Miss Thorne And J. P. Phillips Wed

The wedding of Miss Dora Thorne of Airlie and Mr. John P. Phillips of Hazelton, Pa., was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, June 30, at the Methodist Episcopal church, Littleton. Candlelight from burning cathedral candles illuminated the setting for the wedding. The altar was decorated with palms, fern and ivy against a background of pine.

Prior to the ceremony as the guests assembled, Mrs. John Burwell of Warrenton, at the organ and Mr. Robert Fearring of High Point, vio nist, rendered a program of nuptial music including: "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," sung by Mrs. G. M. Carver of Durham: "Bridal Chorus" from "The Rose Maiden," sung by Mrs. W. A Thorne of Roanoke Rapids, Mrs. 3. M. Carver of Durham, Messrs. J. S. MacRae of Maxton, G. M. Carver of Durham, G. W. Alston of Airlie; and "O Perfect Love," sung by M G. M. Carver of Durham.

Mrs. Eurwell played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the processional changing to the bridal chorus from the opera "Lohengrin" by Wagner as the bride entered. During the ceremony, Mr. Robert Fearing, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. Burwell at the organ, softly played "Shubert's Serenade.' The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding

Ushers for the wedding were Dr. Harvey Griffin of Star, Shelley Dietrich of Hazelton, Pa., William Thorne of Airlie and Sam Thorne of Asheville. The maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Thorne, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Mary Powell Pippen, Miss Frances Vick of Littleton, Miss Ernestine Thies of Charlotte and Miss Lucile Pruette of Richmond, Va., wore becoming frocks of apple-green mousseline chiffon, ankle-length, with slight train. They carried arm bouquets of pink roses, snapdragons and delphinium, and wore

Masters Lee Griffin of Star and Thorne Gregory of Halifax, dressed in long, white flannel trousers and satin blouses, carried the license and ring, followed by little Miss Ria Betsy Alston of Inez, flower gir! wearing a dainty frock of pale pink organza, ankle length, and scattering rose petals. The bride entered with her father, William H. Thorne, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a striking wedding gown fashioned of ivory satin along classic lines, the skirt of which extended into a long graceful train. The frock had a becoming square neck line which was accented by a braided collar of satin. The bridal veil of ivory tulle was cap shape with tiara of braided satin. The bride wore a diamond studded platinum brooch, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies. The bridegroom was attended by Cletus Lyman of Hazelton, Pa., as best man. The ceremony was perfornied by Rev. Rufus Bradley, pastor of ittleton Methodist Episcopal church. Candles for the wedding were lighted by George Thorne and Edgar Thorne, younger brothers of the

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thorne, parents of the bride, entertained the bridal party, out-of-town guests and immediate family, at their home in Airlie. Music for the reception was rendered by Miss Elizabeth Smith of Raleigh, pianist; Mr. Robert

Very Much Improved

After Taking Cardui "I have suffered a great deal from cramping," writes Mrs. W. A. Sewell, Sr., of Waco, Texas. "I would chill and have to go to bed for about three days at a time. I would have a dull, tired, sleepy feeling. A friend told me to try Cardul, thinking it would help me -and it did. I am very much improved and do not spend the time in bed. I certainly can recommend Cardui to other sufferers." Thousands of women testify Cardul benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo. writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know. For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drugstore—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results-money back.
