Library News

By The Librarian
Have you ever caught yourself saying "I love reading, but I don't have time to read?" Stop fooling yourself—because we find time to do the things most vital to us.

The Norlina Library reminds you that even a few minutes each day spent in reading can add up to a year of pleasure and profit. Decide now to read more! Visit the Public Library today! We have a new collection ready for your selection.

Correction from last week's article—Phil Lewis's exhibit of N. C. relics and data instead of Phil Perkinson's.

Books have been donated to the Library by Mrs. Gafford and Miss Josephine Kelly. Many thanks for these.
