Revival Services To Be Held At Zion

Revival services will begin on Sunday evening, April 24, at 7:45 o'clock at the Zion Methodist Church near Norlina. The Rev. Donald F. Funderburk, pastor of the church, will bring the messages all week at the request of members of the church.

Mr. Funderburk, a native of Lancaster, S. C., received the B.A. degree from Wofford College, Spartanburg, S. C., and is a candidate, having completed requirements in January, for the B.D. degree from Duke University, which will be awarded in June, 1963.

His pastorates include Campobello Methodist Church, Campobello, S. C., the Gillburg Methodist Church, Henderson; and the Jerusalem-Zion Methodist Charge of Norlina.

Married to the former Miss Mery Amick, Mr. Funderburk is the father of two children: a son, Marc, and a daughter, Celeste.

Services will be conducted each evening, Sunday through Friday at 7:45 o'clock. Laymen will assist the minister in the services each evening. Special music will be under the direction of Mrs. Roy Hayes and Mrs. George Reed.

Members and friends of the church are invited to make plans to attend every night, Mr. Funderburk said.

Mrs. Pridgen Fed On 72nd Birthday

Mrs. J. C. Pridgen was entertained on her 72nd birthday, Thursday afternoon, April 11, at the home of Mrs. R. G. Norwood on Walker Avenue. The home was tastefully decorated with spring flowers, carrying out the color scheme of purple and white in decorations and refreshments.

Upon arrival the honoree was welcomed by the guests singing "Happy Birthday," and she was also presented a violet corsage. Guests were registered on a purple and white birthday greeting.

Mrs. J. W. Arnold gave a reading, after which Mrs. Pridgen opened the 13 gifts presented by the guests. Pictures were taken of Mrs. Pridgen opening her gifts.

Mrs. Norwood then invited the group to the dining area for refreshments. After the honoree blew out the candles and cut the first slice of the lovely home-baked pound cake, Mrs. Billy Fallaw served the cake and the hostess poured punch from the decorated table which was covered with a lovely lace cloth.
