hill. After the war Mr. Harmon went back to Baltimore and sociated with each other in re-Mr. McCroden went to live with ligious, social and educational as-Mr. Kearney Williams, who had a Summer home in Warren county. but a large plantation in Martin poor white folks" and to their wearcounty.

He rode in a carriage with Mr. ing in a field with a hoe." Well, Williams to Martin county and that may have been a strange sight, stayed there an entire Summer but no dishonor can be attached to alone with the servants while the it-Perhaps she was also ignorant family visited Mrs. Rie Alston of of the thousands and tens of thous-Warren county, the mother of ands of white folks in the textile Mrs. Williams. From there he mills of her own Massachusetts with , came to live with Mr. Henry Har- living quarters so squalid that they slept by shifts in their beds, and ris of Odell. Mr. and Mrs. Harris and son, Oscar, lived at the old probably it was pitable ignorance Harris home. When Mrs. Harris that in Hawtree she was among the that did not permit her to recognize died, Miss Becky Jones, Mr. Harris' purest Anglo-Saxon stock in all of sister, came to live with them and God's universe, and that they too stayed there until her death. Mr. saw conduct and heard language Oscar Harris married Miss Sallie upon the part of certain new-Bet Wiggins and Mr. McCroden comers that failed to measure up continued to live in the Harris to their standard of propriety, but home. He lived there to see Mr. Southern good breeding prevented home and he came as a member to the world the conditions result- you have inherited the virtues of ton spent Sunday in the home of of the family and remained there ing from our parents we resent it. for 27 years. During that time Mr. and Mrs. Davis both died but Mr. McCroden continued his home there with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. the family were church people and Davis and Mrs. Beaufort Scull and remained there until his death.

great pride in keeping his room days." Guess when she heard noth-his father left Baltimore and took bed better than most people who abolition societies and mixed schools a school at Oakland out from the have two hands. Three years ago city and Robert went with him. he had a fall which injured his hip They boarded with a family named and since that time he grew more feeble, gradually growing worse

He was well cared for and every wish gratified and he will be greated in Warren county near Reedy ly missed by those who cared for wells, and "poor white folks" wear-Creek church and ran a small him in his last days, both while and ing "sun-bonnets" and "working in shuttle loom. This place was colored. He was tenderly laid to a field with a hoe" instead of more known as the Jack Williams place. rest beside his old friend, Mr. Geo. than its proportional part of re-Davis in the cemetery at Arcola. Mr. Harmon and family and The Rev. S. E. Wright conducted Robert McCrode came to North the burial services and the grandshortly after their arrival the War Davis carried the floral offerings Between the States broke out, and which his friends had sent in mem-Robert enlisted at Grove Hill. They ory of one who was always faith.

She refers to the "first bathroom" as if the residents of Wise were at that time a bunch of ig-July 9, 1929. noramuses. Well, that same intelligence that permitted them to recognize the difference between a deep well and an artesion well would not He was gentle, cultured and a have permitted them to act as ig-> family of Oxford spent the week den.

When he was fifteen years old neat and clean and could make a ing about witchcraft trials and of Henderson visited relatives here and churches and railroad trains on Sunday.

'twas natural to conclude she was in Africa or Alaska, and not in dear old Massachusetts.

Well, Wise has survived all these things, even though it has "refrigidaires" instead of "frigidaires" and "Artesion Wells" instead of deep fined, cultured people who are not ashamed to wear a sun-bonnet and work with a hoe if necessary, and make light-bread with a leven and cook biscuit, etc.

Wednesday, July 24 William S. Hart _In_ "White Oak" Kino News "Mystery Rider," Serial Chapter No. 3

Thursday-Friday, July 25-26 "The Case of Lena

W. Davis of Arcola offered him a our downfall, presumes to hold up conscience, proud of the fact that daughter, Miss Margie, of Warrenhonesty, kindness, courtesy and in- Mr. Boyd Reams. dustry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Currin and

Vol. II.

girls.

extracting bullets?"

ed down that cobweb?"

"boC eowbrys s .

"Nora, why haven't you brush-

"Cobweb? Lor' mum, I thought

Gam: The folks across the street must be away. They have Bage: No, their daughter is that had something to do with

?L

him for years."

yer wireless."

no lights.

having a party.

Very truly yours, H. C. COLEMAN. South Hill, Va.

Louisburg were visitors in the home of Mr. J. K. Pinnell Sunday. Afton News Items A. Daniel.

Marmaduke Items

end in the home of Mr. S. H. Bow-Mrs. Lola Bennett of Durham Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis Pinnell days recently with Mrs. C. A. Haithcock

Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. William-

Mrs. Frank Pinnell and children son and children of Henderson Jy19-4tc THE HUNTERGRAM A Newspaper Within A Newspaper No. 3 July 19, 1929 Walter White, Adv. Mgr. A. Jones, Editor PITCH THE TUNE FAIR VISITORS Are You Roy Davis has put up a put-One of the boys commented ting-contraption up the street. the other evening, one of the Preserving Maybe it will take some of the older ones, you know, "Things lustre from listless checkers. kinder picking up about the Incidents of Today Anyway the game of putting-em village, buddy, with the younger in has followers already and ones back from school and some For several 'lookers' visiting here, it here's luck to Roy, the nearest Tomorrow? thing we have in town to a Harkinder looks like old times." It mony King. do for a fact, lad. An "Wonder why chickens al-Hope-the blind man who got ways cross the road?" drunk and went into a dark "Couldn't tell you; I don't even Eastman room to find a black cat. know why they cross their legs." The real optimist is the chap They thought it was a football who sits in the last row of the team in a huddle but it was only gallery and winks at the chorus Kodak a crowd of Scotchmen lighting cigarettes.

golden harp."

She: "I like your cigarette

Scientists say you can make

He: "Why I never use one."

ment?"

holder."

She: "Stupid."

Alyce: "Is Dr. South good at writes a record Maryce: "Yes, indeed! I've which you been sending my husbands to will enjoy in after > years. We have the style and size you want and will be glad to demonstrate.

described tract of land, lying and and Observer ... being in Smith Creek township, June 3-By pd. orde Warren county, N. C.:

renton Ice Co. am Begin at stone, corner in Hall's Miss Elsie Hudson and Messrs. line, thence N. 1-4 degree, E. 95 June -By pd. orde T Frank Smith and O. H. Thomas of poles, 5 links to crooked poplar on Miles Hdwe Co., un. June 7-By pd ordel Heywards Spring Branch, thence Moseley, chmn ..... down said branch as it meanders June 7-By pd order 126 poles, 3 links to a willow tree on C. F. Moseley, coms Miss Lucille Hicks of Henderson said branch; thence S. 7 degrees, June 8-By på order C is visiting in the home of Mr. J. E. 54 poles, 20 links to a sweet gum; Lovell, police office. thence S. 34 degrees, 69 poles, 14 links to small white oak tree in June 8-By pd order 1 M. Drake, pay roll. June 11-By pd. order Hall's line; thence along Hall's line S. 88 degrees, E. 73 poles, 17 links Rooker, comsr. .... to a stone, place of beginning-con-June 11-By pd. order taining 69 1-4 acres, more or less, and little grandson spent several and being same land this day con-Moseley, comsr. ... June 11-By pd. ords veyed to said Capps by said May-J. B. Massenburg, field and wife. June 15-By pd. orde

This July 19, 1929. A. L. PRIDGEN, Trustee.

M. Drake, pay rol June 15-By pd. orde E. Lovell, police d June 15-By pd. W. Strickland, comst. June 15-By pd. orde E. E. Gillam, com June 22-By pd orde M. M. Drake, par June 15-By pd ote C. E. Lovell, police June 29-By pd. off M. M. Drake, para June 29-By pd orde Plummer, horse ba June 29-By pd off Frank Serls, Con June 29-By pd C.I Lovell, police off July 1-By pd offer H. Gibbs, salary-July 1-By pd order R. J. Jones, selar July 1-By bal, on 1 July 1-To bal of FOR BOND Receipt June 3-To bal of July 1-To cash im M. M. Drake, June 27-To cash b C. of D ..... June 27-To inters deposit to date .... Disbursen June 29-By remitted ex. to pay bonds a Saint Peter: "And here's your interest due July 1 $2000, coupons $2 June 29-By pd end Newly - arrived American: "How much is the down payin same, exchange June 29—By cash p izens Bk. for C.d. July 1-By bal. on Store Manager: "What do you mean by arguing with that customer? Don't you know our rule? The customer is always right." July 1-To bal on Floorwalker: "I know it. But he insisted that he was wrong." Also on hand: One certificate

Bank of Warten-One certificate

Citizens Bank ... One note J. C. Moore

past due ----

Balance on note

Warrenton

8 Warren Hotel

1584 shares W. R. B.

Co. stock -----

Bonds, $500 each

200 Shares Warren

Hotel Co. stock

396 shares Warrents

R. R. Co. stock-

Secy. 1

Smith" With Esther Ralston and James Hall "Husbands Must Play," Comedy.

plants intoxicated. Why? Aren't most of them potted, anyhow? Prof.: "Why does lightning never strike in the same place HUNTER DRUG Bathing suits are becoming twice?" shorter; certainly they are be-CO. coming on some girls. Stude: "It doesn't need to." "Home of The Western With some of them like this ( ) Judging by the way they act, and some of 'em looking like ) ( most middle-aged people must Union" they still wear short skirts. feel younger than they look.