Brother Littleton Minister Dies
Littleton, Sept. 13.—Rev. Rufus Bradley was called to Birmingham, Ala., Monday on account of the almost sudden death of his only brother, A. Walter Bradley, who suffered a stroke of paralysis at his home there Sunday. Death claimed him Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.
He will be well remembered here by some of the old Bagley School students, having attended Prof. Bagleys School here a number of years ago.
He was raised at Jackson, Northhampton county and was the son of the late J. H. Bradley and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth (Mollie) Bradley. He was a member of the Methodist church.
Mr. Bradley had made his home in Birmingham for the past ten or twelve years where he was well known in the Grocery and Dairy Business.
He is survived by his widow, and one brother, Rev. Rufus Bradley of Littleton. There were no children.
Funeral arrangements had not been completed when Mr. Bradley left here Monday night.

Built Up Strength By Taking Cardui
Here's her own account of how Mrs. T. W. Hardin, of Greer, S. C., was benefited by taking Cardui: "I suffered a great deal from weakness in my back and pains in my side and felt so miserable," she writes. "I read of Cardui and decided to try it. I felt better after I took my first bottle, so kept on taking it as I felt such a need of strength, and it helped me so much."
Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

by Charles E. Drumm
Isaiah Contrasts False and True Worship.
Lesson for September 16th. Isaiah 1.
Golden Text: Psalm 24:3,4.

This stirring sermon of the prophet Isaiah is a thrilling call to reality. The Lord argues the prophet, will not tolerate worship, however elaborate and ceremonial, whose fruits do not manifest the earmarks of righteousness. The heart of the lesson is to be found in the 16th and 17th verses, "Wash yourself clean, banish your evil doings from my sight, cease to do wrong, learn to do right, make justice all your aim, and put a check on violence."
What does this mean in terms of today? Were Isaiah now alive I imagine that his message would sound something like this: "The fundamental cause of our existing social anarchy is a selfish insistence upon individual rights. Unless a workable strategy of social planning is developed, suicidal chaos will inevitably result."
"The millions who can find no work tragically demonstrate the obsolete character of our economic system. They are not Belgian refugees or victims of a flood or earthquake, but the dupes of a stupid, unjust social order over which they have no control. To effectively release them from their plight the State and Federal Governments must provide adequate relief funds, launch large-scale construction programs, and establish unemployment insurance."
"The Church should take a leading part in the gigantic struggle for social reconstruction. Her stake in the fight is momentous, for the basic social and ethical problems of our industrial civilization, are deeply human and personal. She must keep herself well-informed, and must ever be on the alert to hazard much for righteousness. This is no time for complacency. The Society of Christ must be profoundly disinterested with things as they are."

FARMERS IN DEBT

way in a friendly meeting together, it was said. Any debtor or creditor seeking a readjustment in the debt relationship one to the other may ask this committee to investigate and make recommendation to each or both parties for the purpose of effecting a satisfactory solution of any existing difficulties.
Application blanks will be furnished to either the debtor or creditor seeking adjustment. These blanks will be furnished by any member of the committee and may be used to request the aid of the committee. This committee has nothing to do with the actual refinancing of farm loans under the Federal Farm Relief Legislative program. Debtors or creditors wishing to use the services of this committee should get in touch with Chairman A. S. Bugg, or any other member of the committee.
The State Committee consists of the following members: Lionel Weill, chairman, Goldsboro; R. A. Dougherty, Sparta, Dr. D. W. Forster, Executive Secretary, Raleigh, J. L. Skinner, Littleton, Millard F. Jones, Rocky Mount, H. A. Millis, High Point, Julian Price, Greensboro, M. O. Blount, Bethel, J. Allen Taylor, Wilmington.
It was pointed out by Mr. Watkins that Warren county is indebted on farm lands to the excess of one million dollars and the State of North Carolina is indebted in excess of one hundred and five million dollars.

Long-Used Laxative

To be bought and used as needed for many, many years, speaks well for the reliability of Theodor's Black-Draught, purely vegetable family laxative. Mr. C. E. Ratliff writes from Hinton, W. Va.: "My wife and I have used Theodor's Black-Draught thirty-five years for constipation, — tired feeling and headache. I use it when I feel my system needs cleansing. After all these years, I haven't found anything better than Black-Draught."

Use denatured alcohol to remove tobacco stains from copper or brass ash trays.

Zinc is easily cleaned with a bit of lemon left standing on any stain for an hour or so. Wash with hot water. The zinc will look like new.

To remove paint spots from hardwood floors, rub them briskly with kerosene and follow with a cloth moistened in lukewarm water.

A good furniture polish is made of equal parts of kerosene, turpentine and vinegar.

You can prevent eggs from cracking by pricking with a pin before you boil them.

Sandwiches will keep many hours if placed in a covered earthen jar which in turn is set in a pan of cold water.

Put wax paper over watermelon that has been cut. It will keep fresh and moist for a long time.

Lemons will not decay if they are kept in cold water that is regularly changed every day.
